PREFACE.

TWELVE years have sped away since I first resolved to publish a music book that should contain a larger number of the Church Tunes used in the South and West than had ever been embraced in one volume. Against poverty, adversity, and disappointment after disappointment, I have continued to struggle till God has finally given me success; and I now enjoy the great happiness of presenting my countrymen with the Hesperian Harp. The public will decide whether the book is a good one or not, and will either foster it with their patronage, or send it neglected to an early grave.

The plan of embracing Sunday-school, Infant, Revival, Missionary, and Temperance pieces in the same volume with Church Music, I deem a new, as well as a good one. And I rejoice now in hope that singers at missionary meetings, especially in the South, will henceforth be able to save persons of taste from the torment of hearing "From Greenland's icy mountains," and "nothing else." Surely the missionary hymn will be allowed to rest awhile, till time shall have renovated it and made it once more agreeable to hearts long since sated with its frequent repetition.

Many tunes in this work are entirely new, and appear before the public now for the first time.

I have consulted a great variety of music books, ancient and modern, to make a compilation both pleasing and useful, and have endeavored to give the names of the authors of tunes correctly; but I regret that in many instances I have been unable to learn the names of composers. I sincerely hope that no composer, into whose hands this work may fall, will feel aggrieved to find a tune of his without his name over it, for I would do full justice if I could. I trust therefore that the intention to be courteous will be kindly considered, though the ability to be so has been wanting.

Many of the airs in this book I learned in childhood from the sweet voice of my mother; others I have gathered in different parts of our great and glorious country. The parts alone of such tunes I claim as my own composition, and over them are the words, "arranged by William Houser." Over tunes entirely original the name of the author simply is given.

In my prospectus I promised a book of 500 pages, including the rudimental matter, for $1 50 per copy; but it will be seen that I actually give 553 pages of music, besides 20 pages of preliminary matter! But large as the work is, many fine tunes are necessarily omitted.

I commend to the attention of my readers, the "Southern and Western Pocket Harmonist," by William Walker, author of the "Southern Harmony;" the works of Lowell Mason, of Boston, and of Thomas Hastings, of New York; and the "Southern Church Melodist," by George Hood.

And now at last, when I see the end of my labor, the completion of the Hesperian Harp, I dedicate it, not to man, "whose breath is in his nostrils," but to the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, whose blessing upon it I humbly implore.

PHILADELPHIA, Thursday, Oct. 26, 1848.

* This name is of Germanic origin. The original spelling is Hauser, and the pronunciation How'-zer.

INTRODUCTION.

In the preliminary matter the pronoun I is used instead of we. This is according to my own taste; but I quarrel with no author who chooses to use we.

The spelling of frej is a peculiarity of my own. I persist in this spelling, against custom and the lexicographers, because I deem that analogy and good sense require it.

Several tunes in this book have the Treble and Alto on the same staff; and in such pieces the same note often answers for both parts.

The mood $\frac{4}{2}$ occurs in two tunes. Of course every reflecting person will see that this mood is nothing more than a doubling of the $\frac{2}{2}$, or third mood of common time, the 4 meaning four notes per measure, and the 2 that they are half notes or minims.

The moods of time are not arbitrary characters, fixing, as with the decision of fate, the time of all the notes and rests in the tunes; they are intended to exert a general regulating influence only on time, the sense of the words that are sung being the sole positive regulator of both time and tone. But the moods determine the places of accent in tunes. When four even notes occur under any mood, the first and third notes are accented; when three notes occur, the first only takes accent.

The marks Pia., For., Cres., &c., should be carefully noticed in the pieces wherein they occur; in such tunes they are applicable to the words given; but in singing a hymn in a tune so marked, great care should be used to avoid incongruity in the words and music, the eternal, unalterable law of singing being this, that the music must be varied and sung exactly to suit the sense of the words. What abominable jargon is often made of the finest tunes by inattention to this point! How often, for instance, is a passage that should be sung Pia., or Mez. Pia., sung in For. or FF., and vice versa! I sincerely hope that the frequent remarks I have made on this point here and elsewhere in my preliminary matter, may fully arouse every lover of music in the South and West to a proper consideration of it.

The slurs have to be broken in a great many tunes to sing some of the verses, while they are adhered to in singing the others; and sometimes a slur must be added in singing. These changes occur most frequently in 11s, 12s, and 6s 9s, and a few other styles of song. It is impossible to arrange tunes to suit all the verses of such hymns exactly; but the good sense and judgment of the singer will of course supply such minor defects.

The stems of notes may be turned either up or down according to fancy, there being no law on this subject but the law of taste, which every person has a right to use as he pleases.

The abbreviations of metres are as follows:—

C. M. Common Metre; L. M. Long Metre; S. M. Short Metre; P. M. Peculiar Metre; S. P. M. Short Peculiar Metre; L. P. M. Long Peculiar Metre; C. P. M. Common Peculiar Metre; H. M. Hexameter Metre. Many peculiar metres are expressed by the figures indicating the number of lines and syllables in a stanza.

Everybody should study music, for it is one of the sweetest blessings God has given to man. Heaven and earth are full of music—there is a deep and heavenly philosophy in it, and only the misguided or the vicious repudiate the study of it. Singing should be taught in common schools, and by every fire-side, that children might grow up in an atmosphere of harmony and love; then would quarreling and fighting, and every kind of low and debasing sensuality be kept from among them. Try it, ye parents who are always complaining about the “badness” of your children; set them to singing, and keep them at it, and they’ll sing the devil away, and keep him sung away. And next to the study of music set your children to reading “Tam’s Fortnight Ramble,” and “Droppings from the Heart,” two volumes of the most heart-touching, soul-elevating poetry, by Thomas Mackellar of Philadelphia. I end these remarks with a quotation from the “Fortnight Ramble:”—

“How soothingly the music o’er me stole!
Something of heaven amid a world of sin;
Like healing oil it dropp’d upon my soul,
And calm’d the tumult of my thoughts within.
Nature ne’er meant that man should be a Quaker;
And though the Friends are students in her school,
They follow not each clearly written rule,
Nor in her true harmonic teachings take her.
Life without music is night without a star—
Day without sunshine—rose without perfume—
Eye without lustre—cheek without a bloom—
Or clouds without rainbow when the storm is far.
Music on earth for me, besides the promise given
Of music and of hymns high in the courts of heaven!”

RUDIMENTS OF MUSIC.

Music has been defined, "a succession of pleasing sounds." But this, like many other definitions, is erroneous; for one single sound may be fully musical without being preceded or followed by any other. The truth is, a musical sound is too ethereal—too spiritual a thing to be accurately defined. Yet there is this difference between a sound sung, and one spoken: when a word is sung, the voice remains stationary; when spoken, it slides either up or down: for instance, if the syllable ah is pronounced with a period after it, the voice slides downwards; but if with an interrogation point, the slide is upwards: thus, Ah. Ah? But when the same word is sounded musically, in the key of C, or any other key, the voice remains stationary.

Seven primary or elementary sounds constitute the whole of vocal and of instrumental music: though an octave or succession of eight primary sounds is regarded as forming a Diatonic, i. e. a thorough scale of music. But the eighth sound, either in an ascending or a descending scale, no matter what note is taken as the starting point, is only a repetition of the first one. Any one can easily understand this, by referring to a flute, or a fife. Let him make the first sound (on either instrument) with all the fingers down; then raise each finger in succession till all are up; this will give seven distinct sounds: then with all the fingers down let him blow twice as hard as he did at first, and he will then make a sound just like the one made at first, only eight degrees higher. This completes an octave, or Diatonic Natural Scale of music. A human voice of great compass can perform three such octaves. Several musical instruments can accomplish more.

These seven musical sounds are represented by the first seven letters of the English alphabet, A, B, C, D, E, F, G. Vocal music is generally in four parts, Bass, Air or Tenor, Treble, and Alto or Counter. Each part of music is written on five parallel lines and their spaces, called a staff, (plural staves), thus:—

The staff is used to express different degrees or gradations of sound. The seven musical letters stand thus on the Bass staff:—

NOTE.—The lines and spaces, or intervals of sound, are always counted from the bottom, upward.

(A)

Thus, on the Tenor or the Treble staff:—

From any letter of the series to another of the same name, ascending or descending, is an octave.

The order of the letters on each staff is fixed by a character called a Cleff, or Clif. This character  is called the F cleff, is always used on the Bass, and frequently on the Alto staff, and stands invariably on the fourth line.

The G cleff  stands on G, the second line of the Tenor or the Treble, and so also on the Alto staff, when used for that part of music.

The C cleff  is used in the Counter only, and stands on C, which is the middle line of the Alto, and the same sound as C, third space of the Tenor, and first ledger line above the Bass.

I have said that the cleff governs the order of the letters on a staff. Now if the F cleff, instead of occupying the fourth line of the Bass, were removed to the fifth line, that line, instead of being A, as it now is, would become F, and the whole order of letters on the staff would be changed accordingly. So of any other cleff.

This is the order of the letters on the C cleff:—

Different names are used by different nations to express the seven sounds in the natural scale of music; though the notes they use are all in the same shape, i. e.

RUDIMENTS OF MUSIC.

round, and their other musical characters are the same. The French sing, ut, re, mi, fa, sol, la, se; the Italians, do, ray, mi, fa, sol, la, si, and the English fa, sol, la, mi. But the present race of teachers, American and English, are aping the Italians in the use of do, ray, me, &c. And some of them gravely assert that the seven musical sounds cannot be expressed without using seven distinct syllables, as Do, ray, &c. But if this doctrine is true, all song and hymn singing must be incorrect, for our poets have been so far behind this age of light, or so stupid in the full blaze of it, as not to have woven these almighty syllables into their songs. Nay, I contend that the four old syllables, mi, fa, sol, la, (pronounced me, faw, sole, law,) are fully adequate to the expression of every musical sound in the scale; and that four shapes, the glorious Patent notes of William Little and William Smith, are "just the thing."

EXAMPLE OF PATENT NOTES.

TABLE SHOWING THE PROPORTION OF NOTES.

The Breve is an ancient note twice as long as the modern semi, or half breve.

One Semibreve, or modern whole note, is equal in time to

Two Minims, or half notes,

Four Crotchets, or quarter notes,

Eight Quavers, or eighth notes,

Rests are marks of silence, which show that the singing should cease during the time it would take to sound the notes they represent; except the Semibreve rest, which is used to fill a vacant measure in any mood. It is therefore called the bar, or measure rest.

The Semibreve or whole note rest is a square below the middle line, thus:—

The Minim or half note rest is a square above the middle line, thus:—

The Crotchet or fourth note rest is like an inverted figure 7, and is called a Sutton.

The Quaver or eighth note rest is an inverted Sutton.

The Semiquaver or sixteenth note rest is an inverted Sutton with a hook, or dash.

The Demi-semiquaver or thirty-second note rest is an inverted Sutton with two hooks.

* Anciently a Demiquaver, or sixty-fourth note was used.

These rests are used principally in the anthems. They show that the music must cease for two, four, or eight measures.

The notes and rests have not the same length of time in all tunes, that matter being determined by the moods of time; but they always bear the same proportion to each other.

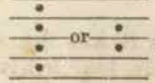

The dot, (•) called the point of addition, set after a note, makes it one-half longer, thus:—

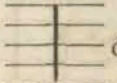

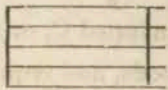

A pointed Semibreve is equal to three Minims; a pointed Minim is equal to three Crotchets, &c. This point is also used after rests, and produces the same effect as after notes.

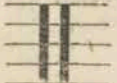

A figure 3 over or under any three notes shows that they are to be sung in the time of two of the same kind without a figure, thus:—

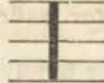

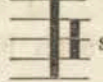

The Repeat  or the  of the old books, shows that the music is to be repeated from it to the next double bar, or close.

The single bar  divides a tune into measures.

A measure  is the space from one bar to another.

The double bar  (of some books) shows the end of a strain. It is sometimes used for a repeat.

This mark  is the double bar of this book. It also shows the end of a line of poetry in many tunes where it is used.

The close  shows the end of a tune.

The figures 1 and 2, at the end of a repeated strain, show that the note or notes under the 1 are to be sung before the repeat, and those under the 2 after, those under the 1 being omitted; but if tied with a slur, both are to be sounded after the repeat.

A slur  over, or under, any number of notes shows that they are all sung to one syllable of the words. If the stems of notes are joined, this answers in place of a slur.

The Brace shows how many parts of music are sung or played together, thus:—

Choosing notes are set one above another, thus:—

The singer is at liberty to take which he pleases. It often adds much to the beauty of a part of music when several persons are singing, for some to take the upper and others the under notes.

Syncopation notes are those out of their proper order in a measure, or driven through a bar, and require the beats to be performed while they are sounding, thus:—

The first measure in this example is an instance of notes out of their proper order in the measure; the next two notes, making a measure and three-fourths, are an instance of notes driven through the bar.

A hold  over, or under, any note shows that such note should be sounded longer than usual.

A Staccato mark † shows that the note it stands over (or under) should be sounded quite forcibly, and with a sudden, short pause after it.

A Trill tr shows that the note over which it is placed may be lightly warbled like a soft roll.

A Prisa :: shows that the word or sentence preceding it must be repeated.

Grace Notes, or Appoggiaturas,  are small extra notes placed before larger ones, to guide the voice gracefully and beautifully to the larger ones. They have no time allowed them, but partake the time of the principal notes. They are often used as principal notes in instrumental passages.

The Crescendo  (or Cres.) shows that a sound should be commenced softly and gradually increased to loud.

The Diminuendo  (or Dim.) is the very reverse of the Crescendo.

The Swell  is a combination of a Cres. and a Dim. A very sudden Crescendo, < or Swell, < is called a Pressure tone.

A sound struck suddenly, with great force, and instantly diminished, is called an Explosive tone; also, Forzando or Sforzando: (> or sf. fz.) It is a sudden Dim.

EXAMPLES.

A Flat \flat set before a note sinks it half a tone.

A Sharp \sharp set before a note raises it half a tone.

A Natural \natural restores a note, previously flatted or sharped, to its natural position in the scale. Example:—

To understand this example the student must remember that in the natural scale of music the two semitones of the octave lie between B and C, and E and F; but as B, in this example, has a flat at the beginning, it is depressed half a tone below its place in the natural scale, consequently a full tone lies between B and C. But the Natural being placed before the second note on B, that note is raised a semitone, and is sung as if it had an accidental sharp before it. Thus it is restored to its natural position in the scale. Another example:—

Here C, having been raised a half tone by the sharp set on it at the beginning, is restored to its natural sound by the Natural. A whole tone is thus induced between D and C, as in the natural scale, and a half tone between C and B. The note after this natural must be sung as if it had a flat before it.

“To sing a sharped semitone correctly, we must say fee instead of faw, &c. Thus in ascending, we say fa, fee, sol, see, law, fa, fee, sol, see, law, lee, me, fa.

“To sing a flatted semitone, we must, in descending, say, fa, me, may, law, lay, sol, say, fa, law, lay, sol, say, fa.”

MOODS (OR MODES) OF TIME.

There are nine moods of time, viz.: four of Common, three of Triple and two of Compound.

The first mood of Common Time is known by a plain C or the figures $\frac{4}{4}$.

NOTE.—The upper figure always denotes the number of notes in a measure, and the lower the kind; thus, when $\frac{4}{4}$ is used, the upper figure means four notes in a measure, and the lower, that they are crotchets or fourth notes. $\frac{3}{2}$ means three minims or half notes in a measure, and $\frac{6}{4}$ means six quarter notes or crotchets (or their quantity) in a measure. So of all moods indicated by figures.

This mood has a semibreve for its measure-note, and requires four beats in a measure, in the time of four seconds, two down and two up. Example:—

NOTE.—The d shows the place of the downward beat, and the u the place of the upward beat.

The second mood is known by a C with a bar through it, has the same measure-note, i. e., a semibreve, sung in the time of three seconds, four beats in a measure, two down and two up. This mood, however, is of very little worth.

The third mood of Common Time is known by an inverted C, or the figures $\frac{2}{2}$; it has the same measure-note as the above-mentioned moods, and requires two beats in a measure, in the time of two seconds, one down, the other up.

The fourth mood of Common Time is known by a figure 2 over a 4; it has a minim for a measure-note, and requires two beats in a measure in the time of one second.

The first mood of Triple Time is known by a figure 3 over a 2, has three minims or their quantity in a measure: three beats, two down and one up.

The second mood of Triple Time is known by 3 over a 4; has three crotchets or their quantity in a measure: three beats in a measure in the time of two seconds.

The third mood of Triple Time is known by a 3 over an 8; has three quavers or their quantity in a measure: three beats in a measure in the time of one second.

The first mood of Compound Time is known by a 6 over a 4; has six crotchets or their quantity in a measure; sung in time of two seconds, two beats in a measure, one down, the other up.

The second mood of Compound Time is known by a 6 over an 8; sung in the time of one second, two beats in a measure. It has six quavers or their quantity in a measure.

ACCENT.

Accent, in music, signifies a peculiar force or loudness of sound used in singing one note in a measure to distinguish it from the rest. It is of the greatest importance in music, for without it no proper expression can ever be given to any sentiment or song.

In the first, second, and third moods of Common Time, the accent falls on the first and third parts of the measure.

The fourth mood of Common Time, and all the moods of Triple Time have but one accent, that is on the first part of the measure.

In both the Compound moods, the accent falls on the first and fourth parts of the measure. The first accent in a measure is full, the second feebler.

Although the different moods require the accent to be made on a particular part of the measure, yet when emphatic words occur, the music must bend to the poetry, and not the poetry to the music.

REMARKS.

The last note of a piece should not be broken off abruptly, but sounded smoothly, gently swelling the last note like an echo.

The terms soft and loud, wherever they occur, should be carefully attended to.

The high notes, quick notes, and slurred notes of every tune should be sung softer than the low notes, long notes, and single notes.

All Solos should be sung more softly than the parts when moving together; but the sound should increase while the parts are falling in.

BEATING TIME.

The beating of time is performed with the hand.

The different moods are beaten in the following manner:—In the first and second moods of Common Time, for the first beat, bring down the ends of the fingers (on whatever you beat upon); for the second beat bring down the heel of the hand, for the third beat raise the heel of the hand, for the fourth beat raise the hand quite up.

For the third and fourth moods of Common Time and both the compound moods, there are but two beats in a measure, one down and one up.

All the Triple moods are beaten thus:—For the first beat bring down the ends of the fingers, for the second beat bring down the heel of the hand, and for the third beat raise the hand up. N. B. The hand always falls at the beginning of every measure.

But no matter whether the beating is performed with hand or foot, so the principle is understood by the singer.

The following method for ascertaining the true time of tunes has been recommended by several eminent musicians. Take a ball, (perhaps a leaden ball an inch in diameter would do as well as any,) and suspend it by a cord from a pin, in some place where it can swing without interruption. Let the cord be of the following lengths for the several moods of time:—

For the first and third moods of Common Time, the first of Triple, and the first of Compound Time, $39\frac{2}{10}$ inches. For the second of Common, and second of Triple, $22\frac{1}{10}$ inches. For the fourth of Common and second of Compound, $12\frac{4}{10}$ inches. For the third of Triple, $5\frac{1}{21}$ inches.

RUDIMENTS OF MUSIC.

LESSONS FOR PRACTICE IN THE DIFFERENT MOODS AND KEYS.

MAJOR KEY.

MINOR KEY.

The page contains musical notation for practice exercises. It is divided into two main sections: Major Key and Minor Key. Each section has two staves. The Major Key section includes exercises in 2/4, 3/2, and 6/8 time signatures. The Minor Key section includes exercises in 2/4, 3/2, and 6/8 time signatures. The notation includes treble clefs, key signatures (one sharp for major, one flat for minor), and various rhythmic values (quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes). Staccato marks are placed above certain notes to indicate accents.

* The staccato marks in these examples show the places of accent only

GAMUT OR GENERAL SCALE.

The diagram illustrates the Gamut or General Scale across three staves: Bass Staff, Tenor Staff, and Treble Staff. The Bass Staff (lines 1-8) is divided into the Major mode (lines 2-8) and the Minor mode (lines 1-8). The Tenor Staff (lines 9-16) and Treble Staff (lines 17-24) are divided into lines and spaces, with notes G, A, B, C, D, E, F, G labeled accordingly. A vertical column of notes on the right side of the Treble Staff is labeled with 'Sol' and 'Fa' for each line and space.

This scale contains three octaves, or twenty-two successive sounds. However, if all singing were performed by males, the scale would embrace only fifteen sounds, this being the compass of most male voices; but God has made the female voice an octave higher than that of the male, therefore another octave is added to the general scale, which makes out twenty-two sounds as the general range of compass of the human voice. It will be a great convenience for any student of music to take sounds from a Pitch-pipe, or a Tuning-fork; but in the absence of this advantage he should begin with the lower note of the scale, sounding it as low as he can to make a clear and distinct sound, and ascend the scale as high as his voice will reach. Thus he should practise till he is perfectly familiar with every tone and semitone of the scale. He must notice at the same time the connection of the different parts, that D, middle line of the Bass, is the same as the first space below in the Tenor, (or any part ruled by the G cleff,) that E, third space of the Bass, is the same as E, first line of the Tenor, or Air, &c. Whoever would learn to pitch the different parts of a tune correctly must study this matter thoroughly. To understand that the female voice is an octave above that of the male, one should give a lady a sound (any note, mi, fa, sol, or la, being called) in his own ordinary tone of voice; and it will seem to him that she is making the very same sound with himself; but let her continue the same sound he gave her at first while he pitches his voice to the eighth degree above, and he will then find that he is really making the same sound with her. By experimenting in this manner any person with a musical ear can soon get to understand this important matter.

The Bass should be sung by men of the gravest voices, the Air by high male and by ordinary female voices combined, the Treble by soprano or very high female voices, and the Alto by boys, and by females of coarse voices.

To pitch a tune correctly without the aid of an instrument, a leader should guess at the sound of the key-note as nearly as he can, and then, according to this sound try the highest and lowest notes of each part; if he can sing them with ease, the piece is properly keyed for his own voice; and if his voice is of medium compass, this pitch will answer for the generality of singers. But if an instrument is at hand, a pitch-pipe that sounds C, a tune-fork that sounds A, or a flute that sounds D when the fingers are all down, it will be a great convenience, especially to inexperienced leaders. When any letter is sounded, it is very easy by ascending or descending the scale to fix on any other sound that is desired.

KEYS.

In every correct tune there is a principal note called its key, on which all the notes of the piece depend. It is always the last note of the Bass, and generally of the Tenor. It is either fa, (do Italian, ut French style) immediately above mi, (Italian si) or la, immediately below mi. If the key-note is fa, the tune is sharp-keyed or in the MAJOR MODE; if la, the tune is flat-keyed, or in the MINOR MODE. There are only these two kinds of key in music. If no flat or sharp is used at the beginning of a piece, it is said to be in a Natural key; but flats or sharps at the beginning produce what are called artificial keys. C, second space of the Bass, (its octave being also meant,) is the natural sharp key-note, and A, first space of the Bass, is the natural key of the Minor mode. The key, being the most important note in every tune, is called one, and all the other intervals of the octave are counted from it.

NOTE.—C is called a Natural key, because every tune written in it is played on instruments without the aid of flats or sharps; but any letter in the scale may, by the use of flats or sharps, be assumed as the key-note or one, and the tune will be just as natural to the human voice as if keyed on C; though instruments must be keyed to suit the change. C, then, is called natural in regard to instruments only, and all other keys artificial; but one key is as natural to the human voice as another.

EXAMPLES IN THE MAJOR MODE.

F or Bass Cleff, one octave.

G or Treble Cleff, two octaves.

Thus in the Natural Minor key, A.

F Cleff, one octave.

G Cleff, two octaves.

It has been observed that every octave contains five whole tones (or intervals as the ingenious Mr. Aikin calls them) and two semitones or half intervals. In the natural scale of the Major mode the distance from 1 to 2, that is from C to D, (from fa to sol,) is a whole tone; from 2 to 3 (D to E) is a tone; from 3 to 4 (E to F) a half tone; from 4 to 5 (F to G) a tone; from 5 to 6 (G to A) a tone; from 6 to 7 (A to B) a tone; and from 7 to 8 or 1 (B to C) is a half tone.

In the natural Minor scale the intervals are thus: from 1 to 2 (that is, from A to B) is a tone; from 2 to 3 (B to C) a half tone; from 3 to 4 (C to D) a tone; from 4 to 5 (D to E) a tone; from 5 to 6 (E to F) a half tone; from 6 to 7 (F to G) a tone, and from 7 to 8 or 1 (G to A) is a whole tone.

Here let every student notice the difference between the Major and Minor modes: MAJOR means greater, and MINOR means smaller; and every third, sixth, and seventh ascending from the Major key-note is half a tone higher than the third, sixth, and seventh of the Minor mode. By keeping steadily in mind this explanation of the difference in the two modes, any person may easily change a tune from the Major to the Minor key, and vice versa. Example of such change:—

MAJOR KEY.

The same piece changed to the Minor mode.

Every student should practise changing pieces from one mode to the other until he is perfectly familiar with the subject.

MODULATIONS OF KEYS.

FIRST BY FLATS.

If all music were written in C, there would be but little variety in it, and the happiness derived from this science would be comparatively small; but any one of the seven musical letters may be assumed as the key-note or one, of a tune, and thus we may obtain an endless variety of blissful sounds. When F is assumed as the key-note Major, or D as the key-note Minor, the two semitones* or half intervals of each octave will come between A and B, and E and F. In this case one flat is placed on B, at the beginning of the tune; and every note that occurs on B must be played flat on instruments, except where an accidental natural is thrown in to raise this note half a tone and bring back the semitone between B and C as in the natural or C scale. Example:—

When B is assumed as the key-note major, (or its corresponding minor G,) the two semitones of the octave will come between A and B, and D and E; consequently every note occurring on A, or on E, must be played flat. In this case B and E are both flatted at the beginning of the piece. Example:—

* The semitones always come between mi and fa, and la and fa.

When E is taken as the major key, or C, its corresponding minor, the two half intervals of the octave will occur between D and E, and G and A; and B, E, and A must all be made flat, at the beginning of the piece.

Example:—

NOTE:—Four sharps produce the same effect as three flats.

If A is assumed for the key-note of a tune in the major mode, or F for a minor, the two half tones of the octave will come between G and A, and C and D. In this case B, E, A, and D will all be flatted at the beginning of the tune. Example:—

Three sharps as the signature of a tune produce the same effect as four flats.

If D is made the key-note major, or B the minor key, B, E, A, D, and G must be flatted, or F and C sharpened, which produces the same effect. The semitones will then lie between B and C, and F and G. Example:—

Two sharps being more convenient than five flats are always used when D is taken for the key-note, or B for the minor.

Six flats as a signature will throw the key-note major on G, and the minor on E. Example:—

One sharp is equivalent to six flats, and hence when G is assumed as the key-note major, or E as the minor, one sharp is used instead of six flats.

Seven flats bring the notes of the octave into the key of C, or the natural major, and hence they are never used when C is taken as one, or A, its minor. Example:—

SECONDLY, BY SHARPS.

When G is taken as one of the major mode, or E as one of the minor mode, the two semitones of each octave will fall between F and G, and B and C, and F must be played sharp: hence one sharp is placed on F at the beginning of the tune. Example:—

Six flats produce the same effect.

Be it noted in this connection, that in the key of C, or the natural scale, a half interval lies between E and F; but when G is assumed as one, F is raised a half tone by the sharp placed on it, and consequently it is only half as low as it is in the natural scale. But the other semitone of the octave will come between B and C.

When D is taken for one, F and C are both played sharp, because one semitone of the octave comes between C and D, and the other between F and G. Example:—

To understand this illustration, it must be kept in mind that in the natural scale F and C are both half a tone lower than they are when sharpened. Five flats are equal to two sharps.

When A is made the key-note major, or F the minor, F, C, and G are all sharpened; the lower semitone of the octave comes between G and A, and the upper are between C and D. Example:—

Four flats are equal to three sharps.

RUDIMENTS OF MUSIC.

When E is taken as one, major, F, C, G, and D are all sharped. Example:—

Three flats are equivalent to four sharps.

B may be assumed as the major key-note by sharpening F, C, G, D, and A, but as two flats produce the same effect, five sharps are never used as the signature of a tune. Example:—

F may be made the major key-note by sharpening F, C, G, D, A, and E; but as one flat on B brings the same result, six sharps are never used as a signature. Example:—

Seven sharps at the beginning of a tune bring the key of C, and hence they are never used as a signature. Example:—

EVERY MODULATION OF KEY IN BOTH MODES AT ONE VIEW.

BY FLATS.

BY SHARPS.

Every thing that is said anywhere about different keys is said with reference to the order of tones and semitones in the natural or C scale; for instance: a tune is said to have been played or sung in B flat: the meaning is that the key-note of the piece is on B, and that this said B is half a tone lower than it is in the natural scale. Two flats as a signature will give the key of B flat. Example:—

It will be seen that B, in this example, is the key-note, and that it is half a tone lower than in the natural scale. E is flat when it is half a tone lower than in the natural scale. Every tune in the major mode with a four sharp signature is in E flat.

A is natural when a whole tone occurs between it and B, as in the natural scale. A three sharp signature will place a tune of the major mode in the key of A natural.

A tune is in C sharp when it is keyed on C, and the said C is half a tone higher than in the natural scale. Example:—

In the natural scale C is half a tone lower than in this example, for here C is sharp, that is, it is raised half a tone higher than in the natural scale. It will be seen from these illustrations that when a piece of music is said to be in C sharp, B flat, &c.; no allusion is made to the mode, major or minor, but solely to the key-note of the piece as being on a certain letter, and that the tone that letter represents is either raised or depressed from its position in the natural scale.

Many tunes keyed on G, A, B, and D, may be played and sung in C, because all the notes are within the compass of a C instrument, and also of the human voice, but generally in such tunes the proper artificial key must be adopted or the piece will be so high, or so low, that neither voice nor instrument can perform it. The air of Amherst, from the repeat, is a good illustration of this idea. Keyed on C natural no voice could perform it properly: but keyed on G it is easy enough.

Air of Amherst, from the repeat.

The same on G.

Students of music should look at this principle closely, and study different tunes in regard to the C scale, and also in regard to every assumed scale.

Thus I have endeavored to make plain one of the most obscure and difficult principles in music, the Modulation of keys. But I must remark that no one can ever understand modulation who does not become well acquainted with the character of the semitones and their places in the octave; for there are two of them in every octave, and every modulation of key depends entirely upon them.

The following Chromatic or Semitone scale is quoted from the "Church Harmony," a very excellent music book by Mr. Henry Smith of Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, a book which every lover of music ought to buy.

MUSICAL COMPOSITION.

Music is divided into Melody and Harmony. Melody is one part performed by itself. Harmony is the pleasing union of several parts. "Harmony" (says Mr. Boyd) "consists in the proportion of the distance of four sounds performed at the same instant, and mingling in the most pleasing manner." This is perfect harmony. If there are only two, or three sounds mingling in this way, it is partial harmony.

The notes which give pleasure to the ear (when sounded together) are called concords. Those which produce disagreeable sounds, are called discords. The concords are unison, third, fifth, and sixth. Some are called perfect chords, others imperfect:

an imperfect chord has one semitone less than a perfect chord. The perfect chords are the unisons, fifths, and eighths. Those called imperfect, are the minor fifths, major and minor thirds, sharp fourths, (as some say,) and sixths.

The intervals or degrees called discords are the seconds, flat fourths, sevenths, and ninths. Several writers on music think the flat fourth one of the most agreeable sounds in nature, and Mr. Knight says, "It is the same in ratio as the minor fifth, and ought to be considered a perfect chord." I shall here set down Dr. Metcalf's excellent table of concords and discords, which, if closely studied, will be of great advantage to any one who desires to understand the laws of harmony.

TABLE OF CONCORDS AND DISCORDS.

A unison.	Flat or minor 2d, a discord.	Sharp or major 2d, a discord.	Flat or minor 3d, an imperfect chord.	Sharp or major 3d, an imperfect chord.	Flat or minor 4th, discord.	Sharp or major 4th, concinnous* sound.	Flat or minor 5th, concinnous sound.	Sharp or major 5th, perfect chord.	Flat or minor 6th, imperfect chord.	Sharp or major 6th, imperfect chord.	Flat or minor 7th, a discord.	Sharp or major 7th, a discord.	An octave or eighth, a perfect chord.
Intervals, or degrees :	2d		3d		4th		5th		6th		7th		8th.

This is considered as the Bass staff, but it may be applied to any other part.

TERMS BY WHICH THE DIFFERENT INTERVALS IN THE TABLE ARE DENOMINATED.

A minor second is an interval of but one semitone. The interval between B and C in the foregoing table is a minor second.

This is a discord, but it is not so disagreeable to the ear as the major second, the crash of sound being only half as great.

A major second is an interval of a tone, as from C to D, i. e. from fa to sol.

A minor third consists of one tone and a semitone, as from A to C, i. e. from law to fa.

A major third consists of two whole tones as from C to E, i. e. from fa to law.

A flat or minor fourth contains two tones and a semitone; as from C to F, i. e. from fa to fa.

A sharp or major fourth contains three tones, and is called the greater fourth. The interval between F and B is a sharp fourth.

* Concinnous means, agreeable or pleasing.

A flat or minor fifth contains two tones and two semitones, as from B to F. It is the sharp fourth inverted.

A perfect fifth contains three tones and one semitone, as from C to G, or from G to D.

A minor sixth contains three tones and two semitones, as from B to G.

A major sixth contains four tones and one semitone, as from C to A.

A minor seventh contains four tones and two semitones, as from A to G, i. e. from law to sol.

A major seventh contains five tones and one semitone, as from C to B, i. e. from fa to me.

An octave contains five tones and two semitones.

In an octave there are twelve semitones.

The foregoing table and explanations are principally from Dr. Metcalf's "Kentucky Harmonist."

The key-note is called the Tonic, and is the most important note in every tune.

The next most important note in either mode is the perfect fifth. This should be the last note but one in every bass; but there are several violations of this rule, in this work. "This note," says one, "is called the Dominant, because it leads the ear to expect a close.

"Three, of the scale," counting from either of the keys, "is called Mediant, because it is midway between the Tonic and Dominant.

"Eight is called the Octave, and differs from the Tonic only in pitch.

"One, three, five, and eight, are the principal notes of the scale, or the common chord of the key. On some one of these notes every part of music regularly begins and ends: hence, in giving the pitch, these four notes are usually sounded."

Two is called the Supertonic, because next above the Tonic.

Seven is called the Subtonic, because next below the Tonic. It is also called the leading note, as it regularly leads to, or requires the Tonic after it.

While the Bass takes the dominant preparatory to a close, two other parts, viz.: the Treble and Tenor, regularly take seven, and two, and sometimes four. See the works of Lowell Mason.

And now, dear reader, male or female, let me urge you to try your hand at composing tunes; be not afraid to try, though every numbskull about you should laugh at your attempts. Begin by writing down your Air, as this is the leading part of music. Study well the meaning, the sense of the words you select to write a tune for, and do your very best to make the notes fully express the sense of the words. To do this, you will be obliged to keep your eye on Time, Mode, and Key. When your Air is written, compose your Bass, Treble, &c.; and in doing this you must, if you would reach the hearts of those who can feel music, not only make all the parts of your tune perfectly harmonic, but make each part so good a melody that it will charm even when sung by itself. Discords should be avoided, save where they are strictly necessary to express the sense of the words; but he who would become a skilful composer must study them well, and introduce them where the poetry requires harsh, grating sounds, reminding one of the intolerable crash of falling houses, globes dashed together, or the grating of the gates of hell upon their horrid hinges. But soft, sweet sentiments must be expressed in the lovely, silvery tones of perfect concord. The world is full of music, and full of sound, from the deep and awful diapason of the ocean to the soft enchanting notes of the nightingale, and every style of sound in nature should be studied closely, by all who desire to please mankind by their musical compositions, or to luxuriate in a world of bliss nearest the temple of the God of love, a happiness which unmusical minds can never know.

But after all I have quoted and written, the student of composition may still be in doubt whether by the term discord, or concord, any single note of the octave is meant, or a combination of notes. Let it be kept ever in mind that no one note is either a concord or a discord, but that at least two notes must be sounded at the same time to make concord, or discord. When the distance between any two notes that are sounded together is only one degree, there will be the discord called a second. Example:—

Reader, get some person to sound one of these notes while you sound the other one immediately above it or below it, and so sing through the whole staff, if you can bear it, and you will, I trust, get to understand clearly what is meant by the interval of a second, and also that said interval is a discord.

The interval of four degrees, and also of seven and of nine—in other words, fourths, sevenths, and ninths, are all discords. Example of fourths:—

Example of sevenths:—

Example of ninths:—

Thirds are imperfect chords. Example of thirds:—

Sixths are imperfect chords. Example of sixths:—

The minor fifth is an imperfect chord. Example:—

Major fifths are perfect chords, and are, in my estimation, the sweetest sounds in music.

Example of perfect fifths:—

Octaves are also perfect chords. Examples of octaves:—

I have, in these examples, repeated, though in a different form, the very same ideas expressed in Dr. Metcalf's table and explanations. I have done this that I might, if possible, drive from the mind of every student of musical composition and the laws of harmony, the last vestige of darkness and of doubt on this subject. I have to add that, after having studied, as carefully as possible, what I have written, the student should take up each tune in the book, and see how all the parts harmonize. He should study fully and closely every tune he sets eyes on, till every jot of musical composition is as perfectly understood as a human mind can understand it.

Subjects of prayer and supplication, or such as express sorrow, or depression of soul, should be set in tunes of the minor mode; but hymns of praise, and such as express joy, triumph, or any strong or violent feeling, should be set in tunes of the major mode.

GENERAL REMARKS.

ALL singers, in schools or in choirs, should be careful not to sing so loud as to drown the voice of the leader.

The singers on the different parts of a tune should be so proportioned that each singer can hear distinctly the other parts. If this is not the case, the parts are not properly proportioned, and ought to be altered. The proper proportion of voices on each part is, (for voices of ordinary compass,) three on the Bass, two on the Air, (Tenor it is called in this book, in some it is termed Soprano, in others Treble, and in some First Treble,) one on the Treble, (some writers call this part Tenor, and some, Second Treble,) and one on the Alto or Counter. But every leader must exercise his own judgment in this matter, for different tunes require different proportions of singers on the parts. Flat-keyed tunes should be sung softer than sharp-keyed ones, and of course should be proportioned with a lighter Bass; but a full, strong Bass should be chosen for most sharp-keyed pieces, especially Quartettes.

Appoggiaturas, Trills, Swells, &c., are graces in music, and in many pieces are indispensable, but they should be performed very carefully, and by singers whose voices are naturally smooth and graceful.

In singing both notes and words the pronunciation should be as correct and dis-tingent as possible. Words should be pronounced according to the best standards of the language. Words ending in y should not be so pronounced as to give the y the long sound of i, but the short sound of e.

Sharp-keyed tunes, being expressive of cheerfulness, should be sung to hymns of thanksgiving and praise. Flat-keyed tunes being naturally of a pathetic character are suitable for subjects of prayer and of penitence. Every leader of music—every one who raises the tunes for church singing, or any other sort of singing, should pay particular attention to this principle; for otherwise he will be liable to commit the disgusting blunder of singing such a tune as Windham to "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," or such a one as Aylesbury to "Soldiers of Christ, arise!" Such incongruous singing as is often heard in churches, owing solely to the ignorance of leaders, or their inattention to this matter, is intolerable.

A sensible writer has pronounced it as inconsistent in nature to sing flat-keyed tunes to hymns of praise, or of rejoicing—or sharp-keyed tunes to subjects of penitence, or prayer, or such as express depression of soul, as to rejoice at funerals or to mourn at festivals.

DICTIONARY OF MUSICAL TERMS.

- ADAGIO, slow, heavy. The first mood of common time is called adagio.
- AFFETUOSO, tenderly, affectionately. A part so marked must be performed in moderate time.
- AD LIBITUM, at pleasure. Sing or omit, or sing as you choose.
- ALLEGRO, brisk, quick. The third mood of common time is so called.
- ALLEGRETTO, not so quick as Allegro. Allegretto is the diminutive of Allegro.
- ALLEGRO LAMON TROPPO, brisk, but not too fast.
- ALTO or ALTUS, the Counter, or highest part of music for male voices.
- AMOROSO, in a soft, love-expressing style, or with delicacy.
- ANDANTE, distinct, smooth and exact. Sung rather slower than the true time.
- ANDANTINO, in the style of Andante, only a little quicker.
- ANTHEM, a portion of Scripture set to music.
- ASSAI, very much. This word is used to qualify some other terms, as Assai Allegro, very quick.
- A TEMPO, or TEMPO, in the time indicated by the mood.
- BIS, this word over any passage of music shows that it should be repeated.
- BARITONE, a voice between Bass and Tenor.
- CALANDO, slower and softer.
- CANTO, or CANTUS, high Treble. In choral passages the leading part.
- CANON, a vocal composition in two or more parts, so constructed as to form a perpetual fugue.
- CANTABILE, in a graceful, melodious style.
- CANTATA, a composition for voices, of several movements.
- CHORUS, a part in which all the voices should join.
- CHROMATIC, a term given to accidental semitones.
- CODA, a strain that may be sung or omitted at pleasure.
- CON SPIRITO, with spirit.
- CONTRALTO, the lowest female voice.
- CONTRA TENOR, the part assigned to the highest male voices.
- CRESCENDO, abbreviated Cres., with an increasing sound.
- DA CAPO, or D. C., conclude with the first strain.
- DEL SEGNO, or D. S. from the sign.
- DIAPASON, an octave, an eighth degree.
- DILETTANTI, a lover of the arts in general, and of music in particular.
- DIMINUENDO, or DIM., diminish the sound. The reverse of Crescendo.
- DIRGE, a funeral piece.
- DIVOTO, in a devout, solemn manner.
- DOLCE, sing sweetly, softly, gently.
- DUETTO, DUETTE, or DUET, a composition for two voices or instruments; also a two part tune may be so called in contradistinction from a Quartette, &c.
- EXPRESSIVO, with expression.
- FORTE, FOR. or F., strong and full.
- FORTISSIMO, or FF., very loud. Fortissimo is the superlative of Forte.
- FUGHETTO, a short simple fugue.
- FUGUE, FUGA, or FUGE, a piece in which one or more parts lead, and the rest follow—the parts fall in, one after another.
- FINALE, or FINE, the last movement, or passage in a tune.
- FORZANDO, strike the notes thus marked with sudden and powerful force.
- GIUSTO, in equal, steady, and just time.
- GRAVE, or GRAVEMENTE, heavy, with deep emotion.
- GRAZIOSO, graceful. A smooth and gentle style of execution, approaching to piano.
- INTERLUDE, an instrumental passage between two vocal passages.
- LARGO, LENTEMENTO, or LENTO, very slow.
- LARGHETTO, not quite so slow as Largo; a little slow.
- LEGATO, in a smooth and gliding manner.
- MAESTOSO, with majesty and strength.
- MELODY, an agreeable succession of sounds.
- MEZZA, half, middle, as Mezza voce, with a medium fulness of tone: MEZZA, pia, moderately soft, &c.
- MODERATO, moderately; not very fast nor very slow, but a slight abatement of the true time.
- MOTET, a sacred piece of several parts, simple or difficult.
- ORATORIO, a species of musical drama, consisting of airs, recitatives, duetts, trios, chorusses, &c.
- ORCHESTRA, a band of musicians; also the place for the musicians is so called.
- OVERTURE, in dramatic music, an instrumental strain which serves as an introduction.
- PASTORALE, a tune set to a pastoral song, i. e. a song representing some rural scene or circumstance. Such music is generally in six-four or six-eight time, the style of these modes being soothing, tender, and delicate.
- PIANO, or PIA, soft.
- PIANISSIMO, PIANISS., or PP., very soft. Pianissimo is the superlative of Piano.
- PLAINTIVE, mournfully.
- POMPOSO, grand, dignified.
- PRECENTOR, a leader of Church Music, or of a choir.
- PRESTO, quick.
- PRETISSIMO, very quick. Prestissimo is the superlative of Presto.
- PRIMO, Pmo., or Imo., the first or leading part of a piece of music.
- QUARTETTO, or QUARTETTE, music in four parts, one voice or instrument to each.
- QUINTETTE, music in five parts, one voice or instrument to each.
- RECITATIVO, or RECITATIVE, a kind of musical recitation between singing and speaking.
- RIPPIENNO, full.
- RITARD, or RETARD, sing, or play slower.
- SEMI-CHORUS, a selection of voices from a choir.
- SECUNDO, or 2d, a part for the second voice or instrument.
- SEMPRE, always, or throughout, as Sempre doloroso, in sorrowful style throughout.
- SENZA, without, as Senza organo, without the organ.
- SICILIANO, a composition in six-four, or six-eight time, to be performed in a slow and graceful manner.
- SOAVE, agreeable, pleasing.
- SOLO, alone; a piece of music for one voice or instrument only.
- SOPRANO, the Treble, or highest voice part for females.
- SOSTENUTO, sustain the sounds to their utmost nominal length.
- SOTTO VOCE DOLCE, with sweetness of tone.
- SPIRITUOSO, with spirit.
- STACCATO, very distinct, short and emphatic.
- STANZA, a subdivision of a song, generally called a verse.
- SUBITO, quick.
- SYMPHONY, a passage to be performed by instruments while the vocal performers are silent.
- TACET, silent.
- TASTO SOLO, a movement in which unisons and octaves alone are used.
- TEMPO, time; as a Tempo, in true time.
- TETRACHORD, four notes of the scale.
- TRIO, music for three voices or instruments.
- TUTTI, all, all together. Used after a Solo or Duette.
- UNISON or UNIS., when all the parts unite in one sound or succession of sounds.
- VELOCE, quick.
- VERSE, one voice to a part.
- VIGOROSO, with strength and energy.
- VIVACE, brisk and animated.
- VOLTI, turn over.
- VOLTI SUBITO, turn over quickly.
- VIRTUOSO, a great performer, or one who delights in music.

3. All that have mo - tion, life, and breath, Proclaim your Ma - ker bless'd; Yet, when my voice ex - pires in death, My soul shall praise him best.

WAKEFIELD. L. M.

The first system of musical notation for 'WAKEFIELD' consists of a vocal line and a bass line. The vocal line is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). It features a melody with various note values including quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, along with rests. The bass line is in bass clef with a common time signature (C) and provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are printed below the vocal line.

1. Come, weary souls, with sin distress'd, Come, and accept the promised rest; The Sa-viour's gracious call o - bey, And cast your gloo-my fears a - way.

2. Op-press'd with sin, a pain - ful load, O come, and spread your woes abroad: Di-vine com-pas-sion, migh - ty love, Will all the pain - ful load re-move.

3. Here mercy's boundless o - cean flows, Pardon, and life, and end-less peace, How rich the gift! how free the grace!

dread alarms,
Compel you now to ground your arms?

2. O, come, young soldiers, count the cost,
And say, what pleasures have you lost?
Or what misfortune does it bring,
To have Jehovah for your king?
Shall sin entice you back again,
And bind you with its iron chain?
Has vice to you such lovely charms,
That you must die within its arms?
3. Is folly's way the way of peace,
Where fear, and pain, and sorrow cease?
Does pleasure roll its living stream,
And is religion all a dream?
Say, what contentment did you find
When love of pleasure ruled your mind?
No sweet reflection gave you rest,
Nor conscious virtue calm'd your breast.
4. Did you not dread the hast'ning day,
When carnal joys must pass away?
When death shall sing in mournful strain,
"Let dust to dust return again!"
But now your thoughts delight to soar
Where earth and time shall be no more;
They pass the grave and mount on high,
To the fair fields above the sky.

5. There, on the hill of sweet repose,
You'll bid adieu to all your woes;
There you shall walk the flow'ry fields,
And taste the fruit that Zion yields:
There sits the Saviour on his throne,
And there Jehovah reigns alone;
There angels circle round his seat,
And armies worship at his feet.
6. But, oh, I see among the rest,
A host in whiter garments dress'd,
And nearer to the throne they stand,
With palms of vict'ry in their hand!
Oh, who are those I now behold
With blood-wash'd robes and crowns of gold,
A glorious host, distinctly known
To him that sits upon the throne?
7. Now, now we know from whence this throng,
For, hark! redemption is their song:
From yonder vale of tears they come;
Welcome ye trav'lers, welcome home!
Oh, now upon the peaceful shore
You're met at last to part no more,
Where flesh and sin shall not control
The pure affections of the soul.

JONESBOROUGH. L. M.

AXTON and MOORE.

Musical score for 'JONESBOROUGH' in 2/4 time. It consists of three staves: a treble clef staff, a grand staff (treble and bass clefs), and a bass clef staff. The melody is written in the treble clef staff. The lyrics are: "Je-sus, my all, to heav'n is gone, He whom I fix my hopes upon; His track I see, and I'll pursue The narrow way till him I view. I feel, I feel, I

LOVING-KINDNESS. L. M.

Musical score for 'LOVING-KINDNESS' in common time (C). It consists of two systems, each with three staves: a treble clef staff, a grand staff (treble and bass clefs), and a bass clef staff. The melody is written in the treble clef staff. The lyrics are: "feel like shouting home, I feel, I feel, I feel like shouting home." and "Awake, my soul, to joy-ful lays, And sing thy great Redeem-er's praise."

LOVING-KINDNESS. Concluded.

He justly claims a song from me, His loving - kind - ness, O how free ! loving-kindness, loving-kindness, His loving - kind - ness, O how free !

2. He saw me ruin'd by the fall,
Yet loved me notwithstanding all;
He saved me from my lost estate,
His loving-kindness, O how great !

3. Though numerous hosts of mighty foes—
Though earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along;
His loving-kindness, O how strong !

4. When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gather'd thick, and thunder'd loud,
He near my soul has always stood,
His loving-kindness, O how good !

5. Often I feel my sinful heart,
Prone from my Jesus to depart;
But though I have him oft forgot,
His loving-kindness changes not !

6. Soon shall I pass the gloomy vale —
Soon all my mortal pow'rs must fail:
O may my last expiring breath,
His loving-kindness sing in death !

7. Then let me mount and soar away
To the bright world of endless day;
And sing with rapture and surprise,
His loving-kindness in the skies.

HIGHBRIDGE. L. M.

Thro' ev'ry age, e - ter - nal God, Thou art our rest, our safe a - bode; High was thy throne ere heav'n was made, Or earth thy humble footstool laid.

WATCHMAN'S CALL. L. M. D.

WM. WALKER.

1. The watchmen blow the trumpet round,
 Come, listen to the solemn sound; }
 And be assured there's danger nigh— }
 How ma-ny are prepared to die?

2. Come, old and young; come, rich and poor;
 You'll all be call'd to stand be-fore }
 The God that made the earth and sea,— }
 And there be-hold his majes - ty.

Your days on earth will soon be o'er, And time, to you, re - turn no more ; O, think ! thou hast a soul to save ! What are thy hopes be - yond the grave ?
 Will you re-main quite un - concern'd, They weep, to think how you will stand,
 While for your souls the watchmen mourn ? With frightful ghosts, at God's left hand.

3. O, mortals ! view the dream of life,
 And see how thousands end the strife ;
 Who, though convinced, do still delay,
 Till death ensues, and drags away.
 Will you, for fancied earthly toys,
 Deprive yourselves of heavenly joys ?
 And will the calls you have to-day,
 Be slighted still, and pass away ?

4. The trying scene will shortly come,
 When you must hear your certain doom ;
 And if you then are unprepared,
 You'll bear in mind the truths you've heard.
 Your sparkling eyes will then roll round,
 While death will bring you to the ground ;—
 The coffin, grave, and winding-sheet,
 Will hold your lifeless frame complete ;

5. Your friends will then pass by your tomb,
 And view the grass around it grown,
 And heave a sigh, to think you've gone,
 Whence, never, never, you'll return.
 O, mortals ! now improve your time,
 And while the gospel-sun doth shine,
 Fly swift to Christ—he is your friend—
 And then in heaven your souls will end.

THIRD CREEK. L. M.

Arranged by Wm. HOUSER.

1. Lift up your heads, Emmanuel's friends, And taste the pleasure Je-sus sends ; Let nothing cause you to de-lay, But hast-en on the good old way.
 2. Our conflicts here, tho' great they be, Shall not prevent our vic-to-ry, If we but watch, and strive, and pray, Like soldiers in the good old way.

We wept, &c.

When we, our wea-ry limbs to rest,
Sat down by proud Euphrates' stream,

We wept, with doleful thoughts oppress'd, And

We wept, &c.

We wept, with dole-ful thoughts oppress'd, And Zi-on was our mournful theme,

ATLANTA. L. M. D. Arranged by W. HOUSER.

Zi-on was our mournful theme,
And Zion was our mourn-ful theme.

1. Young people, all, at-tention give, While I address you in God's name ; }
You who in sin and fol-ly live, Come, hear the counsel of a friend. }

2. He spake at once my sins forgiven, And wash'd my load of guilt away, }
He gave me glory, peace, and heav'n, And thus I found the heav'nly way. }

3. Youth, like the spring, will soon be gone, By fleeting time or conqu'ring death ; }
Your morn-ing sun may set at noon, And leave you ev-er in the dark. }

I've sought for bliss in glitt'ring toys, And ranged the luring scenes of vice, But nev - er knew substantial joys, Un - til I heard my Saviour's voice.

And now with trembling sense I view The billows roll beneath your feet; For death e - ter - nal waits for you, Who slight the force of gos - pel truth,

Your sparkling eyes and blooming cheeks Must wither like the blasted rose; The cof - fin, earth, and wind - ing sheet, Will soon your ac - tive limbs en - close.

4. Ye heedless ones that wildly stroll,
The grave will soon become your bed;
Where silence reigns, and vapors roll,
In solemn darkness round your head,
Your friends will pass the lonesome place,
And with a sigh move slowly on,
Still gazing on the spires of grass,
With which your graves are overgrown.

5. Your souls will land in darker realms,
Where vengeance reigns and billows roar,
And roll amidst the awful flames,
When thousand thousand years are o'er:
Sunk in the shades of endless night,
To groan and howl in endless pain,
And never more behold the light,
And never, never rise again.

6. Ye blooming youth, this is the state,
Of all who do free grace refuse,
And soon with you 'twill be too late,
The way of life in Christ to choose:
Come lay your carnal weapons by,
No longer fight against your God;
But with the gospel now comply,
And heav'n shall be your great reward.

AVERET. L. M.

Arranged by W. HOUSER.

Children of God, renounce your fears, Lo! Jesus for your help appears, And loud - ly speaks as he draws nigh, "Be not a - afraid, for it is I."

FROZEN HEART. L. M.

1. Oh! for a glance of heavenly day, To take this stubborn heart away; And thaw with beams of love divine, This heart, this frozen heart of mine. :||

2. The rocks can rend; the earth can quake: The seas can roar; the mountains shake; Of feeling all things show some sign, But this unfeeling heart of mine. :||

3. To hear the sorrows thou hast felt, O Lord, an adamant would melt; But I can read each moving line, And nothing moves this heart of mine. :||

4. Thy judgments, too, unmoved I hear, (Amazing thought!) which devils fear: Goodness and wrath in vain combine To stir this stupid heart of mine. :||

5. But something yet can do the deed; And that blest something much I need: Thy Spirit can from dross refine, And melt and change this heart of mine. :||

SABBATH SUMMONS. L. M.

PARTS BY WM. HOUSER.

1. Not by the brazen trumpet's voice, Our schools are summon'd to rejoice
But the sweet skylark's early lay, In God their Saviour on this day.

2. Salvation's silver trumpet brings Happy, whose heart with rapture springs
Heaven's richest music to our ears; At the first welcome note he hears.

Then, in the tem - ple of the Lord, We sing, and pray, and hear the word,
 As - sem - bling round the throne of grace, And see our glo - ri - ous Maker's face.

He, where e - ter - nal Sabbaths shine, Les - sons shall learn of truth divine,
 Where all by God himself are taught, Of pow'r and love surpassing thought.

Methodist Hymn Book, p. 131.

CORINTH. L. M.

JNO. MASSENGALE AND W. HOUSER.

1. Say, which of you would see the Lord? You all may now ob - tain the grace: Be - hold him in the writ - ten word, Where John unveils the Saviour's face.

2. Clear as the trum - pet's voice he speaks, To ev'ry soul that turns his ear; A - mid the gold - en can - dle - sticks He walks: and, lo, he now is here.

3. Pre - sent to all be - liev - ing souls: They see him with an ea - gle eye; Down to his feet a gar - ment rolls, Stain'd with a glorious crimson dye.

6. His spot - less pu - ri - ty of soul, We by a love - ly emblem know; His head and hairs are white as wool, White are they as the driven snow.
 7. Glit - ter his feet like burnish'd brass, That long hath in the furnace shone; Brighter than lightning is his face, Brighter than the me - ri - dian sun.

THE TURTLE DOVE. L. M. D.

1. Hark! don't you hear the turtle dove?—The to-ken of re-deem-ing love! } O Zi-on, hear the tur-tle dove, She comes, the
From hill to hill we hear the sound,—The neighb'ring valleys echo round. } The to-ken of your Saviour's love!

2. The win-ter's past, the rain is o'er, We feel the chilling winds no more; } On Zi-on's mount the watchmen cry: Be-hold! the
The spring is come, how sweet the view! All things appear divine - ly new. } "The re-sur-rection's drawing nigh;

3. The trumpet sounds, both far and nigh,
O sinners, turn! why will ye die?
How can you spurn the gospel charms?
Enlist with Christ, gird on your arms.
These are the days that were foretold,
In ancient times, by prophets old:
They longed to see this glorious light,
But all have died without the sight.

4. The latter days on us have come,
And fugitives are flocking home;
Behold them crowd the gospel road,
All flocking to the mount of God!
O, yes! and I will join that band,—
Now, here's my heart, and here's my hand;
With Satan's bands no more I'll be,
But fight for Christ and liberty.

5. His banner soon will be unfurl'd,
And he will come to judge the world;
On Zion's mountain we shall stand,
In Canaan's fair, celestial land.
When sun and moon shall darken'd be,
And flames consume the land and sea;
When worlds on worlds together blaze,
We'll shout, and loud hosannas raise.

4. O what a happy time 'twill be,
When I my friends in heav'n shall see!
There we may tell our sufferings o'er,
When we have reach'd that blessed shore.

5. O, Christians, we have heav'n to-day;
It shines around with dazzling ray;
It makes me happy while I sing,
And shout salvation to my King.

6. I hope to shout eternal rounds,
In flaming love, which has no bounds;
When rolling years shall cease to move,
Then this shall be my theme above.

7. O what a happy company!
May I be there, that sight to see,
And join in praise to Jesus' name,
All glorious in Jerusalem.

8. I little thought He'd been so nigh—
His speaking made me laugh and cry!
He said, "I've come for thee, my love,
I have a place for thee above."

9. Now, here's my heart, and here's my hand,
To meet you in that heav'nly land:
My hand again I give to thee,
Hoping thy face in heav'n to see.

LEBANON NEW. L. M.

Rev. JAS. P. CARRELL.

1. Come, sinners, to the gospel feast—Let ev'-ry soul be Je - sus' guest; Ye need not one be left behind, For God hath bid - den all mankind.

2. Sent by my Lord, on you I call; The in - vi - ta - tion is to all; Come, all the world! come sinner, thou! All things, in Christ, are ready now.

3. Come, all ye souls, by sin oppress'd, Ye restless wand'ers af - ter rest;
4. My message as from God receive; Ye all may come to Christ and live:

Ye poor and maim'd, ye halt and blind, In Christ a hear - ty welcome find.
O, let his love your hearts constrain, Nor suf - fer him to die in vain.

1. My Christian friends in bonds of love, Whose hearts in sweetest union prove, }
Your friendship's like a drawing band, Yet we must take the parting hand. }

2. How sweet the hours have passed away, Since we have met to sing and pray! }
How loth we are to leave the place, Where Jesus shows his smiling face! }

3. And since it is God's holy will, We must be parted for a-while, }
In sweet submission, all as one, We'll say, "Our Father's will be done!" }

Your comp'ny's sweet, your union dear, Your words delight-ful to my ear, And when I see that we must part, You draw like cords a-round my heart.

O could I stay with friends so kind, How it would cheer my drooping mind! But du - ty makes me understand That we must take the part - ing hand.

My youth-ful friends, in Christian ties, Who seek for man-sions in the skies, Fight on, we'll gain that hap-py shore, Where parting will be known no more.

4. How oft I've seen your flowing tears,
And heard you tell your hopes and fears;
Your hearts with love were seen to flame,
Which makes me hope we'll meet again.
Ye mourning souls, lift up your eyes,
To glorious mansions in the skies;
O trust His grace—in Canaan's land,
We'll no more take the parting hand.

5. And now, my friends, both old and young,
I hope in Christ you'll still go on;
And if on earth we meet no more,
O may we meet on Canaan's shore.
I hope you'll all remember me,
If you on earth no more I see;
An int'rest in your prayers I crave,
That we may meet beyond the grave.

6. O glorious day! O blessed hope!
My soul leaps forward at the thought,
When on that happy, happy land,
We'll no more take the parting hand;
But with our blessed, holy Lord,
We'll shout and sing with one accord;
And there we'll all with Jesus dwell;
So, loving Christians, fare you well!

4. 'Twas night; the floods were out; it blew
A wintry hurricane aloof;
I heard his voice abroad, and flew
To bid him welcome to my roof.
I warm'd, I clothed, I cheer'd my guest;
Laid him on mine own couch to rest;
Then made the earth my bed, and seem'd
In Eden's garden while I dream'd.
5. Stripp'd, wounded, beaten nigh to death,
I found him by the highway side;
I roused his pulse, brought back his breath,
Reviv'd his spirit, and supplied
Wine, oil, refreshment; he was heal'd.
I had, myself, a wound conceal'd;
But, from that hour, forgot the smart,
And peace bound up my broken heart.
6. In prison I saw him next, condemn'd
To meet a traitor's doom at morn;
The tide of lying tongues I stemm'd,
And honour'd him 'mid shame and scorn.
My friendship's utmost zeal to try,
He ask'd, if I for him would die:
The flesh was weak, my blood ran chill,
But the free spirit cried, "I will!"
7. Then, in a moment, to my view
The stranger started from disguise;
The tokens in his hands I knew—
My Saviour stood before my eyes!
He spake, and my poor name he named:
"Of me thou hast not been ashamed;
These deeds shall thy memorial be;
Fear not; thou didst it unto me."
James Montgomery.

DAY OF WORSHIP. L. M. D.

B. F. and E. K. DAVIS.

1. Dear people, we have met to-day,
To sing, to hear, to preach and pray ; } But O, the sad and awful state
It is our Father's great command— } Of those that stand and come too late!
The road that leads to his right hand. } The foolish virgins did begin
To knock, but could not enter in.

2. The heedless youth, in all their prime,
Are counting up the length of time ;
They often say 'tis their intent,
When they get old they will repent.
The aged sinner will not turn—
His heart's so hard, he cannot mourn—
Much harder than the flinty rock—
It will not break though Jesus knock.

3. O parents, take a solemn view
Of your dear children, near to you ;
How can you bear to hear them cry,
And charge you with their misery ?
O, how will parents tremble there,
Who raise their children without prayer !
Methinks I hear the children say,
" We never heard our parents pray ! "

4. When Christ the Lord shall come again,
In solemn pomp and burning flame—
Bid Gabriel proclaim the sound,
" Awake, ye nations under ground ! "
Good Lord, what groans ! what shrieks ! what cries !
And thunder rolling through the skies !
Poor sinners sinking in despair !
And Christians shouting through the air !

| 1. Sing to the Lord, ye distant lands,
Ye tribes of ev'ry tongue ;
His rich display of grace demands
A new and nobler song. | 4. Let an unusual joy surprise
The islands of the sea :
Ye mountains, sink ; ye valleys, rise ;
Prepare the Lord his way. |
| 2. Say to the nations, Jesus reigns
God's own Almighty Son :
His pow'r the sinking world sustains,
His grace surrounds his throne. | 5. Behold, he comes ! he comes to bless
The nations as their God :
To show the world his righteousness,
And send his truth abroad. |
| 3. Let Heav'n proclaim the joyful day ;
Joy through the earth be seen :
Let cities shine in bright array,
And fields in cheerful green. | 6. But when his voice shall raise the dead,
And bid the world draw near :
How will the guilty nations dread
To see their Judge appear ! |

And plunge in deeps again;
Each, like a tott'ring drunkard, reels,
And finds his courage vain.
Frighted to hear the tempest roar,
They pant with flutt'ring breath;
And, hopeless of the distant shore,
Expect immediate death.

3. Then to the Lord they raise their cries;
He hears their loud request;
And orders silence through the skies,
And lays the floods to rest.
Sailors rejoice to lose their fears
And see the storm allay'd;
Now to their eyes the port appears:

And Jesus is his name.

3. Writ on his thigh his name appears,
And scars his vict'ries tell;
Lo! in his hand the conq'ror bears
The keys of death and hell:
So he ascends the judgment-seat,
And at his dread command,
Myriads of creatures round his feet
In solemn silence stand.

4. Princes and peasants here expect
Their last, their righteous doom;
The men who dared his grace reject,
And they who dared presume.
"Depart, ye sons of vice and sin!"
The injured Jesus cries,
While the long-kindling wrath within
Flashes from both his eyes.

5. And now, in words divinely sweet,
With rapture in his face,
Aloud his sacred lips repeat
The sentence of his grace:
"Well done, my good and faithful sons,
The children of my love!
Receive the sceptres, crowns, and thrones,
Prepared for you above."

EXHORTATION. C. M.

HIEDERT.

2. Up to the hills where Christ is gone To plead for all his saints, Presenting, at the Father's throne, Our songs and our complaints.
 5. O may thy Spirit guide my feet In ways of righteousness, Make ev'ry path of duty straight, And plain before my face !

4. Thus, till my last ex - pi - ring breath, Thy goodness I'll a-dore ; And when my flesh dissolves in death, My soul shall love thee more.

1. Young people, all, at - tention give, I want your souls in Christ to live, Remember, you are hast'ning on
 And hear what I do say; In e - ver - last - ing day. To death's dark, gloomy

Remember, &c. To death's, &c. shade ; Your joys, on earth, will soon be gone, Your joys, on earth, will soon be gone,
 Your flesh in dust be laid, Your flesh in dust be laid.

2. Death's iron gate you must pass through, Where, then, do you expect to go? Pray meditate, before too late, Behold! King Jesus at the gate
 Ere long, my dear young friends ; With saints, or fiery fiends? While in a gospel land ; Most lovingly doth stand.

1. Our sins, a-las! how strong they be, And like a vi-lent sea; They break our du-ty, Lord, to thee, And hur-ry us a-way.

2. There to ful-fil his sweet com-mands, Our speed-y feet shall move; No sin shall clog our wing-ed zeal, Or cool our burn-ing love.

3. For ev-er his dear, sa-cred name, Shall dwell up-on our tongue, And Je-sus and Sal-va-tion be The close of ev-'ry song.

The waves of trou-ble, how they rise! How loud the tem-pests roar! But death shall land our wea-ry souls Safe on the heav'n-ly shore.

There shall we sit, and sing, and tell The wonders of his grace, Till heav'n-ly rap-tures fire our hearts, And smile in ev-'ry face.

A thou-sand years may roll a-round, Our song shall still go on, To bless the Fa-ther and the Son, And Spi-rit, three in one.

O Christians, are you ready now,
 To cross the rolling flood;
 On Canaan's happy shore to stand,
 And see your smiling God!
 The dazzling charms of that bright world,
 Attract my soul above;—
 My tongue shall shout redeeming grace,
 When perfected in love.

Go on, my brethren in the Lord,
 I'm bound to meet you there;
 Although you tread enchanted ground,
 Be bold, and never fear:
 Fight on, fight on, ye valiant souls,
 The land appears in view;
 I hope to gain fair Canaan's land,
 And there to meet with you.

3.

Come on, my brethren in the Lord,
 Whose hearts are join'd in one;
 Hold up your heads with courage bold,
 Your race is almost run:
 Above the clouds, behold! He stands,
 And, smiling, bids you come;
 And angels whisper you away,
 To your eternal home.

5.

All glory to our conq'ring King!
 Now let the echo rise;
 While the repeat is sung above,
 By armies in the skies.
 O, Christians! help me praise the Lamb,
 Who died for you and me;
 We'll sing his praises as we go,
 And shout eternally.

The sea grows calm at thy command, And tempests cease to roar.

3. O Jesus! could I this believe,
 I now should feel thy power;
 Now my poor soul thou wouldst retrieve,
 Nor let me wait one hour.

4. Author of faith! to thee I lift
 My weary, longing eyes,
 O let me now receive that gift!
 My soul without it dies.

5. Surely thou canst not let me die;
 O speak, and I shall live!
 And here I will unwearied lie,
 Till thou thy Spirit give.

6. The worst of sinners would rejoice,
 Could they but see thy face:
 O let me hear thy quick'ning voice,
 And taste thy pard'ning grace!

CHORUS.

1. Amazing grace, (how sweet the sound!)
I once was lost, but now am found,
That saved a wretch like me!
Was blind, but now I see.

And I'll sing, Hallelujah! And you'll sing, Hallelujah! . And we'll all sing, Hallelu-jah! When we arrive at home.

2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears relieved; How precious did that grace appear, The hour I first believed!
3. Through many dangers, toils and snares, I have already come; 'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.
4. The Lord has promised good to me, His word my hope secures; He will my shield and portion be, As long as life endures.
5. Yea, when this flesh and heart shall fail, And mortal life shall cease, I shall possess within the veil A life of joy and peace.
6. The earth shall soon dissolve like snow; The sun forbear to shine; But God, who call'd me here below, Shall be for ever mine.

1. My span of life will soon be done,
As length'ning shadows o'er the mead
The passing moments say,
Proclaim the close of day.

O that my heart might dwell aloof
From all created things,
And learn that wisdom from above,
Whence true contentment springs.

2. Courage, my soul! thy bitter cross,
In every trial here,
Will bear thee to thy heaven above,
But shall not enter there.

The sighing ones that humbly seek
In sorrowing paths below,
Shall in eternity rejoice,
Where endless comforts flow.

3. Soon will the toilsome strife be o'er
Of sublunary care,
And life's dull vanities no more

MINISTER'S FAREWELL. C. M. D.

Arranged by Wm. Houser.

Our cheerful voices let us raise,
Although I'm with you now, my friends,
I can't be with you long;

And sing a parting song;

For I must go and leave you all:
It fills my heart with pain;

Although we part, perhaps in tears,
I trust we'll meet again.

8. I live in holy grief and joy;
On Pisgah's top I stand;
And life's important point employ,
To view the promised land.

They pluck th' ambrosial fruit;
And each records the praise of Him
Who tuned his golden lute.

6. At once they strike th' harmonious wire,
And hymn the great Three-One;
He hears, he smiles, and all the choir
Fall down before his throne.

7. O what are all my suff'rings here,
If Lord, thou count me meet

GARLAND. C. M.

1. With songs and hon - ors sound-ing loud, Ad - dress the Lord on high; O - ver the heav'ns he spreads his cloud, And wa - ters veil the sky.

2. He sends his show'rs of bless - ings down To cheer the plains be - low; He makes the grass, the moun-tains crown, And corn in val - leys grow.

NORTH CAROLINA. C. M.

Arranged by Wm. HOUSER.

1. O that I were as here - to-fore! When warm in my first love, I on - ly lived my God t'a - dore, And seek the things a - bove!

2. Up - on my head his can - dle shone, And, lav - ish of his grace, With cords of love he drew me on, And half un - veil'd his face.

3. Far, far a - bove all earth - ly things Tri - umph - ant - ly I rode; I soar'd to heav'n on ea - gle's wings, And found and talk'd with God.

4. Where am I now? from what a height Of hap - pi-ness cast down! The glo - ry swal - low'd up in night, And fa - ded is the crown.

5. Through the wide world of sin and wo, A ban - ish'd man I roam; But can - not find my rest be - low, But cannot wan - der home.

6. O God, thou art my home, my rest, For which I sigh in pain! How shall I 'scape in - to thy breast, My E - den how re - gain?

NEWPORT. C. M.

W. CALDWELL. Alto by W. HOUSER.

1. As on the cross the Saviour hung, And wept, and bled, and died, He pour'd salvation on a wretch That languish'd at his side, That languish'd at his side,

2. His crimes with inward grief and shame The pen-i-tent confess'd; Then turn'd his dying eyes to Christ, And thus his pray'r address'd, And thus his pray'r ad - dress'd,

3. "Je - sus, thou Son and heir of heav'n! Thou spotless Lamb of God! I see thee bathed in sweat and tears, And welt'ring in thy blood, And welt'ring in thy blood,

That languish'd at his side, He pour'd sal - va - tion on a wretch That languish'd at his side.

And thus his pray'r address'd, Then turn'd his dying eyes to Christ, And thus his pray'r ad - dress'd:

And welt'ring in thy blood, I see thee bathed in sweat and tears, And welt'ring in thy blood.

4. Yet quickly from these scenes of wo,
In triumph thou shalt rise,
Burst through the gloomy shades of death,
And shine above the skies.
5. Amid the glories of that world,
Dear Saviour, think on me,
And in the vict'ries of thy death,
Let me a sharer be!"
6. His pray'r the dying Jesus hears,
And instantly replies,
"To-day thy parting soul shall be,
With me in Paradise."

MEDITATION. C. M.

LITTLE.

1. My soul, come med - i - tate the day, And think how near it stands,
2. And you, mine eyes, look down and view The hol - low, gap - ing tomb:

3. O! could we die with those that die, And place us in their stead,

4. Then should we see the saints a - bove, In their own glorious forms,

When thou must quit this house of clay, And fly to unknown lands, And fly to the un-known lands.
 This gloomy pris-on waits for you When - e'er the summons come, When - e'er the sum - mons come.

Then would our spirits learn to fly, And con - verse with the dead, And con - - - - - verse with the dead.

And wonder why our souls should love To dwell with mortal worms, To dwell with mor - tal worms,

5. How should we scorn these clothes of flesh,
 These fetters and this load;
 And long for evening, to undress,
 That we might rest with God!

6. We should almost forsake our clay,
 Before the summons came,
 And pray, and wish our souls away
 To their eternal home.

FINDLEY. C. M.

1. Je - sus, I throw my arms a - round, And hang up - on thy breast: With - out a gracious smile from thee, My spir - it can - not rest.

2. O tell me that my worth-less name Is gra-ven on thy hands, Show me some pro-mise in thy book, Where my sal - va - tion stands.

3. Give me some kind as - su - ring word, To sink my fears a - gain; And cheer-ful - ly my soul shall wait, Her three-score years and ten.

1. Approach, my soul, the mercy-seat, Where Jesus answers prayer ; There humbly fall before his feet, For none can per - ish there, For none can per - ish there, For

2. Thy prom - ise is my on - ly plea, With this I ven - ture nigh ; Thou callest burden'd souls to thee, And such, O Lord, am I, And such, O Lord, am I, And none can per - ish there, There humbly fall be - fore his feet, For none can per - ish there.

such, O Lord, am I, Thou callest burden'd souls to thee, And such, O Lord, am I.

3. Bow'd down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely press'd :
By wars without and fears within,
I come to thee for rest.

4. Be thou my shield and hiding-place,
That, shelter'd near thy side,
I may my fierce accuser face,
And tell him thou hast died.

5. O won'drous love ! to bleed and die,
To bear the cross and shame,
That guilty sinners, such as I,
Might plead thy gracious name !

6. " Poor tempest-tossed soul, be still !
My promised grace receive !"
'Tis Jesus speaks—I must, I will,
I can, I do believe.

BARBY. C. M.

Musical notation for 'Barby' in G major (one sharp) and 3/2 time. It consists of four staves. The first three staves are for the vocal line, and the fourth is for the bass line. The melody is simple and hymn-like.

1. When, ri - sing from the bed of death, O'erwhelmed with guilt and fear, I see my Ma - ker face to face, O how shall I ap - pear!

2. If yet while par - don may be found, And mer - cy may be sought, My soul with inward hor - ror shrinks, And trembles at the thought:

3. When thou, O Lord, shalt stand disclosed, In ma - jes - ty se - vere, And sit in judgment on my soul, O how shall I ap - pear!

4. O may my bro - ken, con - trite heart, Timely my sins la - ment, And ear - ly with re - pent - ant tears, E - ter - nal wo pre - vent.
 5. Be - hold the sor - rows of my heart, Ere yet it be too late, And hear my Saviour's dy - ing groans, To give those sor - rows weight.

JERUSALEM NEW. C. M.

Musical notation for 'Jerusalem New' in G major (one sharp) and 3/2 time. It consists of three staves. The first two staves are for the vocal line, and the third is for the bass line. The piece includes a chorus section.

1. Jerusalem, my hap - py home, O how I long for thee! } But O, the happy, happy place, The place where Christians all shall meet,
 When will my sorrows have an end, Thy joys when shall I see? } The place where Jesus reigns! And never part again.

The former seas, &c. And the old

1. Lo! what a glo-rious sight ap-pears To our be-liev-ing eyes: The former seas, &c. And

The former seas have pass'd away, And the old rolling skies.

The former seas, &c. And the old rolling skies. The rolling skies, The former seas, &c. And the, &c. And the, &c.

- 2. From the third heaven, where God resides,
That holy, happy place,
The new Jerusalem comes down,
Adorn'd with shining grace.
- 3. Attending angels shout for joy,
And the bright armies sing—
"Mortals, behold the sacred seat
Of your descending King.
- 4. "The God of glory down to men
Removes his bless'd abode;
Men the dear objects of his love,
And He their gracious God.
- 5. "His own kind hand shall wipe the tears
From every weeping eye;
And pains and groans, and griefs and fears,
And death itself shall die."
- 6. How long, dear Saviour, O, how long
Shall this bright hour delay?
Fly swifter round, ye wheels of time!
And bring the welcome day.

CALVARY NEW. C. M. D.

Now let our lips, with holy fear,
 The suff'rings of our great High Priest,
 And mournful pleasure, sing } He sinks in floods of deep distress;
 The sorrows of our King: } How high the waters rise! While to his heav'nly Father's ears
 He sends perpetual cries.

CANAAN. C. M. D.

Treble by Wm. Houser.

On Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
 To Canaan's fair and happy land,
 And cast a wish-ful eye } O the transporting, rapt'rous scene,
 Where my possessions lie. } That ri-ses to my sight! Sweet fields array'd in living green,
 And rivers of de-light.

On Jordan's stormy banks I stand, And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land, Where my possessions lie. } Oh! the transporting rapt'rous scene
That rises to my sight, Sweet fields array'd in living green,
And rivers of delight.

GAINES. C. M.

WM. HOUSER.

1. Oh! for a thousand tongues to sing My great Redeemer's praise! The glories of my God and King, The triumphs of his grace, The triumphs of his grace.

2. My gracious Master and my God, As - sist me to proclaim; To spread through all the earth abroad The honors of thy name, The honors of thy name.

3. Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life and health and peace.

4. He breaks the power of cancell'd sin,
He sets the pris'ner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean,
His blood avail'd for me.

5. He speaks—and, list'ning to his voice,
New life the dead receive;
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice,
The humble poor believe.

6. Hear him, ye deaf! his praise, ye dumb!
Your loosen'd tongues employ;
Ye blind! behold your Saviour come,
And leap, ye lame, for joy!

THORN. C. M.

WM. HOUSER.

Save me, O God! the swelling flood Breaks in upon my soul; I sink, and sorrows o'er my head Like mighty waters roll, . . . Like mighty waters roll.

Hymn by Bishop HEBER.

GLENROY. C. M.

Air newly arranged, and Parts composed by WM. HOUSER.

1. Beneath our feet, and o'er our head Is equal warn - ing giv'n: Beneath us lie the count - less dead, A - bove us is the heav'n.

2. Their names are graven on the stone, Their bones are in the clay: And ere an - other day is gone, Our - selves may be as they.

3. Death rides on ev'ry pass - ing breeze, And lurks in ev'ry flower; Each season has its own dis - ease, Its peril ev' - ry hour.

4. Our eyes have seen the ro - sy light Of youth's soft cheek de - cay, And fate de - scend in sud - den night On man - hood's mid - dle day.
 5. Our eyes have seen the steps of age Halt feebly to the tomb; And yet shall earth our hearts en - gage, And dreams of days to come?
 6. Turn! mortal, turn! thy dan - ger know; Where'er thy foot can tread The earth rings hol - low from be - low, And warns thee of the dead!
 7. Turn! Christian, turn! thy soul ap - ply To truths di - vine - ly giv'n: The forms which under - neath thee lie, Shall live for hell or heav'n.

1. Hear what the voice from heav'n proclaims, For all the pi-ous dead; Sweet is the sa-vor of their names, And soft their sleep-ing bed; Sweet is the sa-vor of their names, And soft their sleep-ing bed, And soft their sleep-ing bed.

2. They die in Jesus, and are bless'd;
How kind their slumbers are!
From suff'rings and from sins released,
And freed from every snare.
3. Far from this world of toil and strife,
They're present with the Lord;
The labors of their mortal life
End in a large reward.
4. The glory of their heav'nly crown,
Unfading still remains;
And life eternal, now their own,
Their Saviour still maintains.

My feet shall vis-it thine a-bode, My feet, &c. My songs ad - dress thy throne, My feet shall vis - it thine a - bode, My songs ad - dress thy throne, My songs ad - dress thy throne.

2. Among the saints that fill thine house,
My off'rings shall be paid:
There shall my zeal perform the vows
My soul in anguish made.

3. How much is mercy thy delight,
Thou ever-blessed God!
How dear thy servants in thy sight!
How precious is their blood!

4. How happy all thy servants are!
How great thy grace to me!
My life, which thou hast made thy care,
Lord, I devote to thee.

3. Once I could joy the saints to meet, To me they were most dear; }
I then could stop to wash their feet, And shed a joy - ful tear; } But now I meet them as the rest, And with them joy - less

4. I once could mourn o'er dying men,
And long'd their souls to win,
I sorrow'd o'er their children then,
And warn'd them of their sin:
But now my heart's so careless grown,
Although they're drown'd in vice,
My bowels o'er them cease to yearn,
And tears have left mine eyes.

5. I forward go in duty's way,
But can't perceive Him there;
Then backwards on the road I stray,
But cannot find Him there:
On the left hand, where He doth work,
Among the wicked crew,
And on the right I find Him not,
Among the favor'd few.

6. What shall I do?—shall I lie down,
And sink in deep despair?
Will he for ever wear a frown,
Nor hear my feeble pray'r?
No: he will put his strength in me;
He knows the way I've stroll'd;
And when I'm tried sufficiently,
I shall come forth as gold.

IMMORTALITY. C. M. D. Bass and Treble by WM. HOUSER.

1. Young people, all, at-ten-tion give, And hear what I do say; }
I want your souls in Christ to live, In ev - er - lasting day. }

2. Death's iron-gate you must pass thro', Ere long, my dear young friends; }
Where then do you ex-pect to go? Where will your souls then land? }

3. Young men, how can you turn your face From such a glorious friend? }
Will you pur-sue your dang'rous ways? O don't you fear the end? }

IMMORTALITY. Concluded.

Re - mem - ber you are hast'ning on, To death's dark gloomy shade, Your joys on earth will soon be gone, Your flesh in dust be laid.
 Pray, med - i - tate be - fore too late, While in a gos - pel land; Be - hold King Je - sus at the gate, Most lov - ing - ly doth stand!

* A favorite tune with the Rev. Timothy Dwight, D. D., a man whose name will ever be dear to all good Americans.

The musical score for 'DEVIZES' consists of four staves. The first staff is the vocal line, followed by a second staff, a third staff, and a fourth staff which appears to be a basso continuo line. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are written below the staves.

1. Hap-py the souls to Je-sus join'd, And saved by grace a-lone; Walking in all his ways, they find . . . Their heav'n on earth be-gun.

Their heav'n on earth begun, Their, &c.

 A covert from the wind—
 A river in the wilderness,
 To bless the pilgrim band.

5. This crystal stream runs down from heaven,
 It issues from the throne ;—
 The floods of strife away are driven,—
 The church becomes but one :
 That peaceful union she shall know,
 And live upon his love,
 And shout and sing his name below,
 As angels do above.

6. A thousand years shall roll around—
 The church shall be complete ;—
 Called by the glorious trumpet's sound,
 Their Saviour they shall meet :
 They rise with joy, and mount on high,
 They fly to Jesus' arms ;
 And gaze with wonder and delight
 On their Beloved's charms.

DOVE OF PEACE. C. M.

Treble and Alto by W. HOUSER.

149

The musical notation for 'DOVE OF PEACE' consists of three staves. The top staff is for Treble clef, the middle for Alto clef, and the bottom for Bass clef. All staves are in the key of D major (one sharp) and 6/4 time. The music is a simple, flowing melody with accompaniment.

1. O tell me where the Dove has flown To build her dow-ny nest, And I will rove this world all o'er, To win her to my breast, To win her to my breast.

2. I sought her in the groves of love, I knew her ten-der heart; But she had flown—the Dove of Peace Had felt a trai-tor's dart, Had felt a trai-tor's dart.

3. I sought her on the flow'-ry lawn, Where plea-sure holds her train; But Fan-cy flies from flower to flower, So there I sought in vain, So there I sought in vain.
 4. 'Twas on Am-bi-tion's crag-gy hill, The Bird of Peace might stray; I sought her there, tho' vain-ly still, She nev-er flew that way, She nev-er flew that way.
 5. Faith smiled, and shed a si-lent tear, To see my search a-round, Then whis-per'd, "I will tell you where The Dove may yet be found, The Dove may yet be found :
 6. "By meek Re-li-gion's hum-ble cot, She builds her dow-ny nest; Go, seek that sweet se-clud-ed spot, And win her to your breast, And win her to your breast."

Moderato.

SWEET HOPE. C. M.

W. HOUSER.

The musical notation for 'SWEET HOPE' consists of three staves. The top staff is for Treble clef, the middle for Alto clef, and the bottom for Bass clef. All staves are in the key of D major (one sharp) and 6/8 time. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The music features a more rhythmic and melodic style than the first piece.

1. O joy-ful sound of gos-pel grace! Christ shall in me ap-pear; I, e-ven I, shall see his face; I shall be ho-ly here, I shall be ho-ly here.

2. The glo-rious crown of right-eous-ness, To me reach'd down I view; Conq'ror thro' him I soon shall seize, And wear it as my due, And wear it as my due.

3. The pro-mised land from Pis-gah's top, I now ex-ult to see: My hope is full, (O glo-rious hope!) Of im-mor-tal-i-ty, Of im-mor-tal-i-ty.
 4. He vis-its now the house of clay, He shakes his fu-ture home; O wouldst thou, Lord, on this glad day, In-to thy tem-ple come, In-to thy tem-ple come.

Afflictions, though they seem severe, In mercy oft are sent; They stopp'd the prodigal's career, And caus'd him to repent. Although he no relentings felt, Till he had spent his store; His stubborn heart began to melt, When famine pinch'd him sore.

The first system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top three staves are treble clefs, and the bottom staff is a bass clef. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 6/4. The music is written in a simple, homophonic style with square notes and stems. The lyrics are printed below the staves, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes.

The second system of the musical score also consists of four staves (three treble clefs and one bass clef) in the same key signature and time signature as the first system. The lyrics continue from the first system. The final measure of the system includes first and second endings, indicated by the numbers '1' and '2' above the notes.

THE CONVERTED THIEF. C. M. D.

Bass and Treble Arr'd by Wm. HOUSER.

Musical notation for the song 'The Converted Thief'. It consists of three staves: a treble staff, a bass staff, and a grand staff (treble and bass clef). The key signature is one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 6/4. The melody is written in a simple, accessible style.

1. As on the cross the Saviour hung, And wept, and bled, and died ; His crimes, with inward grief and shame, Then
He pour'd sal-va-tion on a wretch, That languish'd at his side. The pen-i-tent confess'd ;

2. "Jesus, thou Son and heir of heav'n,
Thou spotless Lamb of God!
I see thee bathed in sweat and tears,
And weltering in thy blood.

Yet quickly from these scenes of wo,
In triumph thou shalt rise ;
Burst through the gloomy shades of death,
And shine above the skies.

3. Amid the glories of that world,
Dear Saviour, think on me,
And in the victories of thy death
Let me a sharer be."

His prayer the dying Jesus hears,
And instantly replies,
"To-day thy parting soul shall be
With me in Paradise."

RETURNING PRODIGAL. C. M. D.

AXTON. D. C.

Musical notation for the song 'Returning Prodigal'. It consists of three staves: a treble staff, a bass staff, and a grand staff. The key signature is one flat and the time signature is 6/4. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines.

turn'd his dying eyes to Christ,
And thus his prayer address'd :

1. Behold the wretch whose lust and wine Hath wasted his estate ! "I die with hunger here," he cries,
He begs a share among the swine, "I starve in foreign lands ;
To taste the husks they eat.

D. C. My father's house hath large supplies, And bounteous are his hands.

Words to Returning Prodigal.

2. "I'll go, and with a mournful tongue
Fall down before his face ;
Father, I've done thy justice wrong,
Nor can deserve thy grace ;"
He said, then hasten'd to his home,
To seek his father's love ;

The father sees the rebel come,
And all his bowels move.
3. He ran and fell upon his neck,
Embrac'd and kiss'd his son ;
The rebel's heart with sorrow brake,
For follies he had done.

"Take off his clothes of shame and sin,"
The father gives command ;
"Dress him in garments white and clean,
With rings adorn his hand."
4. A day of feasting I ordain,
Let mirth and joy abound ;

My son was dead, but lives again,
Was lost, but now is found."
Thus, when repenting sinners come
To seek the Saviour's face ;
He joyfully receives them home,
T' enjoy his largest grace.

I would disdain to feed?
Hast thou a foe, before whose face
I fear thy cause to plead?

5. Would not my ardent spirit vie
With angels round thy throne,
To execute thy sacred will,
And make thy glory known?

6. Would not my heart pour forth its blood,
In honor of thy name?
And challenge the cold hand of death
To damp th' immortal flame?

But, oh! I long to soar
Far from the sphere of mortal joys,
And learn to love thee more.

Beneath his banner find protection;
None who on his arm rely,
Shall be reduced to base subjection.
4. You need not fear—the cause is good;
Come! who will to the crown aspire?
In this cause the martyrs bled,
And shouted vict'ry in the fire:
In this cause let's follow on,
And soon we'll tell the pleasing story,
How by faith we gain'd the crown,
And fought our way to life and glory.
5. The battle, brethren, is begun,
Behold the armies now in motion!
Some, by faith, behold the crown,
And almost grasp their future portion.
Hark! the vict'ry's sounding loud, [ling!
Emmanuel's chariot wheels are rumb-
Mourners weeping through the crowd,
And Satan's kingdom down is tumbling.
6. Hark! ye rebels, come enlist!
The officers are now recruiting;
Why will you in sin persist,
Or spend your time in vain disputing?
All your carnal shows are vain,
For if you do not sue for favor,
Down you'll sink to endless pain,
To bear the wrath of God for ever.

The musical score for 'Burdened Pilgrim' consists of four staves. The first two staves are for the vocal line, and the last two are for the piano accompaniment. The key signature is one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 6/4. The music is written in a simple, homophonic style with clear phrasing.

1. Pilgrim, burden'd with thy sin, Come the way to Zion's gate; } Knock! He knows the sinner's cry; Watch! for saving grace is nigh;
 There, till mercy let thee in, Knock, and weep, and watch, and wait. } Weep! He loves the mourner's tears; Wait! till heavenly light appears.

2. Hark! it is the Bridegroom's voice!
 "Welcome, pilgrim, to thy rest;"
 Now within the gate rejoice,
 Safe, and seal'd, and bought, and blest.
 Safe from all the lures of vice;
 Seal'd by signs the chosen know;
 Bought by love, and life the price;
 Blest, the mighty debt to owe.

3. Holy pilgrim, what for thee
 In a world like this remains?
 From thy guarded breast shall flee
 Fear, and shame, and doubt, and pain.
 Fear, the hope of heav'n shall fly;
 Shame, from glory's view retire;
 Doubt, in certain raptures die;
 Pain, in endless bliss expire.

SOVEREIGN GRACE. 7s.

Treble and Alto, by Wm. Housen.

1. Sovereign grace has pow'r a - lone To sub - due a heart of stone; And the mo-ment grace is felt, Then the hard - est heart will melt.

2. When the Lord was cru - ci - fied, Two transgress-ors with him died; One, with vile, blasphe - ming tongue, Scoffed at Je - sus as he hung.

3. Thus he spent his wick - ed breath, In the ver - y jaws of death; Per-ish'd, as too ma - ny do, With the Sa - viour in his view.

4. But the oth - er, touch'd with grace, Saw the dan - ger of his case, Faith re - ceived to own his Lord, Whom the scribes and priests ab - horr'd.

1. O God, my re-fuge, hear my cries, Be-hold my flow-ing tears ; For earth and hell my hurt de-vise, And tri-umph in my fears. 2. Their rage is le-vell'd at my life ; My soul with guilt they load, And fill my thoughts with in-ward strife To shake my hope in God.

3. What inward pain my heart-strings sound!
I groan with ev'ry breath;
Horror and fear beset me round,
Amongst the shades of death.
4. O, were I like a feather'd dove,
And innocence had wings,
I'd fly, and make a long remove,
From all these restless things.
5. Let me to some wild desert go,
And find a peaceful home;
Where storms of malice never blow,
And troubles never come.
6. Vain hopes, and vain inventions all,
To 'scape the rage of hell!
The mighty God, on whom I call,
Can save me here as well.

BABEL'S STREAMS. C. M. D.

By Babel's streams we sat and wept,
While Zion we thought on,

charming sound,
I'll tune my harp again.

1. Sweeter sounds than music knows Charm me in Emmanuel's name; All her hopes my spirit owes To his birth, and cross, and shame.

2. When he came, the angels sung "Glo-ry be to God on high!"
Who should louder sing than I?
Lord, unloose my stamm'ring tongue;

3. Did the Lord a man become, That he might the law fulfil? Bleed and suffer in my room, And canst thou, my tongue, be still?

4. No, I must my praises bring, Tho' they worthless are and weak, For, should I refuse to sing, Sure the very stones would speak.
5. O my Saviour, Shield, and Sun, Shepherd, Brother, Husband, Friend, Ev'ry precious name in one, I will love thee without end.

1. With glorious clouds encompass'd round,
Whom angels dim-ly see; Will the Unsearcha-ble be found,
Or God appear to me? Will He forsake his throne above,
Himself to worms impart?

2. In man-i-fest-ed love explain
Thy wonder-ful design; What meant the suff'ring Son of Man,
The streaming blood divine? Didst thou not in our flesh appear,
And live and die be-low,

3. Come, then, and to my soul reveal,
The heights and depths of grace;
The wounds which all my sorrows heal,
That dear, disfigured face.

Before my eyes of faith confess'd,
Stand forth a slaughter'd Lamb;
And wrap me in thy crimson vest,
And tell me all thy name.

4. JEHOVAH in thy person show,
JEHOVAH crucified!
And then the pard'ning God I know,
And feel the blood applied,

I view the Lamb in his own light,
Whom angels dimly see;
And gaze, transported at the sight,
To all eternity.

Answer, thou Man of grief and love, And speak it to my heart.

That I might now per-ceive thee near, And my Re-deem-er know?

Rather Slow and Plaintive.

1. Oh! no, we can - not sing the song,
Our sorrowing harps refuse their strings
To Zion's gladsome lays; } Made for Jehovah's praise; } They bid us be in mirthful mood,
And dry these tears so sad; } But Judah's hearths are desolate,
And how can we be glad?

2. Silent our harps o'er Babel's stream
And Zion we no more shall see; } Are hung on willows wet; } Jerusalem, thy banish'd ones
But we can ne'er forget. } Prove anguish and regret; } But Heav'n's own curse shall rest on them,
If thee they e'er forget.

We could not fly to thee. } How dark this world would be, } The friends who in our sunshine live,
When winter comes, are flown; } And he who has but tears to give Must weep those tears alone.

2. Oh! who could bear life's stormy doom,
Come brightly wafting through the gloom,
Our peace-branch from above? } Did not thy wing of love } Then sorrow, touch'd by thee, grows bright,

Here bring your wound - ed hearts, here tell your an - guish; Earth has no sor - row that Heav'n can - not heal.

TRIO CHORUS.

Here bring your wound - ed hearts, here tell your an - guish; Earth has no sor - row that Heav'n can - not heal.

2. Joy of the comfortless, light of the straying,
Hope, when all others die, fadeless and pure;
Here speaks the Comforter, in mercy saying,
"Earth has no sorrow that Heav'n cannot cure."

3. Here see the Bread of Life—see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;
Come to the feast prepared—come, ever knowing
Earth has no sorrow that Heav'n cannot cure.

4. Oh, to the Saviour come! He will receive you,
For He hath felt more than sinners can feel;
List how He intercedes—He will relieve you—
Earth has no sorrow His blood cannot heal.

5. Angels, with sympathy, look down from heaven—
They would entreat you his love to secure;
None ever sought in vain—all are forgiven—
Earth has no sorrow that Heav'n cannot cure.

6. Come, ere the lamp of life ceases its burning,
Ere death's cold waters shall over you steal;
Come, while poor penitents gladly are turning—
Earth has no sorrow his blood cannot heal.

7. List to the gospel trump, yield to its warning—
Hear what poor sinners in hell must endure—
Oh! if you wait until Judgment's dread morning,
Hell has a sorrow that Heav'n cannot cure.

The last four stanzas are by Dr. ED. M. PENDLETON, of Sparta, Geo.

Musical score for 'Christian Travellers' in 3/2 time, featuring a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The score consists of four staves. The first two staves are for the vocal line, and the last two are for the piano accompaniment. The key signature has one flat (B-flat).

1. What poor, de-spi-sed compa-ny Of travellers are these, } Ah! they are of a roy-al line, All children of a King, Heirs of immortal crowns divine, And loud for joy they sing.
 Who walk in yonder narrow way, Along the rugged maze? }

2. Why do they then appear so mean,
 And why so much despised?
 Because of their rich robes unseen
 The world is not apprized.

Why do they shun that pleasing path,
 Which worldlings love so well
 Because it is the road to death,
 The certain way to hell.

3. Why do they walk the narrow road,
 Along that rugged maze?
 Because this way their Leader trod—
 They love and keep his ways.

What! is there then no other road
 To Salem's happy ground?
 Christ is the only way to God—
 No other can be found.

LA GRANGE. 8s & 7s.

Arr'd by Wm. HOUSER.

Musical score for 'La Grange' in 2/4 time, featuring a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The score consists of three staves. The key signature has two sharps (D major). The first staff is for the vocal line, and the last two are for the piano accompaniment. The piece ends with a 'D. C.' (Da Capo) instruction.

1. Blessing, honor, thanks and praise, Pay we, gracious God, to thee ; }
Thou in thine a - bundant grace, Giv-est us the vic-to - ry ; }

2. Lo! the prisoner is releas'd, Lighten'd of his fleshly load ; }
Where the weary are at rest, He is gather'd in-to God ! }

True and faith - ful to thy word, Thou hast glo - ri - fied thy Son,—Je - sus Christ our dy - ing Lord, He for us the fight hath won.

Lo! the pain of life is past, All his war - fare now is o'er; Death and hell be - hind are cast, Grief and suff' - ring are no more.

3. Yes, the Christian's course is run,
 Ended is the glorious strife;
 Fought the fight,—the work is done,—
 Death is swallow'd up of life!
 Borne by angels on their wings,
 Far from earth the spirit flies:
 Finds his God, and sits and sings,
 Triumphant in Paradise.

4. Join we then with one accord,
 In the new, the joyful song:
 Absent from our loving Lord
 We shall not continue long:
 We shall quit the house of clay,—
 We a better lot shall share;
 We shall see the realms of day,
 Meet our happy brother there.

5. Let the world bewail their dead,
 Fondly of their loss complain:
 Brother, friend, by Jesus freed,
 Death to thee, to us, is gain:
 Thou art entered into joy:
 Let thee unbelievers mourn:
 We in songs our lives employ
 Till we all to God return.

ALABAMA. C. M. D.

Counter by WM. WALKER. Those hap - py

Those happy, &c. But I can sing, &c.

Those happy spirits sing his praise, To all e - ter - ni - ty, But I can sing redeeming grace, For Jesus died for me praise, To all, &c. But I can sing, &c.

1. The cross of Christ inspires my heart
To sing redeeming grace;
Awake, my soul, and bear a part
In my Redeemer's praise.
Oh! what can be compared to him
Who died upon the tree!
This is my dear delightful theme,
That Jesus died for me.

2. When at the table of the Lord
We humbly take our place,
The death of Jesus we record,
With love and thankfulness.
These emblems bring my Lord to view,
Upon the bloody tree,
My soul believes and feels it true,
That Jesus died for me.

3. His body broken, nailed, and torn,
And stain'd with streams of blood;
His spotless soul was left forlorn,
Forsaken of his God.
'Twas then his father gave the stroke,
That justice did decree;
All nature felt the dreadful shock;
When Jesus died for me.

4. "Eli, lama sabacthani,"
"My God! my God!" he cried;
"Why hast thou thus forsaken me?"
And thus my Saviour died.
But why did God forsake his Son,
When bleeding on the tree?
He died for sins, but not his own,
For Jesus died for me.

5. My guilt was on my surety laid,
And therefore he must die;
His soul a sacrifice was made
For such a worm as I.
Was ever love so great as this?
Was ever grace so free?
This is my glory, joy, and bliss,
That Jesus died for me.

6. He took his meritorious blood,
And rose above the skies,
And in the presence of his God
Presents his sacrifice.
His intercession must prevail
With such a glorious plea;
My cause can never, never fail,
For Jesus died for me.

7. Angels in shining order stand
Around the Saviour's throne;
They bow with rev'rence at his feet,
And make his glories known.
Those happy spirits sing his praise
To all eternity;
But I can sing redeeming grace,
For Jesus died for me.

8. Oh! had I but an angel's voice,
To bear my heart along;
My flowing numbers soon would rise
To an immortal song.
I'd charm their harps and golden lyres
To sweetest harmony,
And tell to all the heav'nly choirs,
That Jesus died for me.

ANIMATION. C. M.

1. What is there here to court my stay,
 To hold me back from home; While angels beckon me a-way,
 And Je - sus bids me come, And Je - sus bids me come, While
 And Jesus bids me come? And Jesus bids me come?

Shall I re-gret my parted friends,
 Still in the vale confined? Nay; but when'er my soul ascends,
 They will not stay be - hind, They will not stay behind. Nay;

2. The race we all are running now;
 And if I first attain,
 They, too, their willing heads shall bow,
 They, too, the prize shall gain.

Now on the brink of death we stand;
 And if I pass before,
 They all shall soon escape to land,
 And hail me on that shore.

3. Then let me suddenly remove,
 That hidden life to share;
 I shall not lose my friends above,
 But more enjoy them there.

There we in Jesus' praise shall join,
 His boundless love proclaim;
 And solemnize, in songs divine,
 The marriage of the Lamb.

For this we'll suffer—die;
For this we give ourselves away
To God, who reigns on high.

2. Follow'd by their works, they go
Where their Head is gone before;
Reconcil'd by grace below—
Grace hath open'd mercy's door;
Justified by faith alone,
Here they knew their sins forgiv'n,
Here they laid their burden down,
Hallow'd and made meet for heav'n.

Of a saint in Christ deceas'd?
Let the world, who know us not,

When from flesh the spirit freed,
Hastens homeward to return,
Mortals cry, "A man is dead!"
Angels sing, "A child is born!"

night thy lambs are cry - ing, Come, good Shep-herd, feed thy sheep!

may'd by force or num-bers: Come, good Shepherd, feed thy sheep!

3. Lord, in us there is no merit,
 We've been sinners from our youth;
 Guide us, Lord, by thy good Spirit,
 Which shall teach us all the truth.
 On thy gospel word we'll venture,
 Till in death's cold arms we sleep;
 Love our God, and Christ our Saviour:
 O, good Shepherd, feed thy sheep!

4. Come, good Lord, with courage arm us!
 Persecution rages here;
 Nothing, Lord, we know, can harm us,
 While our Shepherd is so near.
 Glory! glory be to Jesus!
 At his name our heart doth leap;
 He both comforts us and frees us,—
 The good Shepherd feeds his sheep.

5. Hear the Prince of our salvation
 Saying, "Fear not, little flock;
 I myself am your foundation,
 Ye are built upon this Rock:
 Shun the path of vice and folly;
 Scale the mount, although it's steep!
 Look to me, and be ye holy:
 I delight to feed my sheep."

6. Taught by Christ, whose merit saves us,
 We will praise his holy name;
 Sweetest of all names is Jesus!
 How it doth our souls inflame!
 Glory! glory be to Jesus!
 Give him glory, he will keep;
 He will clear our way before us:
 The good Shepherd feeds his sheep.

1. Glo-ry to God on high! Our peace is made with heav'n; The Son of God came down to die, That we might be forgiv'n.

2. His precious blood was shed, His bo-dy bruised for sin: Remember this in eat-ing bread, And this in drinking wine.

3. Ap-proach his royal board, In his rich gar-ments clad; Join ev'-ry tongue to praise the Lord, And ev'ry heart be glad.

4. The Fa-ther gives his Son, The Son his flesh and blood; The Spirit ap-plies, and faith puts on The righteousness of God.

BACKSLIDER'S SORROW. 6s & 9s.

WM. HOUSER.

Very plaintive.

1. Ah! where am I now? When was it, or how, That I fell from my heav-en of grace? I am brought into thrall, I am stripp'd of my all, I am banish'd from Je - sus - 's face!

2. Hardly yet do I know
How I let my Lord go,
So insensibly starting aside;
When the tempter came in
With his own subtle sin,
And infected my spirit with pride.

4. Only pride could destroy
That innocent joy,
And make my Redeemer depart:
But whate'er was the cause,
I lament the sad loss,
For the veil is come over my heart.

6. Nothing now can relieve;
Without comfort I grieve:
I have lost all my peace and my pow'r;
No access do I find
To the Friend of mankind:
I can ask for his mercy no more.

8. Driven out from my God,
I wander abroad:
Through a desert of sorrows I rove:
How great is my pain,
That I cannot regain
My Eden of Jesus's love!

3. But I felt it too soon,
That my Saviour was gone,
Swiftly vanishing out of my sight;
My triumph and boast
On a sudden were lost,
And my day, it was turn'd into night.

5. Ah! wretch that I am!
I can only exclaim,
Like a devil tormented within;
My Saviour is gone,
And has left me alone,
To the fury of Satan and sin.

7. Tongue cannot declare
The torment I bear,
(While no end to my troubles, I see:)
Only Adam could tell,
On the day that he fell,
And was turn'd out of Eden, like me.

9. I never shall rise
To my first paradise,
Or come my Redeemer to see;
But I feel a faint hope,
That at last he will stoop,
And his pity shall bring him to me.

1. Give to the winds thy fears; Hope, and be un - dis - may'd! God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears, God shall lift up thy head.

2. Thro' waves, and clouds, and storms, He gent - ly clears thy way; Wait thou his time, so shall this night Soon end in joy - ous day.

3. Still heavy is thy heart?
Still sink thy spirits down?
Cast off the weight, let fear depart,
And ev'ry care be gone.

4. What though thou rulest not,
Yet heav'n, and earth, and hell,
Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne
And ruleth all things well.

5. Leave to his sovereign sway
To choose and to command,
So shalt thou, wond'ring, own his way
How wise, how strong his hand!

6. Far, far above thy thought,
His counsel shall appear,
When fully he the work hath wrought,
'That caused thy needless fear.

1. Grace! 'tis a charming sound, Harmonious to the ear :
 Heav'n with the, &c. And all, &c. And all, &c.
 And all the earth shall hear, And all, &c.
 Heav'n with the echo shall re - sound, And all, &c. And all, &c.

2. Grace first contriv'd the way
 To save rebellious man;
 And all the steps that grace display,
 Which drew the wondrous plan.

3. Grace led my roving feet,
 To tread the heav'nly road;
 And new supplies each hour I meet,
 While pressing on to God.

4. Grace all the work shall crown
 Through everlasting days;
 It lays in heav'n the topmost stone,
 And well deserves the praise.

Ye heav'nly, &c. And sound, &c.

1. Let ev'ry creature join To praise th'e-ter-nal God; Ye heav'nly hosts, the song be-gin, And sound his name a-broad.

Ye heav'nly, &c. Ye heav'nly, &c. And sound, &c.

Ye heav'nly hosts, the song be-gin, Ye heav'nly, &c. And sound, &c.

And moon with pa-ler rays, Ye starry lights, ye twinkling flame, Ye starry, &c. Shine to, &c.
Shine to your Maker's praise,

Thou sun, with golden beams, And moon, &c.

2. He built those worlds above, By his command they stand or move, Ye vapors, when ye rise, Ye thunders, murm'ring round the skies,
And fix'd their wondrous frame; And ever speak his name. Or fall in show'rs or snow; His power and glory show.

1. Firm and unmoved are they That rest their souls on God ; Firm as the mount where David dwelt, Firm as the mount, &c. Or where the ark a - bode.

2. As mountains stood to guard The cit-y's sacred ground, So God, and his al - might-y love, So God, and his, &c. Embrace his saints a - round.

3. What though the Father's rod
Drop a chastising stroke,
Yet, lest it wound their souls too deep,
Its fury shall be broke.

4. Deal gently, Lord, with those Whose faith and pious fear,
Whose hope, and love, and ev'ry grace,
Proclaim their hearts sincere.

5. Nor shall the tyrant's rage
Too long oppress the saint ;
The God of Israel will support
His children, lest they faint.

6. But if our slavish fear
Will choose the road to hell,
We must expect our portion there,
Where bolder sinners dwell.

On his Father's faithful breast; Where the wicked cease from troubling, And the weary are at rest.

Whom on earth thou loved'st best; Where the wicked cease from troubling, And the weary are at rest.

4. "Earth to earth, and dust to dust:"
Thus the solemn priest hath said;
We lay the turf above thee now,
And seal thy narrow bed.
But thy spirit soars away,—
Soars among the faithful blest,
Where the wicked cease from troubling,
And the weary are at rest.

5. And when the Lord shall summon us—
Us, whom thou hast left behind,
May we, untainted by the world,
As sure a welcome find;
May each, like thee, depart in peace
To be a glorious, happy guest,
Where the wicked cease from troubling,
And the weary are at rest.

1. Hail! ye sigh-ing sons of sor-row; Learn with me your cer-tain doom; } See all na-ture fa-ding, dy-ing! Si-lent, all things seem to pine;
 Learn with me your fate to-mor-row, Dead,—per-haps laid in the tomb! }

Life from veg-e-ta-tion fly-ing, Brings to mind the moul'dring vine.

2. Lo! in yonder forest standing,
 Lofty cedars; how they nod!
 Scenes of nature, how surprising!
 Read, in nature, nature's God.
 While the annual frosts are cropping
 Leaves and tendrils from the trees,
 So our friends are yearly dropping—
 We are like to one of these.

3. Hollow winds about me roaring,
 Noisy waters round me rise,
 While I sit my fate deploring,
 Tears fast streaming from mine eyes.
 What to me is Autumn's treasure,
 Since I know no earthly joy?
 Long I've lost all youthful pleasure,
 Time will health and youth destroy.

4. Former friends, how oft I've sought them,
 Just to cheer a troubled mind!
 Now they're gone, like leaves of Autumn,
 Driv'n before the dreary wind.
 When a few more days are wasted,
 And a few more scenes are o'er;
 When a few more griefs I've tasted,
 I shall rise to fall no more.

5. Fast my sun of life's declining,
 Soon 'twill set in endless night;
 But my hopes, pure and reviving,
 Rise to fairer worlds of light!
 Cease this trembling, mourning, sighing!
 Death shall burst this sullen gloom;
 Then my spirit, flutt'ring, flying,
 Shall be borne beyond the tomb!

RATHER SLOW

* 1. Je-sus, I my cross have taken, All to leave and fol-low thee : Naked, poor, despised, forsaken, Thou from hence my all shalt be : Perish ev'ry fond am-bi - tion,

2. Let the world despise and leave me, They have left my Saviour too ; Human hearts and looks deceive me, Thou art not like them, untrue ;
And whilst thou shalt smile upon me,

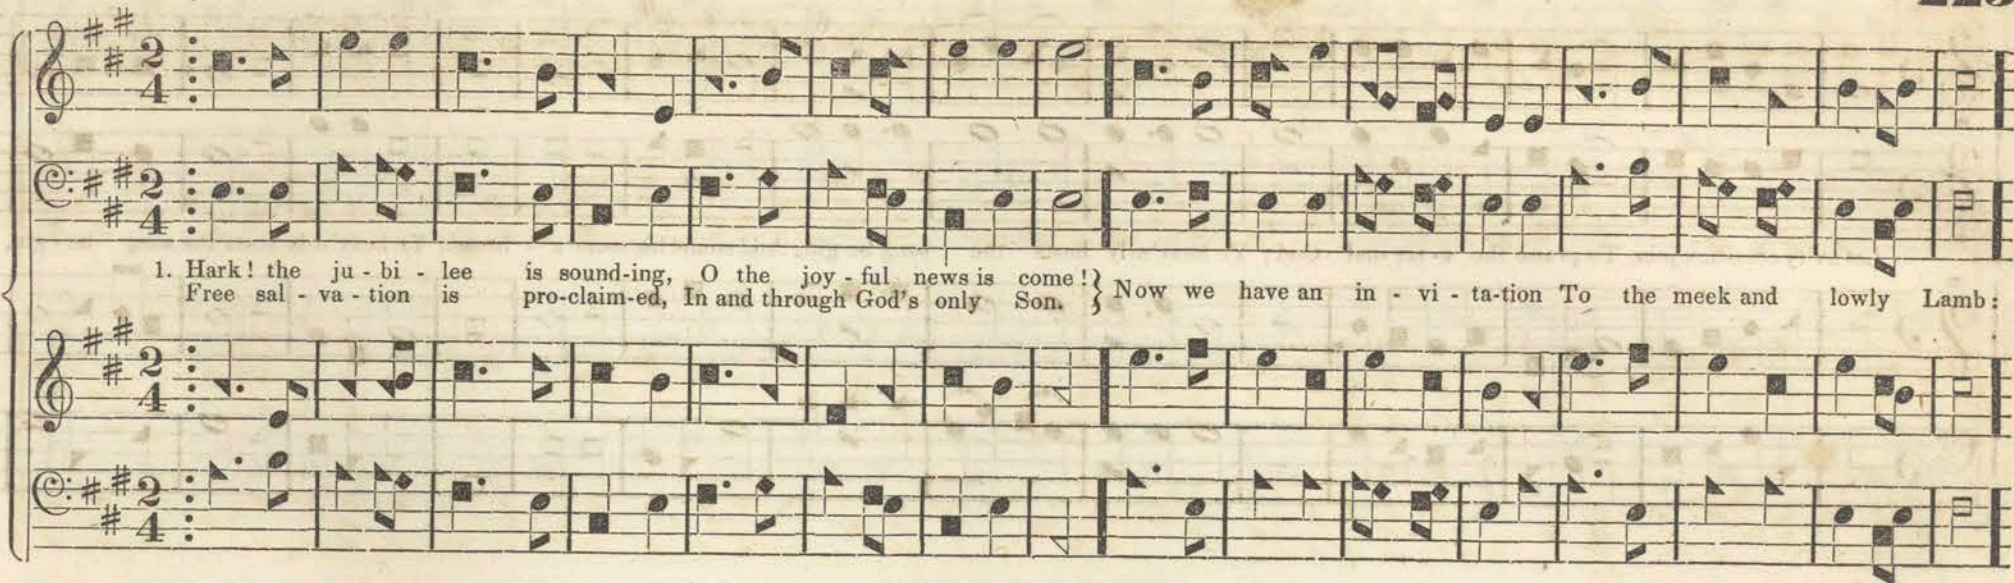

3. Go, then, earthly fame and treasure,
Come, disaster, scorn, and pain ;
In Thy service pain is pleasure,
With Thy favor loss is gain.
I have called thee, Abba, Father,
I have set my heart on thee :
Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
All must work for good to me.

4. Man may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to thy breast ;
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heav'n will bring me sweeter rest.
Oh ! 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While Thy love is left to me ;
Oh ! 'twere not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmix'd with Thee.

5. Soul, then know thy full salvation ;
Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care ;
Joy to find, in ev'ry station,
Something still to do or bear :
Think what Spirit dwells within thee ;
Think what Father's smiles are thine ;
Think that Jesus died to win thee ;
Child of heav'n, canst thou repine ?

6. Haste thee on from grace to glory,
Arm'd by faith, and wing'd by prayer !
Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
God's own hand shall guide thee there :
Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days ;
Hope shall change to glad fruition,
Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

* This glorious hymn is said to have been composed by a young English lady, a Methodist, who had suffered much affliction.

1. Hark! the ju-bi-lee is sound-ing, O the joy-ful news is come! } Now we have an in-vi-tation To the meek and lowly Lamb:
Free sal-va-tion is pro-claim-ed, In and through God's only Son.

| 2. Come, dear friends, and don't neglect it,
Come to Jesus in your prime;
Great salvation, don't reject it,
O receive it, now's your time;
Now the Saviour is beginning
To revive his work again:
Glory, honor, and salvation!
Christ the Lord is come to reign. | 4. Let us run our race with patience,
Looking unto Christ the Lord,
Who doth live and reign for ever,
With his Father, and our God;
He is worthy to be praised,
He is our exalted King,
Glory, honor, &c. |
| 3. Now let each one cease from sinning,
Come and follow Christ the way:
We shall all receive a blessing,
If from him we do not stray:
Golden moments we've neglected,
Yet the Lord invites again!
Glory, honor, &c. | 5. Come, dear children, praise your Jesus
Praise him, praise him evermore;
May his glorious love constrain us,
Him for ever to adore;
O then let us join together,
Crowns of glory to obtain!

2. This inward, dire disease, Spir - it of health, re - move! Spir - it of finish'd ho - li - ness, Spirit of per - fect love!

3. Hasten the joy - ful day, Which shall my sins consume, When old things shall be done away, And all things new become.

4. I want the witness, Lord, That all I do is right, Accord - ing to thy will and word, Well-pleasing in thy sight.

1. Re-mem-ber, sin-ful youth, you must die, you must die, Re-mem-ber, sin-ful youth, you must die; Re-mem-ber, sin-ful youth, who hate the way of truth, And in your pleasures boast, you must die, you must die, And in your pleasures boast, you must die.

2. Uncertain are your days here below, here below,
Uncertain are your days here below,
Uncertain are your days, for God hath many ways
To bring you to your graves here below, here below,
To bring you to your graves here below.
3. The God that built the sky, great I AM, great I AM,
The God that built the sky, great I AM,
The God that built the sky, hath said, (and cannot lie,)
Impenitents shall die, and be damn'd, and be damn'd,
Impenitents shall die, and be damn'd.
4. And, O my friends, don't you, I entreat, I entreat,
And, O my friends, don't you, I entreat,
And, O my friends, don't you, your carnal mirth pursue,
Your guilty souls undo, I entreat, I entreat,
Your guilty souls undo, I entreat.
5. Unto the Saviour flee, 'scape for life! 'scape for life!
Unto the Saviour flee, 'scape for life!
Unto the Saviour flee, lest death eternal be—
Your final destiny, 'scape for life! 'scape for life!
Your final destiny—'scape for life!

1. Come, my friends, and taste with me, Full sal - va - tion run - ning free, Je - sus now in - vites us: He presents his charm - ing grace; See his love - ly,

 All its joys will shortly die;
 Fading fast they leave us:
 Beauteous grace your Lord will grant;
 He'll supply your ev'ry want;
 All that for his mercy pant,
 He will give without restraint;
 Jesus will receive us.

3. Heav'n is a delightful place;
 There are streams of perfect peace,
 Which my spirits capture:
 All the happy tenants there,
 His own glorious image bear,
 All his love and bounty share;
 And their Jesus ever near Heightens still their rapture.

1. How happy are they Who their Saviour obey, And have laid up their treasures above! Tongue cannot express The sweet comfort and peace Of a soul in its ear - li - est love.

2. That comfort was mine, When the favor divine, I first found in the blood of the Lamb; When my heart it believ'd, What a joy I receiv'd, What a heaven in Jesus's name!

3. 'Twas a heav-en below, My Redeemer to know: The angels could do nothing more Than fall at his feet, And the sto-ry re peat, And the Lov-er of sin-ners a-dore.

The top two staves have a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps (D#). The bottom two staves have a bass clef and a key signature of two sharps (D#). The music is written in a simple, homophonic style. There are two endings, marked '1' and '2', at the end of the piece.

1. Wel-come sweet day of rest, That saw the Lord arise; Welcome to this reviving breast, And these rejoicing eyes; Welcome, &c.

And, &c.

2. The King himself comes near,
And feasts his saints to-day;
Here we may sit, and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.

3. One day in such a place,
Where thou, my God, art seen,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Of pleasurable sin.

4. My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this,
And sit and sing herself away
To everlasting bliss.

1. The Sa-viour's glo-rious name For e-ver shall en-dure, Long as the sun, His match-less fame Shall e-ver stand se-cure.

2. Wonders of grace and power
To Thee alone belong;
Thy church those wonders shall adore
In everlasting song.

3. O Israel! bless him still,
His name to honor raise;
Let all the earth his glory fill,
Midst songs of grateful praise.

4. Jehovah, God most high,
We spread thy praise abroad;
Through all the world thy fame shall fly,
O God, thine Israel's God!

MOUNT CUMBERLAND. 6s & 9s.

Come, all ye hap-py race, Who are ran-som'd by grace, By the grace that is free for us all; Come and hear, come and feel, While with rap-ture I tell, What my Sa-viour hath done for my soul.

CREATION. S. M.

SHUMWAY.

Let ev'ry creature join To praise th' eternal God; Ye heav'nly hosts, the song begin, And sound his name, And sound his name abroad.

Thou
Thou sun with golden

Thou sun, with golden beams, And moon with

Thou sun, &c. And moon, &c. And moon, &c. Ye starry, &c. Shine to, &c.

sun with golden beams, And moon with paler rays, Ye starry lights, ye twinkling flames, Shine to, Shine to your Maker's praise.

beams, And moon, &c. And moon, &c. Ye starry, &c. Shine to, &c. Shine to, &c.

paler rays, And moon, &c. Ye starry, &c. Shine to, &c. Shine to, &c.

1. Re-joice, my friends, the Lord is King, }
Let all prepare to take him in; } Let Ja-cob rise, and Zi-on sing, And all the world with praises ring, And give to Je-sus glo-ry.

2. Oh! may the saints of ev-'ry name }
U-nite to serve the bleeding Lamb; } May jars and discords cease to flame, And all the Saviour's love pro-claim, And give to Je-sus glo-ry.

3. I long to see all Christians join }
In u-nion sweet and peace divine, } When ev'ry church with grace shall shine And grow in Christ, the living vine, And give to Je-sus glo-ry.

4. Oh! may the desert lands rejoice,
And mourners hear the Bridegroom's voice;
While songs of praise each tongue employ,
And all obtain immortal joy,
And give to Jesus glory.

5. Come! parents, children, bond and free,
Come! will you go to heav'n with me?
That glorious land of rest to see,
And shout with me eternally,
And give to Jesus glory!

6. Come! who will run to win the prize,
And take the kingdom in the skies,
Where joy celestial never dies,
But always flows through Paradise?
Oh! there we'll give Him glory.

7. My soul grows happy while I sing;
I feel that I am on the wing;
I'll shout salvation to my King,
Till I to heav'n my trophies bring,
And there I'll give Him glory.

8. Those beautiful fields of living green,
Through faith, the telescope, are seen
Though Jordan's billows roll between,
We soon shall cross the narrow stream,
And then we'll give Him glory.

9. A few more days of pain and wo,
A few more suff'ring scenes below;
And then to Jesus we shall go,
Where everlasting pleasures flow,
And there we'll give Him glory.

The musical score consists of four staves. The first three staves are in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 6/8 time signature. The fourth staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The music is a single melodic line with a steady eighth-note accompaniment.

1. Come, saints and sinners, hear me tell, The wonders of Emmanuel, Who saved me from a burning hell, And brought my soul with him to dwell,
 And gave me heavenly union.

2. When Jesus saw me from on high,
 Beheld my soul in ruin lie,
 He look'd on me with pitying eye,
 And said to me as he pass'd by,
 "With God you have no union."

3. Then I began to weep and cry,
 I look'd this way and that to fly;
 It grieved me so that I must die;
 I strove salvation then to buy,
 But still I had no union.

4. But when I hated all my sin,
 My dear Redeemer took me in,
 And with his blood he wash'd me clean;
 And Oh! what seasons I have seen,
 Since first I felt this union.

5. I praised the Lord both night and day,
 And went from house to house to pray;
 And if I met one on the way,
 I something always found to say
 About this heavenly union.

6. I wonder why the saints don't sing,
 And mount on faith's triumphant wing,
 And make the heav'nly arches ring
 With loud hosannas to their King,
 Who brought their souls to union.

7. Oh! come, backsliders, come away,
 And learn to do as well as say,
 And learn to watch as well as pray,
 And bear your cross from day to day,
 And then you'll feel this union.

8. We soon shall leave all things below,
 And quit these climes of pain and wo;
 And then we'll all to glory go,
 Where we shall see, and hear, and know,
 And feel a perfect union.

9. Come, heav'n and earth, unite your lays,
 And give to Jesus endless praise;
 And Oh! my soul, with wonder gaze!
 He bleeds, he dies, your debt he pays,
 To give you heav'nly union.

10. Oh! could I, like an angel, sound
 Salvation through the earth around,
 The Devil's kingdom to confound!
 I'd triumph on Emmanuel's ground,
 And spread this glorious union.

WONDROUS LOVE. 12s & 9s, or 6s & 9s.

CHRISTOPHER.

1. What wondrous love is this, O my soul! O my soul!
 What wondrous, &c. O my soul!

What wondrous love is this That caused the Lord of bliss
 To bear the dreadful curse, For my soul, for my soul, To bear the dreadful curse, for my soul.

2. When I was sinking down,
 Sinking down, sinking down;
 When I was sinking down,
 Beneath God's righteous frown,
 Christ laid aside his crown,
 For my soul, for my soul,
 Christ laid aside his crown, for my soul.

3. Ye winged seraphs, fly!
 Bear the news! bear the news!
 Ye winged seraphs fly! bear the news!
 Ye winged seraphs, fly,
 Like comets through the sky,
 Fill vast eternity
 With the news, with the news,
 Fill vast eternity with the news!

4. To God, and to the Lamb,
 I will sing, I will sing,
 To God, and to the Lamb, I will sing;
 To God, and to the Lamb,
 Unto the great I AM,
 While millions join the theme,
 I will sing, I will sing,
 While millions join the theme, I will sing.

5. Come, friends of Zion's King,
 Join the praise, join the praise,
 Come, friends of Zion's King, join the praise!
 Come, friends of Zion's King,
 With hearts and voices sing,
 And strike each tuneful string,
 In his praise, in his praise,
 And strike each tuneful string in his praise!

6. And when from death we're free,
 We'll sing on, we'll sing on,
 And when from death we're free, we'll sing on;
 And when from death we're free,
 We'll sing, and joyful be,
 And through eternity
 We'll sing on, we'll sing on,
 And through eternity we'll sing on.

7. Yes, when to that bright world
 We arise, we arise,
 Yes, when to that bright world we arise—
 When to that world we go,
 Free from all pain and wo,
 We'll join the happy throng,
 And sing on, and sing on,
 We'll join the happy throng, and sing on.

1. Dark and thorny is the desert,
Thro' which pilgrims make their way;

But beyond this vale of sorrows Lie the fields of endless day.
Fiends loud howling thro' the desert, Make them tremble as they go;
And the fiery darts of Sa-tan, Often bring their courage low.

2. O young soldiers, are you weary
Of the troubles of the way?
Does your strength begin to fail you,
And your vigor to decay?
Jesus, Jesus, will go with you,
He will lead you to his throne;
He who dyed his garments for you,
And the wine-press trod alone.

3. He whose thunder shakes creation,
He who bids the planets roll;
He who rides upon the tempest,
And whose sceptre sways the whole.
Round him are ten thousand angels,
Ready to obey command;
They are always hovering round you,
Till you reach the heavenly land.

4. There on flow'ry hills of pleasure,
In the fields of endless rest,
Love, and joy, and peace shall ever
Reign and triumph in your breast.
Who can paint those scenes of glory,
Where the ransom'd dwell on high?
Where the golden harps for ever
Sound redemption through the sky?

5. Millions there of flaming seraphs
Fly across the heavenly plain;
There they sing immortal praises—
Glory! glory! is their strain:
But methinks a sweeter concert
Makes the heavenly arches ring,
And a song is heard in Zion
Which the angels cannot sing.

6. See the heav'nly host, in rapture,
Gazing on this shining band;
Wond'ring at their costly garments,
And the laurels in their hands!
There, upon the golden pavement,
See the ransom'd march along!
While the splendid courts of glory
Sweetly echo to their song.

7. Oh their crowns, how bright they sparkle!
Such as monarchs never wore;
They are gone to heavenly pastures,
Jesus is their shepherd there.
Hail, ye happy, happy spirits!
Welcome to the blissful plain!
Glory, honor, and salvation!
Reign, sweet Shepherd, ever reign!

1. Come sound his praise abroad, And hymns of glo - ry sing: Je - ho - vah is the sov' - reign Lord, The u - ni - ver - sal King.

2. He form'd the deeps unknown, He gave the seas their bound; The watery worlds are all his own, And all the sol - id ground.

3. Come, wor - ship at his throne; Come, bow be - fore the Lord; We are his works, and not our own, He form'd us by his word.

4. To - day at - tend his voice, Nor dare pro - voke his rod, Come, like the peo - ple of his choice, And own your gra - cious God.

CODA, to be sung or omitted at will.

Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Praise ye the Lord.

Praise ye the Lord, Praise ye the Lord,

LONGSTREET. 8s, 7s & 5s.

From "Templi Carmina."

237

Some sweet savor of Thy fa-vor
Shed abroad in ev'-ry heart;

Heav'nward as to thee we go,
Leaving all our guilt be-low;

"Blessing, praising without ceasing,"
Bid us, Lord, depart!

PILGRIM'S PRAYER. 8s, 4s & 7s.

Treble and Alto by Wm. HOUSER.

1. Guide me, O thou great Je-ho-vah! Pil-grim thro' this bar-ren land: } Bread of heav-en! Feed me till I want no more.
I am weak, but thou art might-y, Hold me in thy pow'r-ful hand. }

2. O-pen now the crys-tal foun-tain, Whence the heal-ing streams do flow: } Strong De-liv'-rer! Be thou still my strength and shield.
Let the fi-rey, cloud-y pil-lar, Lead me all my jour-ney through. }

1. If life's pleasures charm thee, Give them not thy heart, Lest the gift en - snare thee, From thy God to part; His fa - vor seek, his praises speak, Fix

2. If dis-tress be - fall thee, Pain-ful though it be, Let not grief ap - pal thee— To thy Sa-viour flee: He, ev - er near, thy prayer will hear, And

3. When earth's prospects fail thee, Let it not dis - tress; Bet-ter comforts wait thee— Christ will free-ly bless; To Je - sus flee—thy prop he'll be, Thy here thy hope's foun - dation; Serve him, and he will ev - er be The Rock of thy sal - va - tion!

calm thy per - tur - ba-tion; The waves of wo shall ne'er o'erflow The Rock of thy sal - va - tion!

heav'nly con - so - la-tion; For griefs be - low can - not o'erthrow The Rock of thy sal - va - tion!

4. Dangers may approach thee—
Let them not alarm;
Christ will ever watch thee,
And protect from harm;
He near thee stands, with mighty hands,
To ward off each temptation:
To Jesus fly,—he's ever nigh,
The Rock of thy Salvation!
5. Let not death alarm thee,
Shrink not from his blow;
For thy God shall arm thee,
And victory bestow;
For death shall bring to thee no sting,
The grave no desolation:
'Tis gain to die, with Jesus nigh,
The Rock of thy salvation!

1. Praise to God the great Cre - a - tor, Praise to God from ev' - ry tongue! Join my soul with ev' - ry creature, Join the u - ni - ver - sal song, Join the u - ni - ver - sal song.

2. Fa - ther! source of all com - pas - sion, Pure unbounded grace is thine:—Hail the God of our sal - va - tion, Praise him for his love di - vine, Praise him for his love di - vine.

3. Joy - ful - ly on earth a - dore him, Till in heav'n our song we raise; Then en - raptur'd fall be - fore him, Lost in won - der love and praise, Lost in won - der, love, and praise.

4. Praise to God, the great Cre - a - tor, Father, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost! Praise him ev'ry liv - ing creature, Earth and heav'n's united host, Earth and heav'n's u - ni - ted host.

CHEERFUL HOPE. 7s & 6s.

1. Tho' hard the winds are blow - ing, And loud the bil - lows roar; Full swift - ly we are go - ing To our dear na - tive shore.
2. The bil - lows breaking o'er us, The storms that round us swell, Are aid - ing to re - store us To all we lov'd so well.

3. So sor - row oft - en press - es Life's mar - i - ner a - long; Af - flic - tions and dis - tress - es Are gales and bil - lows strong.
4. The sharp - er and se - ver - er The storms of life we meet, The soon - er and the near - er Is heav'n's e - ter - nal seat.

5. Come then, af - flic - tions drea - ry; Sharp sick - ness pierce my breast; You on - ly bear the wea - ry More quick - ly home to rest.

1. Mix-tures of joy and sor-row I dai-ly do pass thro', }
 Sometimes I'm in the val-ley, } Some-times I am ex - alt-ed, On eagles' wings I fly, I rise a-bove my troubles, And hope to reach the sky.
 And sinking down with wo!

 Sometimes I'm full of doubting,
 And fear I have no grace;
 Sometimes I'm full of praising,
 When Christ reveals his face;
 Sometimes my hope's so little,
 I think I'll throw it by;
 Sometimes it seems sufficient,
 If I were call'd to die.

3.
 Sometimes I shun the Christian,
 Lest he should talk to me;
 Sometimes he is the neighbor
 I long the most to see;
 Sometimes we meet together,
 The season's dry and dull;
 Sometimes we find a blessing—
 With joy it fills my soul.

4.
 Sometimes I am oppressed
 By Pharaoh's cruel hand;
 Sometimes I look o'er Jordan,
 And view the promis'd land!
 Sometimes I am in darkness;
 Sometimes I'm in the light,
 And then my soul is winged,
 And upward speeds its flight.

5.
 Sometimes I travel mourning
 Down Babel's ancient stream;
 Sometimes my Lord's religion
 Appears my only theme:
 Sometimes, when I am praying,
 It seems almost a task;
 Sometimes I find a blessing,
 The greatest I can ask.

6.
 Sometimes I read my Bible,
 And 'tis a sealed book;
 Sometimes I find a blessing
 Where'er therein I look;
 Sometimes I go to meeting,
 And wish myself at home;
 Sometimes I find my Saviour,
 And then I'm glad I'm come.

7.
 Lord, why am I thus tossed,
 Thus tossed to and fro?
 Why are my hopes thus crossed,
 Where'er I'm call'd to go?
 O Lord, thou never changest—
 And 'tis because I stray;
 O grant me thine assistance,
 And keep me in the way!

8.
 O may thy counsels guide me,
 And keep me while I live;
 In death be thou my portion,
 And then my soul receive,
 To praise my blessed Saviour,
 And magnify his grace,
 Bestow'd on such a sinner,
 The chief of all the race.

9.
 There, with the holy angels
 That stand around the throne,
 And saints of ev'ry nation,
 Our voices join'd in one,
 We'll sound aloud the praises
 Of our Redeemer God,
 Who saved us by his sorrows,
 And wash'd us in his blood.

1. My soul's full of glo-ry,
 Which inspires my tongue;
 Could I meet with an-gels, I'd sing them a song. } I'd sing of my Je-sus, And tell of his charms, And beg them to bear me To his lov-ing arms.

1.
 My soul's full of glory,
 Which inspires my tongue;
 Could I meet with angels,
 I'd sing them a song:
 I'd sing of my Jesus,
 And tell of his charms,
 And beg them to bear me
 To his loving arms.

2.
 Methinks they're descending
 To hear while I sing—
 Well pleased to hear mortals
 Sing praise to their King.
 O angels! O angels!
 My soul's in a flame!
 I sink in sweet raptures
 At Jesus's name.

3.
 O Jesus! O Jesus!
 Thou balm of my soul!
 'Twas thee, my dear Saviour,
 That made my heart whole:
 O, bring me to view thee,
 Thou precious, sweet King,
 In oceans of glory
 Thy praises to sing!

4.
 O heaven! sweet heaven!
 I long to be there,
 To meet all my brethren,
 And Jesus, my dear!
 Come, angels! come, angels!
 I'm ready to fly!
 Come, quickly convey me
 To God in the sky!

5.
 Sweet spirits, attend me,
 Till Jesus shall come;
 Protect and defend me
 Till I am call'd home!
 Though worms my poor body
 May claim as their prey,
 I'll outshine, when rising,
 The sun at mid-day.

6.
 The sun may be darken'd,
 The moon turn'd to blood,
 The mountains may melt at
 The presence of God—
 Red lightnings may blaze, and Loud thunders may roar—
 All this cannot daunt me
 On Canaan's bright shore.

7.
 A glimpse of bright glory
 O'erpowers my soul:
 I sink in sweet vision
 To view the bright goal;
 My soul, while I'm singing,
 Is leaping to go;
 This moment, for heaven,
 I'd leave all below.

8.
 Farewell, my dear brethren,
 My Lord bids me come;
 Farewell, my dear children,
 I'm now going home:
 Bright angels are whisp'ring
 So sweet in my ear,
 "Away to the Saviour
 Thy spirit we'll bear!"

CHORUS.

1. Farewell, my Christian brethren, Farewell, my, &c. Farewell, &c. I'm going home to God, } I'm on my way to Zi - on, I'm on my, &c. I'm
 To see my blessed Je-sus, To see, &c. To see, &c. Who bought me with his blood. }

2. There I will sit and praise him, There I, &c. There I, &c. A crown he's bought for me ; } I'm on my way, &c.
 And sing the song of Mo-ses, And sing, &c. And sing, &c. To all e - ter - ni - ty. }

NEW HOPE. S. M.

on my way to Zi-on, To the New Je-ru-sa-lem.

1. Come, ye that love the Lord, And let your joys be known, While ye surround the throne.
 Join in a song with sweet accord,

2. Let those refuse to sing, Who never knew our God ; But servants of the heav'nly King May speak their joys abroad.

To the, &c.

1. My God, my life, my love, To thee, to thee I call; I cannot live if thou remove, For thou art all in all. I can - not live if thou remove, For thou art all in all.

2. Thy shining grace can cheer 'Tis Paradise when thou art here, 'Tis Par - a - dise if thou art here, If thou de-part 'tis hell.
 This dungeon where I dwell; If thou depart 'tis hell.

3. The smilings of thy face,
 How amiable they are!
 'Tis heav'n to rest in thine embrace,
 And nowhere else but there.

4. To thee, and thee alone
 The angels owe their bliss;
 They sit around thy gracious throne,
 And dwell where Jesus is.

5. Not all the harps above
 Can make a heav'nly place,
 If God his residence remove,
 Or but conceal his face.

6. Nor earth, nor all the sky,
 Can one delight afford;
 No, not one drop of real joy,
 Without thy presence, Lord.

BLAIRSVILLE. S. M.

Mercer's Cluster.

1. Did Christ o'er sin-ners weep? And shall our cheeks be dry? Let floods of pen - i - ten - tial grief Burst forth from ev - 'ry eye.

2. The Son of God in tears An - gels with won - der see! Be thou as - ton - ish'd, O my soul, He shed those tears for thee!

3. He wept that we might weep: Each sin de-mands a tear; In heav'n a - lone no sin is found, And there's no weep - ing there.

1. Brethren, we have met to worship,
And adore the Lord our God ; } All is vain, unless the Spirit Of the Holy One come down ; Will be shower'd all around.
Will you pray with all your power, } Brethren, pray, and holy manna
While we try to preach the word ? }

HOLY MANNA. 8s & 7s. D.

Arr'd by WM. HOUSER.

D. C.

2. Brethren, see poor sinners round you,
Slumb'ring on the brink of wo ! } See our fathers, see our mothers, And our children sinking down :
Death is coming, hell is moving, Can you bear to let them go ? }

D. C. Brethren, pray, and holy man-na Will be shower'd all around.

3. Brethren, here are poor backsliders,
Who were once near heaven's door ;
But they have betray'd their Saviour,
And are worse than e'er before.
Yet the Saviour offers pardon,
If they will lament their wound ;
Brethren, pray, and holy manna
Will be shower'd all around.
4. Sisters, will you join and help us ?
Moses' sister aided him ;
Will you help the trembling mourners,
Who are struggling hard with sin ?
Tell them all about the Saviour ;
Tell them that he will be found ;
Sisters, pray, and holy manna
Will be shower'd all around.
5. Let us love our God supremely,
Let us love each other, too ;
Let us love and pray for sinners,
Till our God makes all things new ;
Then he'll call us home to heav'n ;
At his table we'll sit down ;
Christ will gird himself, and serve us
With sweet manna all around.

1. How pleased and bless'd was I
To hear the peo-ple cry,
"Come, let us seek our God to - day!" Yes, with a cheerful zeal We'll haste to Zion's hill,
And there our vows and honors pay.

2. Zion, thrice happy place, Adorn'd with wond'rous grace,
And walls of strength embrace thee round;
In thee our tribes appear, To pray, and praise, and hear
The sacred gospel's joyful sound.

3. There David's greater Son
Has fix'd his royal throne;
He sits for grace and judgment there;
He bids the saints be glad,
He makes the sinner sad,
And humble souls rejoice with fear.

4. May peace attend thy gate,
And joy within thee wait,
To bless the soul of ev'ry guest:
The man that seeks thy peace,
And wishes thine increase,
A thousand blessings on him rest:

5. My tongue repeats her vows,
"Peace to this sacred house!"
For here my friends and kindred dwell.
And since my glorious God
Makes thee his bless'd abode,
My soul shall ever love thee well.

VOLUSIA. S. M.

Slow and Smooth

Oh! cease, my wand'ring soul, On rest-less wing to roam;
All this wide world, to eith-er pole, Has not for thee a home.

My tongue repeats her vows, For here my friends and kindred dwell; And since my glorious God My soul shall ev - er

1. Our days are as the grass, When blasting winds sweep o'er the field,
 Or like the morning flower; It withers in an hour.

2. The pi-ty of the Lord To those that fear his name, Is such as tender parents feel; He knows our feeble frame.

3. But thy compassions, Lord, And children's children ever find
 To endless years endure; Thy words of promise sure.

NUREMBURG. 6 lines, 7s.

BOUNDING BILLOWS. 8s & 7s.

1. Light of those whose dreary dwelling Come, and by thy love re-vealing, Dis - sipate the clouds be - neath.
Borders on the shades of death, Come, and by thy love re - veal - ing,

2. The new heav'n and earth's Creator, Scatt'ring all the night of na - ture, Pouring sight up - on our eyes.
On our deepest dark - ness rise, Scatt'ring all the night of na - ture,

3. Still we wait for thine appearing; Life and joy thy beams im - part, Chasing all our fears, and cheering, Chasing all our fears, and cheering Ev'ry poor be - night - ed heart.

Blest land of Ju-dea! thrice hal-low'd of song, Where the ho-liest of mem-o-ries, pilgrim-like, throng; In the shade of thy palms, by the shores of thy sea, On the hills of thy beauty my heart is with thee.

10. I tread where the twelve in their wayfaring trod,
I stand where they stood with the CHOSEN of God!
Where his blessing was heard, and his lessons were taught,
Where the blind were restored and the healing was wrought.

2. With the eye of a spirit, I look on that shore
Where pilgrim and prophet have linger'd before;
With the glide of a spirit I traverse the sod,
Made bright by the steps of the angels of God.

3. Blue sea of the hills! in my spirit I hear
Thy waters, Gennesaret, chime on my ear!
Where the Lowly and Just with the people sat down,
And thy spray on the dust of his sandals was thrown.

4. Beyond are Bethulia's mountains of green,
And the desolate hills of the wild Gadarene,—
And I pause on the goat-crag of Tabor to see
The gleam of thy waters, O dark Galilee!

5. Hark! a sound in the valleys, where swollen and strong,
Thy river, O Kishon! is sweeping along;
Where the Canaanite strove with Jehovah in vain,
And thy torrent grew dark with the blood of the slain.

6. There, down from the mountains stern Zebulon came,
And Naphtali's stag with his eye-balls of flame;
And the chariots of Jabin roll'd harmlessly on,
For the arm of the Lord was Abinoam's son.

7. There sleep the still rocks and the caverns which rang,
To the song which the beautiful prophetess sang;
When the princes of Issachar stood by her side,
And the shout of a host in its triumph replied.

8. Lo! Bethlehem's hill-site before me is seen
With the mountains around and the valleys between;
There rested the shepherds of Judah; and there
The song of the angels rose sweet on the air.

These hills he toil'd over in grief are the same;—
The founts where he drank by the way-side still flow,
And the same airs are blowing which breath'd on his brow.

My precious friends in Christ;
He sends his welcome summons
To call me home to rest;
I tread the dark, lone valley

And cares beneath the sun:
No more shall sin molest thee;
The world no more control;—
Go, praise the Lamb who blest thee,
Whose love shall fill thy soul."

5. Farewell! dear fellow-lab'ers!
O live for Christ and heaven!
Toil on for this kind Saviour,
Whose life for you was given;
Bring back blind, rebel mortals,
Our Sovereign to obey;
And guide them to the portals
Of heav'n's eternal day.

THE BEAUTIFUL LAND AND ITS SENTRY.

By THOMAS MACKELLAR.

glo-ry in the pros-pect of ri-sing from the tomb.

1. There is a land immortal—
The beautiful of lands ;—
Beside its ancient portal
A sentry grimly stands :
He only can undo it,
And open wide the door ;
And mortals who pass through it
Are mortal never more.

2. That glorious land is heaven,
And death the sentry grim ;
The Lord thereof has given
The opening keys to him ;
And ransom'd spirits sighing
And sorrowful for sin,
Pass through the gate in dying,
And freely enter in.

3. Though dark and drear the passage
That leadeth to the gate,
Yet grace attends the message
To souls that watch and wait ;
And at the time appointed,
A messenger comes down,
And guides the Lord's anointed
From cross to glory's crown.

4. There sighs are lost in singing,
They're blessed in their tears ;
Their journey heavenward winging
They leave on earth their fears.
Death like an angel seeming,
" We welcome thee ! " they cry :
Their face with glory gleaming,
'Tis life for them to die.

1. The cha-riot! the cha-riot! its wheels roll in fire, As the Lord com-eth down in the pomp of his ire! Lo! self-mov-ing, it drives on its pathway of cloud, And the heav'ns with the bur-den of Godhead are bow'd.

2. The glory! the glory! around him are pour'd
Mighty hosts of the angels that wait on their Lord;
And the glorified saints, and the martyrs are there,
And there all who the palm wreaths of victory wear.
3. The trumpet! the trumpet! the dead have all heard,
Lo! the depths of the stone-cover'd charnels are stirr'd;
From the sea, from the earth, from the south, from the north,
All the vast generations of man are come forth.
4. The judgment! the judgment! the thrones are all set,
Where the Lamb and the white-vested elders are met:
There all flesh is at once in the sight of the Lord,
And the doom of eternity hangs on his word.
5. O mercy! O mercy! look down from above,
Great Creator, on us, thy sad children, with love;
When beneath to their darkness the wicked are driv'n,
May our justified souls find a welcome in heav'n.

 But we have such witness that God hears with swiftness,

 Who witness'd that God heard them pray;
 There was Hannah and Samuel, Paul, Silas and Peter,
 And Daniel and Jonah, we'll say.

4. With grief and great vexation,
Her mother straight did go,
T' inform the Roman clergy
The cause of all her wo :
The priests were soon assembled,
And for the maid did call,
And forced her in the dungeon,
To fright her soul withal.

5. The more they strove to fright her,
The more she did endure ;
Although her age was tender,
Her faith was strong and sure.
The chains of gold so costly,
They from this lady took,
And she, with all her spirits,
The pride of life forsook.

6. Before the Pope they brought her,
In hopes of her return,
And there she was condemn'd
In horrid flames to burn.
Before the place of torment
They brought her speedily :
With lifted hands to heaven,
She then agreed to die.

7. There being many ladies
Assembled at the place,
She raised her eyes to heaven,
And begg'd supplying grace :
" Weep not, ye tender ladies,
Shed not a tear for me,
While my poor body's burning,
My soul the Lord shall see.

8. " Yourselves you need to pity,
And Zion's deep decay ;
Dear ladies, turn to Jesus,
No longer make delay."
In comes her raving mother,
Her daughter to behold,
And in her hand she brought her
The pictures deck'd with gold.

9. " O take from me these idols,
Remove them from my sight ;
Restore to me my Bible,
Wherein I take delight !—
Alas ! my aged mother,
Why on my ruin bent ?
'Twas you that did betray me,
But I am innocent.

10. " Tormentors, use your pleasure,
And do as you think best ;
I hope my blessed Jesus
Will take my soul to rest."
Soon as these words were spoken,
Up steps the man of death,
And kindled up the fire
To stop her mortal breath.

11. Instead of golden bracelets,
With chains they bound her fast ;
She cried, " My God, give power,
Now must I die at last ?
With Jesus and his angels,
For ever I shall dwell ;
God pardon priest and people,
And so I bid farewell."

The musical score consists of three staves. The top two staves are in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of 3/2. The bottom staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes. Each staff ends with a double bar line and a 'D.C.' (Da Capo) instruction.

1. Young peo-ple, all, now at the ball,* As one that loves you dearly, }
 On you I call to humbly fall, And sue for par - don early; } For civ-il mirth practised on earth, Will sink your souls to ruin;
 D. C. You bring a dearth on souls of worth, While such a course pur-su-ing.

2. But if you act as mortals should,
 Christ's promise you may merit,
 As he hath said, (and he is good,)
 The kingdom you'll inherit.
 Sad is the state of mortals' fate,
 That leave God's way untrodden;
 And pain and wo you soon will know,
 When glee and mirth's forgotten.

3. Where darkness reigns and souls remain
 Through ages never-ceasing,
 You'll have no claim to Jesus' name,
 Your pains and woes increasing.
 But oft thy people, dearest Lord,
 Are mourning o'er poor sinners,
 And often pray, that by thy word
 Their souls might be the winners.

4. And, O dear Lord! wilt thou bestow,
 On all thy dear believers,
 A heart of wo, for all who know
 Themselves are unbelievers:
 And when they pray, Lord help them feel
 The worth of sinners' cases,
 That in thy presence they may kneel
 And seek for all thy graces.

5. Show them, dear Lord, 'tis thro' thy Son
 That pardon thou hast given,
 And all who call upon that One
 May find the way to heaven:
 The way is narrow, like the grave,
 Yet sinners may discover
 That Christ the Lord alone can save
 The soul that passes over.

6. And when such souls redemption find
 Through Christ the Mediator,
 They feel from then by love inclined
 To praise the great Creator.
 Now sinners all again I call,
 Pray, warning take this moment,
 For fear you call too late, and fall
 In keen despair and torment.

* "The above song was composed by B. F. Davis, upon being invited to a ball, and while his companions were engaged in dancing. As he fell a victim to bilious fever in the midst of youth and usefulness, it would be a source of great gratification to me, as well as to a numerous and influential connection both in Georgia and Alabama, for them to appear entire in the Hesperian Harp."

The above is the note of E. K. Davis of Cedar Bluff, Ala., accompanying a copy of this song and tune, which he sent me. W. H.

2. I feast on honey, milk, and wine,
 I drink perpetual sweetness:
 Mount Zion's beauties round me shine,
 While Christ unfolds his glory!
 No mortal tongue can show my joys,
 Nor can an angel tell them,
 Ten thousand times surpassing all
 Terrestrial worlds and emblems.

3. My captivated spirit flies
 Through shining worlds of beauty ;
 Dissolved in blushes, loud I cry,
 In praises loud and mighty.
 And here I'll sing, and swell the strain,
 Of harmony delighted,
 And with the millions learn the notes
 Of saints in Christ united.

ject was for-sa-ken, For these lov'd halls of lit'-ra - ture.

2. How sweet, while yet the bell was ringing,
To meet all faces beaming there!—
To join in that melodious singing—
To listen to that humble prayer.
How sweet! in hours of recitation
To hang upon instruction's voice!—
To hear the full, plain demonstration,
The proof, in words of happy choice.

3. But all is past—the scene is ending ;
To part with each it gives us pain ;
Our joys, our hopes, our fears are blending,
Oh ! shall we ever meet again ?
These kind instructors, ever bearing
With all our faults, we too must leave—
In our esteem you all are sharing ;
Our grateful, heartfelt thanks receive.

4. We oft will ask in our devotions
That Jesus in your hearts may dwell :
And now with tender, sad emotions,
We bid you, honor'd ones, farewell !
Hope whispers future scenes of pleasure :
These teachers, students all may meet
In heaven—all may have a treasure,
And worship at Emmanuel's feet.

3. Now I will serve him while he spares me,

 In rapt'rous songs I'll praise my God.
 By faith I view the heav'nly concert—
 They sing high strains of Jesus' love:
 O with desire my soul is longing,
 And fain would be with Christ above.

4. That blessed day is fast approaching
 When Christ in glorious clouds shall come,
 With sounding trumps and shouts of angels,
 To call each faithful spirit home;
 There Abra'm, Isaac, holy prophets,
 And all the saints at God's right hand—
 There holy angels, join'd in concert,
 Shout as they reach the heav'nly land.

4. For when age steals on me and youth is no more,
And the moralist, Time, shakes his glass at my door;
What pleasure in beauty or wealth can I find?
My beauty, my wealth is a sweet peace of mind.
5. That peace, (I'll preserve it as pure as 'twas giv'n,)
Shall last in my bosom an earnest of heav'n;
For virtue and wisdom can warm the cold scene,
And sixty can flourish as gay as sixteen.
6. And when I the burden of life shall have borne,

Re-ascend to my God without murmur or sigh;
I'll bless the kind summons and lie down and die.

11s.

Musical score for 'MORALITY' in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. It consists of two systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The lyrics are:

Bass and Treble by WM. HOUSER.

Musical score for 'RALEIGH' in D major (two sharps) and 2/4 time. It consists of two systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The lyrics are:

To go from my home, and from kindred to part—
 To break up my friendships affects not my heart,
 Like leaving that holy and blissful place, where
 Jehovah has heard and has answer'd my prayer.

Shall Israel's sons a song of Zion raise?
O hapless Salem, God's terrestrial throne,
Thou land of glory, sacred mount of praise!

5. If e'er my mem'ry loose thy lovely name,
If my cold heart neglect thy kindred race,

With love and thanksgiving, fall down at thy feet; } To thee, my Re-deemer, my Lord,

2. I love thee, I love thee, I love thee, my Lord;
I love thee, my Saviour, and trust in thy word;
I love thee, I love thee, and that thou dost know;
But how much I love thee, I never can show!

3. I'm happy, I'm happy, O wondrous account!
My joys are immortal, I stand on the mount;
I gaze on my treasure, and long to be there,
With angels my kindred, and Jesus my dear.

4. O Jesus, my Saviour! in thee I am blest;
My life and my treasure, my joy and my rest;
Thy grace be my theme, and thy name be my song,
Thy love doth inspire both my heart and my tongue.

1. O tell me no more of this world's vain store,
The time for such trifles with me now is o'er; A country I've found where true joys abound,
To dwell I'm determined on that happy ground.

2. The souls that believe in Paradise live, And me in that number will Jesus receive: My soul, don't delay—he calls thee away, Rise, follow thy Saviour, and bless the glad day.

3. No mortal doth know what he can bestow,
What light, strength, and comfort,—go after him, go;
Lo, onward I move to a city above,
None guesses how wondrous my journey will prove.

4. Great spoils I shall win from death, hell, and sin,
Midst outward afflictions shall feel Christ within;
And when I'm to die, receive me, I'll cry,
For Jesus hath loved me, I cannot tell why.

5. But this I do find, we two are so join'd, He'll not live in glory and leave me behind : Henceforth—till admitted to see my Lord's face.
So this is the race I'm running thro' grace, 1 2

6. And now I'm in care my neighbors may share In bondage, O why, and death will you lie, When one here assures you free grace is so nigh ?
These blessings : to seek them will none of you dare ? 1 2

CHORUS.
Come thou Fount of ev'ry blessing,
Tune my heart to sing thy grace ; }
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise. } Sinners, come unto the Saviour,
Come and see that God is good ; His arms are open to receive you,
Taste and see that God is good.

1. O Thou in whose presence my soul takes delight, On whom in affliction I call, My comfort by day, and my song in the night, My hope, my salvation, my all.

MOUNT BETHER. 11s & 8s.

LEWIS.

2. Where dost thou at noon-tide resort with thy sheep, To feed on the pastures of love? For why, in the val-ley of death should I weep, Or alone in the wilderness rove?

3. O why should I wan-der, an alien from thee, And cry in the desert for bread? Thy foes will rejoice when my sorrows they see, And smile at the tears I have shed.

4. Ye daugh-ters of Zion, declare, have ye seen The star that on Israel shone? Say, if in your tents my beloved has been, And where with his flocks he is gone?

5. This is my beloved, his form is divine,
His vestments shed odors around;
The locks on his head are as grapes on the vine
When autumn with plenty is crown'd

6. The roses of Sharon, the lilies that grow,
In the vales, on the banks of the streams,
On his cheek in the beauty of excellence blow;
And his eyes are as quivers of beams.

7. His voice, as the sound of the dulcimer sweet,
Is heard through the shadow of death—
The cedars of Lebanon bow at his feet,
And the world is perfumed with his breath.

O why should I wan-der an alien from thee, Or cry in the de-sert for bread? }
 My foes will re-joice when my sor-rows they see, And smile at the tears I have shed. } Ye daugh-ters of Zi-on, de-clare have you seen, The star that on Is-ra-el shone: Say if in your tents my be-lov-ed has been, And where with his flocks he is gone?

3. Now gliding remote on the verge of the sky,
 The moon, half extinguish'd, her crescent dis - plays;
 But lately I mark'd when, majestic on high,
 She shone, and the planets were lost in her blaze;
 Roll on, thou fair orb, and with gladness pursue
 The path that conducts thee to splendor again—
 But man's faded glory what change shall renew?
 Ah! fool, to exult in a glory so vain.

4. 'Tis night, and the landscape is lovely no more;
 I mourn, but, ye woodlands, I mourn not for you;
 For morn is approaching your charms to restore,
 Perfumed with fresh fragrance, and glitt'ring with dew:
 Nor yet for the ravage of winter I mourn;
 Kind nature the embryo blossom will save,
 But when shall spring visit the mouldering urn?
 O when shall day dawn on the night of the grave?

5. 'Twas thus, by the glare of false science betray'd,
 That leads to bewilder, and dazzles to blind,
 My thoughts wont to roam from shade onward to shade,
 Destruction before me, and sorrow behind.
 "O pity, great Father of light," then I cried,
 "Thy creature that fain would not wander from thee;
 Lo, humble in dust, I relinquish my pride;
 From doubt and from darkness thou only canst free."

6. And darkness and doubt are now flying away,
 No longer I roam in conjecture forlorn;
 So breaks on the traveller, faint and astray,
 The bright and the balmy effulgence of morn;
 See truth, love, and mercy in triumph descending,
 And nature all glowing in Eden's first bloom!
 On the cold cheek of death, smiles and roses are blending,
 And beauty immortal awakes from the tomb.

5. When it was finish'd, when it was finish'd,
And the atonement was made;
He was taken by the great,
Wrapp'd in linen clean and sweet,
And was in a new sepulchre laid.

6. Hail! mighty Saviour! hail! mighty Saviour!
Prince, and the author of peace!
Oh! he burst the bands of death,
And in triumph left the earth—
He ascended to mansions of bliss.

7. Now interceding, now interceding,
Pleading that sinners may live:
Crying, "Father, I have died,
(O behold my hands and side!)
To redeem them, I pray thee, forgive!"

8. "I will forgive them, I will forgive them,
If they'll repent, and believe;
Let them now return to me,
And be reconciled through thee,
And salvation they all shall receive!"

1. Be - hold! be - hold the Lamb of God! On the cross, on the cross! } Oh! hear his all - im - port - ant cry, "E - li, la - ma sa - - bach - tha - ni;"

2.
Behold his arms extended wide, On the cross, &c.
Behold his bleeding hands and side, On the, &c.
The sun withholds his rays of light,
The heavens are clothed in shades of night,
While Jesus doth with devils fight, On the, &c.

3.
Come, sinners, see him lifted up, On the, &c.
For you he drinks the bitter cup, On the, &c.
The rocks do rend, the mountains quake,
While Jesus doth atonement make,
While Jesus suffers for our sake, On the, &c.

4.
And now the mighty deed is done, On the, &c.
The battle's fought, the victory's won, On the, &c.
To heaven he turns his languid eyes,
" 'Tis finished," now the Conqueror cries,
Then bows his sacred head and dies, On the, &c.

Let every mourner rise and cling, To the &c.
Let every Christian come and sing, Round the &c.
There let the preacher take his stand,
And, with the Bible in his hand,
Declare the triumphs through the land, Of the, &c.

RESTORATION. 10s & 11s.

Ye captives restored, and saints of the Lord,
 Who follow the Lamb, and are led by his word;
 Let's read it, and see if we can a-gree,
 And pray for the Spirit our Leader to be.

CHRISTMAS HYMN. 11s.

A vir-gin, un-spot-ted, the prophets fore-told, }
 Should bring forth a Saviour, whom now we be-hold, }
 To be our Re-deem-er from death, hell, and sin, Which Ad-am's transgres-sion in-volv-ed us in.

1. Sweet the mo-ments, rich in bless-ing, Which be-fore the cross I spend;
 Life and health, and peace pos-sess-ing, From the sin-ner's dy - ing Friend: Here I'll sit, for ev - er view-ing Mercy's streams in streams of blood: Pre-cious drops my soul be-dew-ing, Plead and claim my peace with God.

2. Truly blessed is this station,
 Low before his cross to lie;
 While I see divine compassion
 Floating in his languid eye:
 Here it is I find my heaven,
 While upon the Lamb I gaze:
 Love I much? I've much forgiven—
 I'm a miracle of grace!
3. Love and grief my heart dividing,
 With my tears his feet I'll bathe;
 Constant still in faith abiding,
 Life deriving from his death.
 May I still enjoy this feeling,
 In all need to Jesus go;
 Prove his wounds each day more healing,
 And himself more deeply know.

6. The Prince of salvation is coming—prepare
A way in the desert his blessings to share;
He comes to release us from sin and from woes,
And bids the rude wilderness bloom like the rose.
7. His reign shall extend from the East to the West,
Compose all the tumults of nature to rest;
The Day-spring of glory illumine the skies,
And ages on ages of happiness rise.
8. The brute-hearted temper of man shall grow tame;
The wolf and the lion lie down with the lamb;
The bear and the kine shall contentedly feed,
And children their young ones in harmony lead.

9. No more shall the sound of the war-whoop be heard,

11. Slight tinctures of skin shall no longer engage
The fervor of jealousy, murder, and rage;
The white man and red shall in friendship be join'd,
Wide spreading benevolence over mankind.
12. Hail! scenes of felicity, transport and joy!
When hatred and passion shall cease to annoy;
Rich blessings of grace from above shall be given,
And life only serve as a passage to heav'n.
13. Roll forward, dear Saviour, roll forward the day,
When all shall submit, and rejoice in thy sway;
When white men and Indians, united in praise,
One vast hallelujah, triumphant shall raise.

By the Father's grace bestow'd;
Meanly cloth'd in human nature,
Thee we call the Word of God:
Flesh thy vesture,
Dipp'd in thy own sacred blood.

2. Thine the kingdom, power, and glory;
Thine the ransom'd nations are;
Let the heathen fall before thee,
Let the isles thy power declare:
Judge and conquer
All mankind in righteous war.

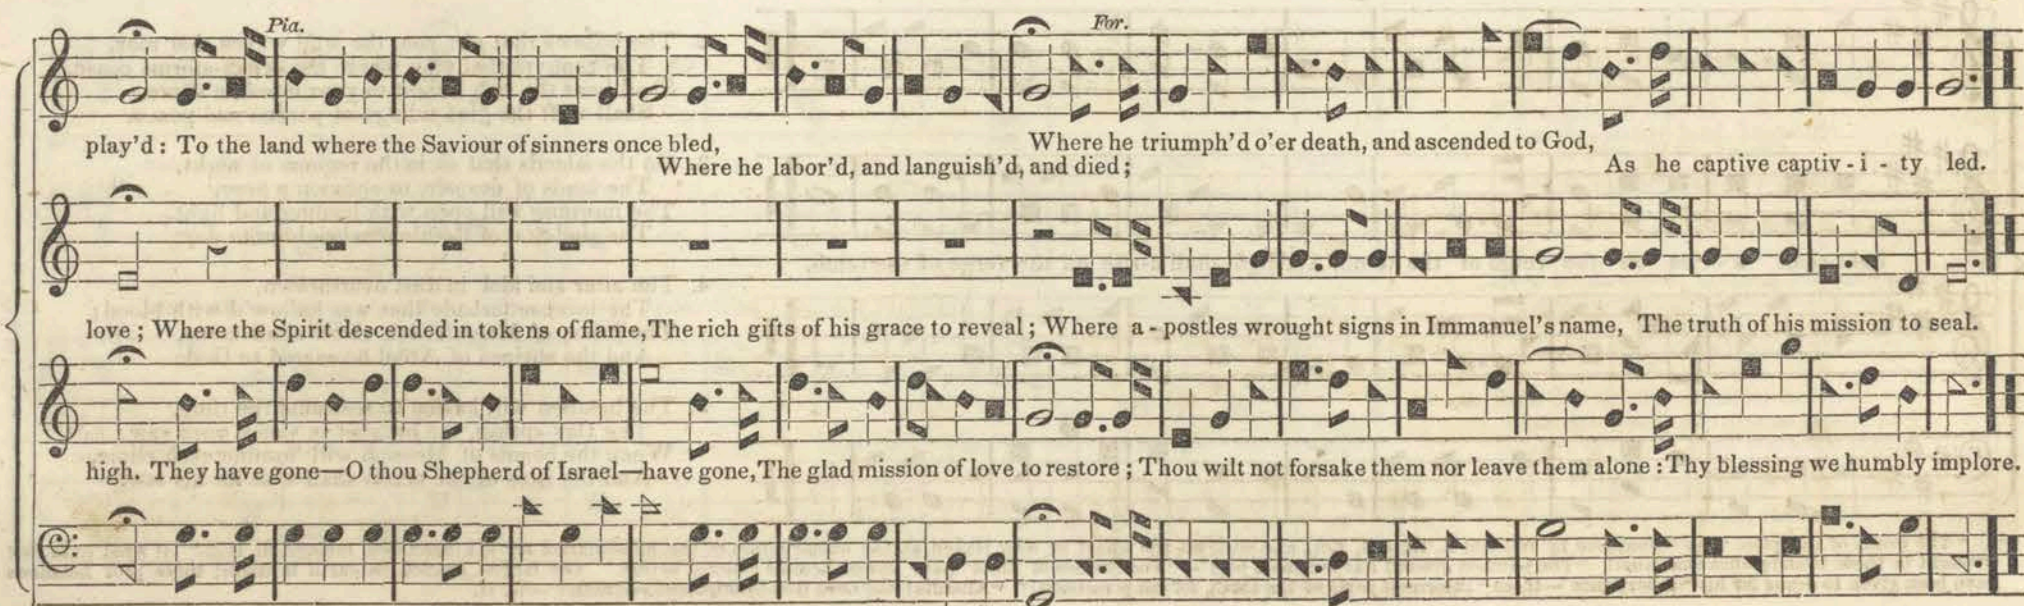

5. Captain, God of our salvation,
Thou who hast the wine-press trod,
Borne th' Almighty's indignation,
Quench'd the fiercest wrath of God,
Take the kingdom,
Claim the purchase of thy blood.

The Day-spring, the prophet in vision once saw;
When the beams of Messiah will 'lumine each clime,
And the isles of the ocean shall wait for his law.

* The words of this piece were "composed by William B. Tappan, Esq., and sung on the wharf at New Haven, at the embarkation of the missionaries for the Sandwich Islands, in 1822." O what hath God wrought in those islands since that time! "The parched ground has become a pool"—"The shrines of Atöol" have indeed become "sacred to God." The largest church on earth is there; those poor heathens have been given to Jesus for his "inheritance"—those "uttermost parts of the earth, for his possession!" "Alleluia! the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth!"—W. H.

"Tell my brethren that I died at my post."—Last words of Rev. Thomas Drummond.

1. A - way from his home and the friends of his youth, He hast-ed, the her - ald of mer-cy and truth: For the love of his Lord, and to seek for the lost; Soon, a-

2. The stranger's eye wept, that in life's brightest bloom, For in or - der he led in the van of the host, And he
One gift - ed so high - ly should sink to the tomb;

las! was his fall—but he died at his post, Soon, a - las! was his fall—but he died at his post.

3. He wept not himself that his warfare was done:
The battle was fought, and the victory won:
But he whisper'd of those whom his heart clung to most,
"Tell my brethren for me that I died at my post."

4. He ask'd not a stone to be sculptured with verse;
He ask'd not that fame should his merits rehearse;
But he ask'd as a boon, when he gave up the ghost,
That his brethren might know that he died at his post.

5. Victorious his fall—for he rose as he fell,
With Jesus, his Master, in glory to dwell;
He has pass'd o'er the stream, and has reach'd the bright coast,
For he fell like a martyr—he died at his post.

6. And can we the words of his exit forget?
Oh, no! they are fresh in our memory yet:
An example so brilliant shall never be lost,
We will fall in the work—we will die at our post.

 Then it doth relieve me;
 But my sins return again—
 They are those that grieve me:

Troubled like the restless sea,
 Feeble, faint, and fearful,
 Plunged in sin—a sore disease,
 How can I be cheerful?"

3. Think on what thy Saviour bore,
 In the gloomy garden,
 Sweating blood from ev'ry pore,
 To procure thy pardon:

See him stretch'd upon the wood,
 Bleeding, groaning, crying,
 Suff'ring all the wrath of God.
 Quiv'ring, gasping, dying.

Come away to the skies, My be-lov-ed, a - rise, And rejoice in the day thou wast born; On this fes - ti - val day, Come, exulting away, And with singing to Zion return.

1. Come friends and relations, let's join hearts and hand, The voice of the turtle is heard in our land; Come, let's join together and fol - low the sound, And march to the place where redemption is found.

2. The place it is hidden, the place it is seal'd,
The place it is hidden till it is reveal'd:
The place is in Jesus, to Jesus we'll go,
And there find redemption from sorrow and wo.

3. That place it is hidden by reason of sin;
Alas! you can't see the sad state you are in!
You're blind and polluted, in prison and pain;
O how can such rebels redemption obtain!

4. But if you are wounded and bruised by the fall,
Then up, and be doing! for you he doth call;
And if you are tempted to doubt and despair,
Then come home to Jesus, redemption is there.

5. And you, my dear brethren, that Love my dear Lord,
Have witness for pardon, thro' faith in his blood;
Let patience attend you wherever you go,
Your Saviour has purchased redemption for you.

1. An alien from God, and a stranger to grace,
I wander'd thro' earth its gay pleasures to trace ;

In the pathway of sin, I continued to roam, Unmindful, a-las ! that it led me from home.

Home, home, sweet, sweet home ! O Saviour, direct me to heaven my home.

2. The pleasures of earth, I have seen fade away,
They bloom for a season, but soon they decay ;
But pleasures more lasting, in Jesus are giv'n,
Salvation on earth, and a mansion in heav'n.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home !
The saints in those mansions are ever at home.

3. Allure me no longer, ye false glowing charms !
The Saviour invites me, I'll go to his arms :
At the banquet of mercy, I hear there is room,
O there may I feast with his children at home.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home !
O Jesus, conduct me to heaven my home.

4. Farewell, vain amusements, my follies adieu,
While Jesus, and heaven, and glory, I view ;
I feast on the pleasures that flow from his throne,
The foretaste of heaven, sweet heaven, my home.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home !
O when shall I share the fruition of home.

5. The days of my exile are passing away,
The time is approaching, when Jesus will say,
" Well done, faithful servant, sit down on my throne,
And dwell in my presence for ever at home."
Home, home, sweet, sweet home !
O there I shall rest with my Saviour at home.

6. Affliction, and sorrow, and death shall be o'er ;
The saints shall unite to be parted no more ;
There loud hallelujahs fill heaven's high dome,
They dwell with the Saviour for ever at home.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home !
They dwell with the Saviour for ever at home.

3. And now Christ is ready your souls to receive,
Oh how can you question, if you will believe?
If sin is your burden, why will you not come?
'Tis you he bids welcome; he bids you come home.
4. In riches, in pleasures, what can you obtain
To soothe your affliction, or banish your pain?
To bear up your spirit when summon'd to die,
Or waft you to mansions of glory on high?
5. Why will you be starving and feeding on air?
There's mercy in Jesus, enough and to spare;—
If still you are doubting, make trial, and see,
And prove that his mercy is boundless and free.
6. Come, give us your hand, and the Saviour your heart,
And, trusting in heaven, we never shall part;
O how can we leave you? why will you not come?
We'll journey together and soon be at home.

THE RESOLVE. 6s & 7s.

1. I'll try to prove faithful, I'll try, &c. I'll try to prove faithful, faithful, faithful, Till we all shall meet above.

2. Oh, let us prove faithful! Oh, let, &c. Oh let us prove faithful, faithful, faithful, Till we all shall meet above.

3. We mean to be faithful, We mean, &c. We mean to be faithful, faithful, faithful, Till we all shall meet above.

4. There'll be no more sinning,
There'll be no more sinning,
There'll be no more sinning, sinning, sinning,
When we all shall meet above.

5. There'll be no more sorrow,
There'll be no more sorrow,
There'll be no more sorrow, sorrow, sorrow,
When we all shall meet above.

6. There we shall see Jesus,
There we shall see Jesus,
There we shall see Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,
When we all shall meet above.

7. There we shall sing praises,
There we shall sing praises,
There we shall sing praises, praises, praises,
When we all shall meet above.

3. The everlasting gospel
 Hath launch'd the deep at last;
 Behold the sails expanded
 Along the tow'ring mast!
 Along the deck in order;
 The joyful sailors stand,
 Crying, "Ho! here we go,
 To Immanuel's happy land."

4. We're now on the wide ocean,
 We bid the world farewell;
 And though where we shall anchor
 No mortal tongue can tell.
 About our fate in future,
 There need be no debate,
 While we ride on the tide
 With our Captain and his Mate.

5. To those who are spectators,
 What anguish must ensue,
 To hear their old companions
 Bid them a last adieu!
 The pleasures of your paradise
 No more our hearts invite;
 We will sail—you may rail—
 We shall soon be out of sight.

6. The passengers united
 In order, peace, and love;—
 The wind is in our favor,
 How swiftly do we move!
 Though tempests may assail us,
 And raging billows roar,
 We will sweep thro' the deep,
 Till we reach fair Canaan's shore.

7. No strength of our own, nor goodness, we claim,
 Our trust is all thrown on Jesus's name;
 In this, our strong tower, for safety we hide;
 The Lord is our power, The Lord will provide.
8. When life sinks apace, and death is in view,
 The word of his grace shall comfort us through;
 Not fearing nor doubting, with Christ on our side,
 We hope to die shouting, The Lord will provide.

GOOD PHYSICIAN. 7s & 6s.

Treble by Wm. HOUSER.

1. How lost was my condition,
Till Jesus made me whole!

There is but one physician
Can cure the sin-sick soul.

Next door to death he found me,
And snatch'd me from the grave,

To tell to all a-round me
His wondrous pow'r [to save.]

HARRISON. 7s & 6s.

WALKER and HOUSER.

2. The worst of all diseases
Is light, compared with sin;

On ev'ry part it seizes,
But rages most within:

'Tis palsy, plague, and fever,
And madness all combined;

And none but a believer,
The least relief can find.

3. From men, great skill professing,
I sought a cure to gain,
But this proved more distressing,
And added to my pain.
Some said that nothing ail'd me,
Some gave me up for lost;
Thus ev'ry refuge fail'd me,
And all my hopes were cross'd.

4. At length this great Physician
(How matchless is his grace!)
Accepted my petition,
And undertook my case;
First, gave me sight to view him—
For sin my eyes had seal'd;
Then bade me look unto him—
I look'd, and I was heal'd.

5. A dying, risen Jesus,
Seen by an eye of faith,
At once from anguish frees us,
And saves the soul from death,
Come, then, to this Physician—
His help he'll freely give;
He makes no hard condition,
'Tis only—"Look, and live."

1. Come, children of Zi - on, and help me to sing Loud an-thems of prais - es to Je - sus our King, Whose life was once giv - en our souls to redeem, And bring us to hea - ven to dwell there with him.

2. In regions of darkness, and sorrow, and pains,
We all lay in ruins, in prison and chains;
But Jesus has bought us with his precious blood,
The ransom provided to bring us to God.
3. Oh! come to the Saviour, and take up the cross,
Seek treasure in heaven—count all else but loss;
His mercy invites us—then let us comply;
Oh! why should we linger when he is so nigh?
4. We'll fear not the dangers that lie in our way—
His arm will protect us by night and by day;
All this we must suffer and patiently bear,
Till Jesus shall take us where suff'rings are o'er.

1. Be - gone, un - be - lief, my Sa - viour is near, And for my re - lief will sure - ly ap - pear; By prayer let me wrestle, and he will per - form, With

2. Though dark be my way, since he is my guide,
'Tis mine to obey, 'tis his to provide;
Though cisterns be broken, and creatures all fail,
The word he has spoken shall surely prevail.
3. His love in time past forbids me to think
He'll leave me at last, in trouble to sink;
Each sweet Ebenezer I have in review,
Confirms his good pleasure to bring me quite through.
4. Determined to save, he watch'd o'er my path,
When, Satan's blind slave, I sported with death;
And can he have taught me to trust in his name,
And thus far have brought me, to put me to shame?

5. Why should I complain of want or distress,
Temptation or pain? he taught me no less:
The heirs of salvation, I know from his word,
Through much tribulation must follow their Lord.
6. How bitter the cup, no heart can conceive,
Which he drank quite up, that sinners might live;
His way was much rougher and darker than mine;
Did Christ, my Lord, suffer? and shall I repine?
7. Since all that I meet shall work for my good,
The bitter is sweet, the med'cine is food;
Though painful at present, 'twill cease before long,
And then, Oh! how pleasant the conqueror's song!

Now with sing-ing we praise, The o-rig - i-nal grace, By our hea-ven-ly Fath-er be-stow'd; Our be-ing receive, From his bounty, and live, To the hon-or and glo-ry of God.

SWEET GLIDING KEDRON. 11s.

WM. HOUSER.

305

1. Thou sweet gliding Kedron, by thy silver stream
 Our Saviour at midnight, when moonlight's pale beam
 Shone bright on thy waters, would frequently stray,
 And lose in thy murmurs the toils of the day.

2. How damp were the vapors that fell on his head!
 How hard was his pillow! how humble his bed!
 The angels, astonish'd, grew sad at the sight,
 And follow'd their Master with solemn delight.

3. O garden of Olivet, dear honor'd spot!
 The fame of thy wonder shall ne'er be forgot;
 The theme most transporting to seraphs above,
 The triumph of sorrow, the triumph of love.

4. Come, saints, and adore him; come, bow at his feet!
 Oh, give him the glory, the praise that is meet;
 Let joyful hosannas unceasingly rise,
 And join the full chorus that gladdens the skies.

MORNING'S SWEETNESS. 8s.

 When all in the val - ley is still, And no cloud hangs o-ver the skies; } How tranquil the thoughts of the morn, When dews on the mountains dis - til!

D. C. How sweet and re-fresh-ing the breeze That comes with the earliest gale!

CHORUS.

1. Hail! the blest morn, when the great Mediator, Down from the regions of glory descends! } Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Shepherds, go worship the babe in a manger—Lo! for his guards the bright angels attend! } Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid!

D. C. Star of the east, the ho-ri-zon adorning, Guide where the infant Redeemer is laid.

STAR IN THE EAST. [Another arrangement.]

2. Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining, Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall, } Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Angels adore him, in slumbers reclining, Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all! } Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid!

D. C. Star of the east, the ho-ri-zon adorning, Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

3. Say, shall we yield him a costly devotion,
Odors of Eden, or offerings divine?
Gems from the mountain, or pearls from the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?

4. Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
All these can never his favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

5. Low at his feet, we, in humble prostration,
Lose all our sorrow, and trouble, and strife;
There we receive his divine consolation,
Flowing afresh from the fountain of life.

CODA.

Home, home, sweet, sweet home ! Receive me, dear Saviour, in glory, my home.

2. Sweet bonds that unite all the children of peace,
And thrice precious Jesus, whose love cannot cease ;
Though oft from thy presence in sadness I roam,
I long to behold thee in glory at home.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home ! &c.

3. I sigh, from this body of sin to be free,
Which hinders my joy and communion with thee ;
Though now my temptations like billows may foam,
All, all will be peace when I'm with thee at home.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home ! &c.

4. While here in the valley of conflict I stay,
O give me submission and strength as my day ;
In all my afflictions to thee would I come,
Rejoicing in hope of my glorious home.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home ! &c.

Andante.

5. Ag-o-niz-ing in the gar-den, Lo! your Ma-ker prostrate lies! } "It is fin-ish'd!" "It is finish'd!" Sin-ners, will not this suffice?
 On the blood-y tree be-hold him! Hear him cry, be-fore he dies, }

6. Lo! th'in-car-nate God ascend-ing, Pleads the mer-it of his blood; } None but Je-sus, None but Je-sus Can do help-less sinners good.
 Venture on him, ven-ture free-ly; Let no oth-er trust in-trude: }

7. Saints and an-gels, join'd in con-cert, Sing the prais-es of the Lamb; } Hal-le-lu-jah! Hal-le-lu-jah! Sin-ners here may do the same.
 While the bliss-ful seats of heaven Sweetly ech-o with his name: }

1. In sea-sons of grief to my God I'll re - pair, When my heart is o'erwhelmed in sor-row and care; From the ends of the earth unto Thee will I

2. When Sa-tan, my foe, comes in like a flood, To drive my poor soul from the foun-tain of good, I'll pray to the Saviour who kind-ly did cry, "Lead me to the Rock that is high - er than I!" High - er than I, High - er than I; Lead me to the Rock that is high - er than I!

die: "Lead me to the Rock that is high - er than I!" High - er than I, High - er than I; Lead me to the Rock that is high - er than I!

3. And when I have ended my pilgrimage here,
In Jesus' pure righteousness let me appear:—
From the swellings of Jordan to Thee will I cry:
"Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I!"

4. And when the last trumpet shall sound through the skies,
And the dead from the dust of the earth shall arise,
With millions I'll join, far above yonder sky,
To praise the Great Rock that is higher than I.

IMPRESSIVE HOUR. 6 lines 7s.

1. In this calm, impressive hour, God of mercy, God of power, Hear me from thy lofty throne,
 Let my prayer ascend on high; Hear me, when to thee I cry: For the sake of Christ thy Son.

2. With this morning's early ray, Let thy beams of light convey Now o'er all my steps preside,
 While the shades of night depart, Joy and gladness to my heart; And for all my wants provide.

3. Oh! what joy that word affords, King of kings and Lord of lords, Now begin thy boundless sway,
 "Thou shalt reign o'er all the earth;" Send thy gospel heralds forth; Ush-er in the glo-rious day.

KINGSWOOD. 7s.

Chil - dren of the heav'nly King, As you jour-ney, sweet-ly sing; Sing your Sa-viour's wor - thy praise, Glo - rious in his works and ways.

1. "Mer - cy, O thou Son of Da - vid!" Thus poor blind Bar - tim - eus pray'd; "Oth - ers by thy grace are sa - ved, Now to me af - ford thine aid."

2. While he cri - ed ma - ny chid him, But he pray'd the loud - er still; Till the gra - cious Sav - iour bid him, "Come, and ask me what you will."

3. Mon - ey was not what he want - ed, Though by beg - ging used to live; But he ask'd, and Je - sus grant - ed, Alms which none but he could give.

4. "Lord, remove this griev - ous blind - ness, Let my eyes be - hold the day;" Straight he saw, and, won by kind - ness, Fol - low'd Je - sus in the way.

5. Now, methinks, I hear him singing—
Publishing to all around—
"Friends, is not my case amazing?
What a Saviour I have found!"

6. "O that all the blind but knew him,
And would be advised by me!
Surely, if they'd come unto him,
He would cause them all to see.

7. "Now I freely leave my garments,
Follow Jesus in the way:—
He will guide me by his counsel—
Lead me to eternal day.

8. "There I shall behold my Saviour,
Spotless, innocent, and pure,
There with him to reign for ever,
If I to the end endure."

CONQUERING SOLDIER. 7s & 6s. D.

Parts arr'd by Wm. HOUSER. 315

Oh! when shall I see Jesus, And reign with him above, }
 And from the flowing fountain Drink everlasting love? } When shall I be delivered From this vain world of sin, And with my blessed Jesus, Drink endless pleasures in?

Grazioso.

McANALLY. 6s & 4s.

Arr'd by JAS. M. EDNEY and Wm. HOUSER.

1. Haste, my dull soul, arise! Shake off thy care; }
 Press to thy native skies, Migh - ty in prayer! } Je - sus has gone before, Count all thy troubles o'er, He all thy burdens bore, Je - sus is there.

2. Soul, for the marriage feast, Robed and pre - pared, }
 Ho - ly must be each guest, Je - sus is there: } Saints, wear your vict'ry palms, Chant your celestial psalms; Bride of the Lamb, thy charms Oh! let me wear.

3. Heav'n's bliss is perfect, pure, Je - sus is there! }
 Heav'n's bliss is ev - er sure, Thou art its heir. } What makes its joys complete? What makes its hymns so sweet? There we our friends shall meet; Jesus is there!

1. O Je - sus, my Saviour, I know thou art mine, }
 For thee all the pleasures of sin I re - sign; } Of ob-jects most pleasing, I love thee the best, With-out thee I'm wretched, but with thee I'm blest.

2. Thy Spirit first taught me to know I was blind,
 Then taught me the way of salvation to find;
 And when I was sinking in gloomy despair,
 Thy mercy relieved me and bade me not fear.

3. In vain I attempt to describe what I feel,
 The language of mortals or angels would fail;
 My Jesus is precious, my soul's in a flame,
 I'm raised to a rapture while praising his name.

4. I find him in singing, I find him in prayer;
 In sweet meditation he always is near,
 My constant companion, O may we ne'er part,
 All glory to Jesus, he dwells in my heart.

5. I love thee, my Saviour, I love thee my Lord;
 I love thy dear people, thy ways and thy word;
 With tender emotion I love sinners too,
 Since Jesus has died to redeem them from wo.

6. My Jesus is precious—I cannot forbear,
 Though sinners despise me, his love to declare:
 His love overwhelms me, had I wings I'd fly
 To praise him in mansions prepared in the sky.

7. Then millions of ages my soul would employ,
 In praising my Jesus, my love and my joy,
 Without interruption, when all the glad throng
 With pleasures unceasing unite in the song.

THE FAITHFUL SOLDIER. 7s & 6s. D.

Arr'd by WM. HOUSER.

1. O when shall I see Je - sus, And reign with him a-bove, }
 And drink the flow-ing foun-tain Of e-ver-last-ing love? } When shall I be de - liv-er'd From this vain world of sin, And with my bless-ed Je-sus, Drink end-less plea-sures in ?

2. But now I am a soldier,
 My Captain's gone before—
 He's given me my orders,
 And tells me not to fear;
 And if I hold out faithful
 A crown of life he'll give,
 And all his valiant soldiers
 Eternal life shall have.

3. Through grace I am determined
 To conquer though I die,
 And then away to Jesus
 On wings of love I'll fly;
 Farewell to sin and sorrow,
 I bid them all adieu:
 And you, my friends, prove faithful,
 And on your way pursue.

4. And if you meet with trials
 And troubles on the way,
 Cast all your care on Jesus,
 And don't forget to pray:
 Gird on the heav'nly armor
 Of faith, and hope, and love;
 And when your warfare's ended
 * You'll reign with him above.

5. O do not be discouraged,
 For Jesus is your friend,
 And if you lack for knowledge
 He'll not refuse to lend;
 Neither will he upbraid you,
 Though often you request;
 He'll give you grace to conquer,
 And take you home to rest.

1. When shall we all meet again?
When shall we all meet again?

Oft shall glowing hope expire,
Oft shall wearied love retire,

Oft shall death and sorrow reign,
Ere we all shall meet again.

2. Though in distant lands we sigh,
Parch'd beneath a hostile sky,

Though the deep between us rolls,
Friendship shall unite our souls,

And in fancy's wide domain,
Oft shall we all meet again.

INDIAN'S FAREWELL. 6 lines 7s.

Arr'd by WM. WALKER.

3. When our burnish'd locks are gray,
Thinn'd by many a toil-spent day,

When around the youthful pine,
Moss shall creep and ivy twine,

Long may the lov'd bow'r remain,
Ere we all shall meet again.

4. When the dreams of life are fled,
When its wasted lamps are dead,

When in cold oblivion's shade
Beauty, wealth, and fame are laid,

Where immortal spirits reign,
There may we all meet again.

1. Come, ye wea - ry, hea - vy - la - den, Lost and ru - in'd by the fall, }
 If you tar - ry till you're bet - ter, You will nev - er come at all: } Not the right - eous—Not the right - eous—Sin - ners Je - sus came to call.

HOW CHARMING IS JESUS. 7s & 6s.

Arr'd by WM. HOUSER.

CHORUS.

1. There we shall reign with Jesus, And shout with the redeemed— O, how charming! how charming! how charming is Jesus,
 On that delightful shore, Our sins and sorrows o'er!— He is my Redeemer, my Lord and my God.

2. The wicked cease from troubling, And we shall reign with Jesus, O how charming, &c.
 The weary are at rest; Eternal ages blest.

3. We shall be like the angels, And shout aloud salvation,— O, how charming, &c.
 In that immortal throng, 'Twill be our lasting song.

How splendid shines the morning star, God's gracious light from darkness far, The root of Jes - se bless-ed! Thou David's son, of Jacob's stem, My Bridegroom,

The first system of the musical score consists of four staves. The top two staves are treble clefs, and the bottom two are bass clefs. The time signature is 6/8. The music is written in a simple, folk-like style with many eighth and sixteenth notes.

King, and wondrous Friend, Thou hast my heart pos-sess - ed, Sweet-ly, friendly, O thou handsome, precious ransom, Full of graces, Set and kept in heav'nly places!

The second system of the musical score also consists of four staves (two treble, two bass) in 6/8 time. It continues the melody from the first system and concludes with a double bar line. The lyrics are printed below the staves.

 And stubborn hearts are bended—
 If we but smile, some say we're wild,
 And so go off' offended:
 If souls are born we'll bear the scorn,
 Let sinners tell their story—
 For Jesus' name we'll bare the blame,
 And give him all the glory.
5. But let them scoff, we still will cry
 To God for their salvation—
 O God of love, send from above,
 And save them from damnation;
 Thy Spirit send their hearts to bend,
 Arrest them by thy thunder!
 Let sweetest songs employ their tongues—
 Fill them with joy and wonder.

Fearless of persecution,
Or groan you will when time shall cease,
In darkness and confusion.

5. Come all ye humble, weeping souls,
Who long to be forgiven,
We bring glad tidings unto you,
From the good Lord of heaven.

6. There is a fountain deep and wide,
For sin and all uncleanness;
O come and wash, and be made white,
And prove the gospel fulness.

7. Shall unbelief debar you from
The knowledge of your Saviour?
Believe, and you'll be justified—
Believe, and live for ever.

8. A glorious throng have gone before,
Who sing and shout hosannah;
They stand around the tree of life,
And always gather manna.

9. Come on, ye followers of the Lamb,
Love God, and sing hosannah;
We soon shall join that heav'nly throng,
And always live on manna.

Ho-san - na to Jesus! I'm fill'd with his praises; No theme is so charming, no love is so warming, Come, O my dear brethren, and help me to sing; It gives joy and gladness, and comfort with-

in. Ho-san-na is ringing, I'm happy while singing, The an-gels in glo-ry re-peat the glad story
And shouting the praises of Je - sus's name; Of Jesus's love, which is made known to men.

1. How sweet to reflect on those joys that await me,
In yon blissful region, the haven of rest,
Where glorified spirits, with welcome shall greet me,
And lead me to mansions prepared for the blest;
Encircled in light, and with glory enshrouded,
My happiness perfect, my mind's sky unclouded,
I'll bathe in the ocean of pleasure unbounded,
And range with delight through the Eden of love.

2. While angelic legions, with harps tuned celestial,
Harmoniously join in the concert of praise,
The saints, as they flock from the regions terrestrial,
In loud hallelujahs their voices will raise:
Then songs to the Lamb shall re-echo through heaven,
My soul will respond, To Emmanuel be given
All glory, and honor, and might and dominion,
Who brought us through grace to the Eden of love.

3. Then hail, blessed state! hail ye songsters of glory!
Ye harpers of bliss, soon I'll meet you above!
And join your full choir in rehearsing the story,
"Salvation from sorrow, through Jesus's love:
Though prison'd in earth, yet by anticipation
Already my soul feels a sweet prelibation
Of joys that await me, when freed from probation;
My heart's now in heaven, the Eden of love.

INVITATION NEW. W 8, 7, 4.

From Southern and Western Pocket Harmonist.

1. Come, ye sin - ners, poor and wretched, Weak and wounded, sick and sore ; }
 Je - sus read - y stands to save you, Full of pi - ty, love, and pow'r ! } He is a - ble, He is a - ble, He is wil - ling, doubt no more, He is a - ble, He is a - ble, He is wil - ling, doubt no more.

2. Now, ye needy, come and welcome,
 God's free bounty glorify ;
 True belief and true repentance,
 Ev'ry grace that brings you nigh ;
 Without money
 Come to Jesus Christ and buy.

3. Let not conscience make you linger,
 Nor of fitness fondly dream ;
 All the fitness he requireth,
 Is to feel your need of him ;
 'Tis he gives you,
 'Tis the Spirit's glimm'ring beam.

4. Come, ye weary, heavy laden,
 Bruised and mangled by the fall ;
 If you tarry till you're better,
 You will never come at all :
 Not the righteous,
 Sinners Jesus came to call.

5. Agonizing in the garden,
 Lo ! your Maker prostrate lies ;
 On the bloody tree behold him !
 Hear him cry, before he dies,
 " It is finish'd !"
 Sinners, will not this suffice ?

6. Lo ! the incarnate God, ascending,
 Pleads the merit of his blood ;
 Venture on him, venture freely
 Let no other trust intrude :
 None but Jesus
 Can do helpless sinners good.

7. Saints and angels, join'd in concert,
 Sing the praises of the Lamb,
 While the blissful seats of heaven
 Sweetly echo with his name :
 Hallelujah !
 Sinners here may do the same.

1. Lift your heads, ye friends of Je - sus, Partners of his patience here; } Mark the to - kens, Mark the to - kens
 Christ, to all be - lievers precious, Lord of lords, shall soon appear. } Mark the to - kens, Mark the to - kens Of his heav'n-ly kingdom near.

I often have tasted while off'ring my prayer.
5. But soon I must bid my loved bower adieu,
And leave for a region that's distant and new:
Yet, O blessed thought! I've a friend ev'rywhere,
Who will, in all places, give ear to my prayer.
6. His love and his pow'r he will daily impart,
To strengthen my mind and to gladden my heart:
And when on my death-bed, he'll be with me there,
And take me to heaven in answer to prayer.
7. And high in the mansions of glory and joy,
My soul shall be blest with delightful employ—
Be freed from all sorrow, and anguish and care,
And bask in His smile who has answer'd my prayer.

A FUNERAL HYMN.

1. Rejoice for a brother deceased,
 Our loss is his infinite gain;
 A soul out of prison released,
 And freed from its bodily chain:
 With songs let us follow his flight,
 And mount with his spirit above;
 Escaped to the mansions of light,
 And lodged in the Eden of love.

2. Our brother the haven hath gain'd,
 Out-flying the tempest and wind;
 His rest he hath sooner obtain'd,
 And left his companions behind,
 Still toss'd on a sea of distress,
 Hard toiling to make the blest shore,
 Where all is assurance and peace,
 And sorrow and sin are no more.

3. There all the ship's company meet,
 Who sail'd with their Saviour beneath;
 With shouting each other they greet,
 And triumph o'er trouble and death:
 The voyage of life's at an end,
 The mortal affliction is past;
 The age that in heaven they spend,
 For ever and ever shall last.

1. See how the Scriptures are fulfilling, Poor sinners are returning home!
The time that prophets were foretelling, With signs and wonders, now is come: } The gospel trumpet now is roaring, From sea to sea, from land to land; God's Holy Spirit is down pouring, And Christians joining heart and hand.

2. Ten thousands fall before Jehovah,
For mercy, mercy, loud they cry;
They rise a shouting, "Hallelujah!
All glory be to God on high!"
But many cry, "'Tis all disorder,"—
And disbelieve God's holy word;
This makes them cry and shout the louder,
"All glory! glory! to the Lord!"
3. O sinners, hear our invitation,
You are but feeble dying worms;
O fly to Jesus for salvation,
Or you will meet God's awful storms.
We warn you in the name of Jesus,
The awful Judge of quick and dead:
But if you should refuse to hear us,
Your blood shall be upon your head.

4. Now God is calling ev'ry nation,
The bond and free, the rich and poor;
These are the days of visitation,
Sweet gospel grace will soon be o'er:
The Lord shall come all clothed in thunder,
And lightning streaming from his eyes;
Oh, then he'll cut his foes asunder,
And lay them where the damned lie.
5. The sun affrighted from its centre,
Enveloped in an awful cloud,—
The stars to shine now dare not venture,—
Pale Cynthia clothed in scarlet shroud:
The sea and land together burning,
The flames ascend the melting sky;
All nature now to naught returning,
Hark! hark! the herald angels cry.

Trumps angelic sound his fame,
Lutes of lucid gold proclaim
All the music of his name;
Heaven echoing the theme.

4. Hark! the thrilling symphonies
Seem, methinks, to seize us:
Join we in the holy lays,
Jesus! Jesus! Jesus!

Sweetest sound in seraph's song,
Sweetest note on mortal's tongue,
Sweetest carol ever sung:
Jesus! Jesus! flow along.

SHIELDS. L. P. M.

Arr'd by Wm. HOUSER.

When quiet in my house I sit, Thy book be my com-pan-ion still;
My joy thy say-ings to repeat, Talk o'er the rec-ords of thy will: }
And search the or-a-cles divine, Till ev'-ry heart-felt word be mine.

Alto by Wm. HOUSER.

1. Love di-vine, all loves ex-cel-ling,
Joy of heav'n, to earth come down;

Fix in us thy humble dwelling, All thy faithful mercies crown! Je-sus, thou art all compassion, Pure, unbounded love thou art; Vis-it us with thy sal-va-tion; Enter ev'-ry trembling heart.

- 2. Breathe, O breathe thy loving Spirit
Into every troubled breast!
Let us all in thee inherit,
Let us find that second rest.
Take away our bent of sinning;
Alpha and Omega be,
End of faith as its beginning,
Set our hearts at liberty.
- 3. Come, Almighty to deliver,
Let us all thy life receive;
Suddenly return, and never,
Never more thy temples leave:

- Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve thee as thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise thee without ceasing,
Glory in thy perfect love.
- 4. Finish, then, thy new creation,
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see thy great salvation,—
Perfectly restored in thee:
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise!

1. Tempest-tossed, troubled spirit, [thy load? }
Dost thou groan beneath } View thy Saviour on the mountain,

D. C. Tho' of grace himself the fountain,
And the Lord of boundless pow'r.

2. Do thy blooming prospects languish?
Say'st thou still, "I'm not his child?"
View thy Saviour's dreadful anguish,
Famish'd in the gloomy wild.
Not a step in all thy journey,
Through this gloomy vale of tears,
But thy Lord hath trod before thee,
And thy way to glory clears.

3. Though through seas of tribulation
Jesus calls thee here to go,
He hath wrought thy great salvation
In far deeper seas of wo;
Jesus, though by God anointed,
Christ, the co-eternal Son,
As by love divine appointed,
Treads the wine-press all alone.

4. Sinks thy soul in waves of sorrow?
Pass o'er Kedron's rolling flood,
Witness there the doleful horror
Of the suff'ring Son of God;
There the victim groaning, weeping,
Bears the wrath of God alone,
While his senseless followers sleeping,
Scarce regard a single groan!

1. I find my-self placed in a state of proba-tion, Which God has commanded us well to im - prove ; }
 And I am re-solv'd to re-gard all his pre-cepts, And on in the way of o-be-dience to move. }

2. I'm call'd to contend with the powers of darkness,
 And many sore conflicts I have to pass through ;
 O Jesus, be with me in every battle,
 And help me my enemies all to subdue ;
 If thou, gracious Lord, wilt only be with me,
 To aid and direct me, then all will be right ;
 Apollyon, with all his powerful forces,
 In thy name and thy strength I shall soon put to flight.

3. And when I must cross o'er the cold stream of Jordan,
 I'll bid all my sorrows a final adieu,
 And hasten away to the land of sweet Canaan,
 Where, Christians, I hope I shall there meet with you ;

That rest into which my soul shall then enter,
 Is perfectly glorious, and never shall end—
 A rest of exemption from warfare and labor,
 A rest in the bosom of Jesus, my friend.

4. And more than exemption from fighting and hardship,
 My gracious Redeemer will grant unto me ;
 A portion of bliss he has promised to give me,
 And true to that promise he surely will be :
 Yes, I shall receive and always inherit
 A happy reception and truly divine ;
 For which all the praises and glory, my Saviour,
 Are due unto thee, and shall ever be thine.

With endless curses on his head.
But hears her doom, and sinks to hell.
Give me a mansion in thy love.

GREENFIELDS. 8 lines, 8s.

1. How tedious and tasteless the hours, When Jesus no longer I see; }
Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flow'rs, Have all lost their sweetness to me; }
The midsummer sun shines but dim, The fields strive in vain to look gay;

But when I am hap-py in him, De-cem-ber's as pleasant as May.

2. His name yields the richest perfume,
And sweeter than music his voice;
His presence disperses my gloom,
And makes all within me rejoice:
I should, were he always thus nigh,
Have nothing to wish or to fear,
No mortal so happy as I,
My summer would last all the year.
3. Content with beholding his face,
My all to his pleasure resigned,
No changes of season or place
Would make any change in my mind;

While bless'd with a sense of his love,
A palace a toy would appear,
And prisons would palaces prove,
If Jesus would dwell with me there.

4. Dear Lord, if indeed I am thine,
If thou art my sun and my song,
Say, why do I languish and pine?
And why are my winters so long?
O drive these dark clouds from my sky,
Thy soul-cheering presence restore,
Or take me to thee upon high,
Where winter and clouds are no more.

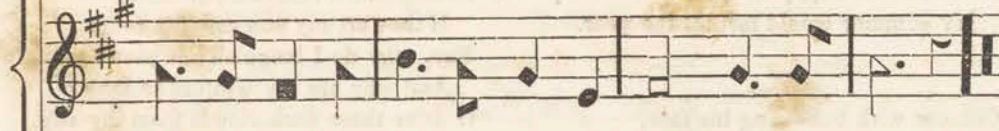

1. There's a Friend a - bove all oth - ers, O how he loves!} Earth - ly friends may fail and leave us, This day kind, the next be - reave us,
His is love be - yond a broth - er's, O how he loves!}

2. Bless - ed Je - sus! wouldst thou know him? O how he loves!} Is it sin that pains and grieves thee, Un - be - lief and tri - als tease thee?
Give thy-self, e'en this day, to him, O how he loves!}

But this Friend will ne'er de - ceive us, O how he loves!

Je - sus can from all re - lease thee, O how he loves!

3. Love this Friend, who longs to save thee, O how he loves!
Dost thou love? he will not leave thee,
O how he loves!
Think no more then of to-morrow,
Take his easy yoke and follow—
Jesus carries all thy sorrow,
O how he loves!
4. All thy sins shall be forgiven,
O how he loves!
Backward all thy foes be driven,
O how he loves!
Best of blessings he'll provide thee,
Naught but good shall e'er betide thee,
Safe to glory he will guide thee,
O how he loves!
5. Pause, my soul! adore and wonder,
O how he loves!
Naught can cleave this love asunder,
O how he loves!
Neither trial, nor temptation,
Doubt, nor fear, nor tribulation
Can bereave us of salvation,
O how he loves!
6. Let us still this love be viewing,
O how he loves!
And, though faint, keep on pursuing,
O how he loves!
He will strengthen each endeavor,
And when pass'd o'er Jordan's river,
This shall be our song for ever,
O how he loves!

1. Go to dark Geth - sem - a - ne, Ye that feel the tempt - er's power, Your Re - deem-er's con - flict see, Watch with him one dread-ful, hour; Turn not from his griefs a - way— Learn of Je - sus Christ to pray.

2.
Follow to the judgment hall,
View the Lord of life arraign'd;
Oh the wormwood and the gall!
Oh the pangs his soul sustain'd!
Shun not suff'ring, shame, or loss;
Learn of him to bear his cross.

3.
Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
There, adoring at his feet,
Mark that miracle of time—
God's own sacrifice complete:
"It is finish'd!" hear him cry;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.

4.
Early hasten to the tomb,
Where they laid his breathless clay;
Pia. All is solitude and gloom—
Who hath taken him away?
FF. Christ is risen! He meets our eyes!
Saviour, teach us so to rise.

1. Come, O thou Trav - el - ler unknown, Whom still I hold, but can-not see; }
My com-pa - ny be - fore has gone, And I am left alone with thee; } With thee all night I mean to stay, And wrestle till the break of day.

2. I need not tell thee who I am, My mise - ry and sin de - clare; }
Thy-self hast call'd me by my name, Look on thy hands and read it there: } But who, I ask thee, who art thou? Tell me thy name, and tell me now.

3. In vain thou strugglest to get free,
I never will unloose my hold;
Art thou the man that died'st for me?
The secret of thy love unfold:
Wrestling, I will not let thee go,
Till I thy name, thy nature know.

4. Wilt thou not yet to me reveal
Thy new, unutterable name?
Tell me, I still beseech thee, tell,
To know it now resolved I am;
Wrestling, I will not let thee go,
Till I thy name, thy nature know.

5. What though my shrinking flesh complain,
And murmur to contend so long!
I rise superior to my pain;
When I am weak, then am I strong!
And when my all of strength shall fail,
I shall with the God-man prevail.

6. Yield to me now, for I am weak,
But confident, in self-despair;
Speak to my heart, in blessings, speak,
Be conquer'd by my instant prayer;
Speak, or thou never hence shall move,
And tell me if thy name be Love.

7. 'Tis love! 'tis love! thou died'st for me,
I hear thy whisper in my heart!
The morning breaks, the shadows flee,
Pure, universal love thou art.
To me, to ALL, thy bowels move,
Thy nature and thy name is Love.

8. My prayer hath power with God, the grace
Unspeakable I now receive;
Through faith I see thee face to face,
I see thee face to face, and live!
In vain I have not wept and strove,
Thy nature and thy name is Love.

9. The Sun of Righteousness, on me
Hath rose, with healing in his wings,
Wither'd my nature's strength; from thee
My soul its life and succor brings;
My help is all laid up above,
Thy nature and thy name is Love.

10. Contented now, upon my thigh
I halt till life's short journey end;
All helplessness, all weakness, I
On thee alone for strength depend:
Nor have I power from thee to move,
Thy nature and thy name is Love.

11. Lame as I am, I take the prey,
Hell, earth, and sin with ease o'ercome
I leap for joy, pursue my way,
And as a bounding hart fly home;
Through all eternity to prove
Thy nature and thy name is Love.

1. Sinner, hear thy Saviour's call, He now is passing by,
 He hath seen thy grievous thrall,
 And heard thy mournful cry : He hath pardon to im-part, Grace to save thee from thy fears ; See the love that fills his heart, And wipes away thy tears.

2. Why art thou afraid to come
 And tell him all thy case ?
 He will not pronounce thy doom,
 Nor frown thee from his face ;
 Wilt thou fear Emmanuel ?
 Wilt thou fear the Lamb of God
 Who, to save thy soul from hell,
 Has shed his precious blood ?

4. Though his majesty is great,
 His mercy is no less ;
 Though he thy transgressions hate,
 He feels for thy distress :
 By himself the Lord hath sworn,
 He delights not in thy death,
 But invites thee to return,
 That thou mayest live by faith.

3. Think, how on the cross he hung,
 Pierced with a thousand wounds !
 Hark ! from each, as with a tongue,
 The voice of pardon sounds ;
 See, from all his bursting veins,
 Blood of wondrous virtue flow,
 Shed to wash away thy stains,
 And ransom thee from wo.

5. Raise thy downcast eyes and see,
 What throngs his throne surround !
 These, though sinners once like thee,
 Have full salvation found ;
 Yield not then to unbelief,
 While he says, "there yet is room,"
 Though of sinners thou art chief,
 Since Jesus calls thee home.

1. A few more days on earth to spend, And all my toils and cares shall end, And I shall see my God and friend,
No more to sigh nor shed a tear, No more to
And praise his name on high :

2. Then, O my soul, despond no more, The storm of life will soon be o'er, And I shall find the peaceful shore Of everlasting rest. O happy day ! O joyful hour !
When freed from

3. My soul an-ti-ci-pates the day, I'll joy-ful-ly the call o - bey, To seats prepared above : And dwell in Which comes to summon me away, There I shall see my Saviour's face, suffer pain or fear, Un-to the raptur'd eye.

But God and Christ, and heav'n appear earth, my soul shall tow'r, To be for ev-er blest.

Beyond the reach of Satan's pow'r,

his be-lov'd em-brace, And sing redeeming love.
And taste the fulness of his grace,

4. Though dire afflictions press me sore,
And death's dark billows roll before,
Yet still by faith I see the shore,
Beyond the rolling flood :
The banks of Canaan, sweet and fair,
Before my raptured eyes appear ;
It makes me think I'm almost there,
In yonder bright abode.
5. To earthly cares I bid farewell,
And triumph over death and hell,
And go where saints and angels dwell,
To praise the eternal Three,
- I'll join with those who've gone before,
Who sing and shout their sufferings o'er,
Where pain and parting are no more,
To all eternity.
6. Adieu ! ye scenes of noise and show,
And all this region here below,
Where naught but disappointments grow,
A better world's in view :
My Saviour calls ! I haste away,
I would not here for ever stay ;
Hail ! ye bright realms of endless day ;
Vain world, once more adieu !

1. World, adieu! thou re-al cheat; Oft have thy deceitful charms Fill'd my heart with fond conceit, Foolish hopes and false alarms: Now I see as clear as day How thy follies pass away.

2. Vain, thy entertaining sights; False, thy promises renew'd; All the pomp of thy delights Does but flatter and delude; Thee I quit for heav'n a-bove, Ob - ject of the no-blest love.

2. When Jesus beheld me in nature,
Pursuing the road unto pain,
He brought me my sins to discover,
Then cleansed my soul from the stain ;
How sweet were the accents of pardon !
How quickly my guilt did remove,
When I could behold with sweet wonder,
That God such a sinner should love !

3. And now I am pressing for Canaan,
Though Jordan is rolling before ;
It causes me almost to tremble,
To hear how its billows do roar :
But Jesus can calm the dread ocean,
And cause its loud ragings to cease ;
If Faith, Hope, and Love are in motion,
I'll walk through the valley in peace.

4. His rod and his staff shall console me,
His Shepherd-like voice I shall hear,
Then why should its raging affright me,
Since Jesus will be with me there ?
On seraphic wings I'll be soaring,
To join the bright spirits above ;
There ever to praise and adore Him,
Who brought me to feast on his love.

5. O Christians, I feel myself happy
In anticipating this joy !
We shortly on love shall be feasting,
Which never, no never, can cloy.
O sinners, it grieves me to leave you,
Once more I entreat you to go ;
Oh ! hasten and fly unto Jesus,
The Gospel's inviting you now.

FIDELITY. 7s, 6s & 8.

Parts arr'd by Wm. Houser.

The musical notation for 'Fidelity' consists of three staves. The top staff is the vocal line, the middle is the treble clef accompaniment, and the bottom is the bass clef accompaniment. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is 2/4. The music is divided into four measures corresponding to the four verses of the hymn.

1. Cast on the fi - del - i - ty Of my redeeming Lord, } Credence to his word I give, Will not now his servant leave,
 I shall his salvation see, Ac - cording to his word ; } My Saviour in distresses past But bring me through at last.

2. Better than my boding fears
 To me thou oft hast proved ;
 Oft observed my silent tears,
 And challenged thy beloved :
 Mercy to my rescue flew,
 And Death ungrasp'd his fainting prey ;
 Pain before thy face withdrew,
 And Sorrow fled away.

3. Now as yesterday the same,
 In all my troubles nigh,
 Jesus, on thy word and name
 I steadfastly rely :
 Sure as now the grief I feel,
 The promised joy I soon shall have ;
 Saved again, to sinners tell
 Thy power and will to savé.

4. To thy blessed will resign'd,
 And stay'd on that alone,
 I thy perfect strength shall find,
 Thy faithful mercies own ;
 Compass'd round with songs of praise,
 My all to my Redeemer give ;
 Spread thy miracles of grace,
 And to thy glory live.

MOUNT OLIVE. L. M. D.

The musical notation for 'Mount Olive' consists of three staves. The top staff is the vocal line, the middle is the treble clef accompaniment, and the bottom is the bass clef accompaniment. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 3/4. The music is divided into four measures corresponding to the first verse of the hymn.

2. He forms her beauties like his own,
 He calls, and seats her near his throne;
 Fair stranger, let thy heart forget
 The idols of thy native state:
 So shall the King the more rejoice
 In thee, the favorite of his choice;
 Let him be loved, and yet adored,
 For he's thy Maker and thy Lord.

3. O happy hour! when thou shalt rise
 To his fair palace in the skies,
 And all thy sons, (a num'rous train,)
 Each, like a prince, in glory reign!
 Let endless honors crown his head;
 Let every age his praises spread;
 While we with cheerful songs approve
 The condescension of his love.

4. Thy throne, O God, for ever stands:
 Grace is the sceptre in thy hands;
 Thy laws and works are just and right;
 Justice and grace are thy delight.
 O God! thy God has richly shed
 His oil of gladness on thy head,
 And with his sacred Spirit blest
 Th' eternal Son above the rest.

Nor tread the rough paths of the world by thy side;
But the wide arms of mercy were spread to enfold thee,
And sinners may hope, since the Saviour hath died.

3. Thou art gone to the grave, and its mansions forsaking,
Perhaps thy tried spirit in doubt linger'd long;
But the sunshine of heaven beam'd bright on thy waking,
And the song that thou heard'st was the seraphim's song.

4. Is this the man of sorrows,
Who stood at Pilate's bar,
Condemn'd by haughty Herod,
And by his men of war?
He seems a mighty conqueror,
Who spoil'd the powers below,

5. The hosts of saints around him
Proclaim his work of grace;
The patriarchs and prophets,
And all the godly race:
They speak of fire trials,
And tortures on their way;
They came from tribulation,
To everlasting day.
6. Now, with a holy transport,
They tell their sufferings o'er,
Their tears and their temptations,
And all the pains they bore;
They turn and bow to Jesus,
Who gain'd their liberty:—
"Amid our fiercest dangers
Our lives were hid in thee."
7. Long time I was invited
To gain that heavenly rest;
Grace made no hard condition,
'T was only to be blest;
But earth's bewitching pleasures
Inclined me long to stay;
I sought her dreams and shadows,
And joys that pass away.
8. But now it is my purpose
The better way to find;
To serve my great Creator,
And leave my sins behind;
In guilt's seducing mazes
I will no longer roam;
I'll give my soul to Jesus,
Who brings the ransom'd home.
9. And what shall be my journey,
How long I'll stay below,
Or what shall be my trials,
Is not for me to know,
In every day of trouble,
I'll raise my thoughts on high;
I'll think of the bright temple,
And crowns above the sky.

5. My loved habitation and gardens, adieu!
No longer my footsteps ye greet;
A mansion celestial stands full in my view,
And Paradise welcomes my feet.

6. My weeping relations, my brethren, and friends,
Whose hearts are entwined with my own,
Adieu, for the present—my spirit ascends
Where pleasure immortal is known.

7. My cares and my labours, my sickness and pain,
And sorrows are now at an end;
The summit of bliss I shall speedily gain,
The height of perfection ascend.

8. The vale of affliction, my footsteps have trod,
With trembling, with grief, and with tears,

I joyfully quit for the mansions of God—
There, there, its bright summit appears!

9. No lurking temptation, defilement, or fear,
Again shall disquiet my breast;
In Jesu's fair image I soon shall appear,
For ever ineffably bless'd.

10. My Sabbaths below that have been my delight,
And thou, the bless'd volume divine,
Ye guided my footsteps, like stars during night!
Adieu!—my conductors begin!

11. The sun that illumines the regions of light
Now shines on my eyes from above,
And O how transcendently glorious the sight!
My soul is all wonder and love!

12. Come, come, my Redeemer, this moment release
The soul thou hast bought with thy blood,
And bid me ascend the bright regions of peace,
To feast on the smiles of my God.

This system contains four staves of music. The top staff is the vocal line, followed by three instrumental staves (likely for a string quartet). The key signature is two sharps (D major) and the time signature is 2/4. The music is written in a standard musical notation style with various note values and rests.

This system continues the musical score with four staves. It includes the vocal line and instrumental accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff. The key signature and time signature remain consistent with the first system. The music concludes with a double bar line.

SALUTATION. 7,6,8,7,7,6,7,6.

1. Good morning, brother pil-grim!
 What, bound for Canaan's coast?
 March you towards Je - ru - sa - lem,
 To join the heav'nly host?
 Pray, wherefore are you smiling,
 While

2. To Canaan's coast we'll hasten,
 To join the heav'nly throng;
 Hark! from the banks of Jor - dan,
 How sweet the pilgrim's song!
 Their Je - sus they are view-ing,
 By
 tears run down your face?
 We soon shall cease from toil - ing,
 And reach that heav'nly place,
 And reach that heav'nly place,
 We soon shall cease from toiling,
 And reach that heav'nly place.

3. Though sinners do despise us,
 And treat us with disdain,
 Our former comrades slight us,
 Esteem us low and mean:
 No earthly joy shall charm us,
 While marching on our way;
 Our Jesus will defend us
 In the distressing day.

4. The frowns of old companions
 We're willing to sustain,
 And in divine compassion,
 To pray for them again;
 For Christ, our loving Saviour,
 Our Comforter, and Friend,
 Will bless us with his favor,
 And guide us to the end.

5. With streams of consolation
 We're fill'd, as with new wine;
 We die to transient pleasures,
 And live to things divine:
 We sink in holy raptures,
 While viewing things above;
 And glory give to Jesus,
 Who fills our souls with love.

FRIENDSHIP. 8,7,8,7,8,8,7.

G. COOK.

1. Friendship, to ev'ry will-ing mind, Opens a heavenly treasure ;
 There may the sons of sor-row find Sources of re-al pleasure. } See what employments men pursue, Then you will own my words are true, Friendship alone presents to view Sour-ces of re-al pleasure.

2. Poor are the joys that fools esteem,
 Fading and transitory ;
 Mirth is as fleeting as a dream,
 Or a delusive story.
 Luxury leaves a sting behind,
 Wounding the body and the mind ;
 Only in friendship can we find
 Sources of real pleasure.

3. Learning, that boasted, glitt'ring thing,
 Is but just worth possessing ;
 Riches, for ever on the wing,
 Scarce can be call'd a blessing ;
 Fame, like a shadow, flies away ;
 Titles and dignity decay ;
 Nothing but friendship can display
 Joys that are freed from trouble.

4. Beauty, with all its gaudy show,
 Is but a painted bubble ;
 Short is the triumph wit bestows,
 Full of deceit and trouble :
 Sensual pleasures swell desire,
 Just as the fuel feeds the fire—
 Friendship can real bliss inspire,
 Bliss that is worth possessing.

5. Happy the man who has a friend,
 Form'd by the God of nature ;
 Well may he feel and recommend
 Friendship for his Creator :
 Then as our hands in friendship join,
 So let our social pow'rs combine,
 Ruled by a passion most divine,
 Friendship with our Creator.

 Take courage, and fight va - liant - ly, Stand fast with sword in hand; } Our Captain's gone be - fore us, Our Fa - ther's on - ly son, Then pil-grims dear, pray do not fear, But let us fol - low on.

2. We have a howling wilderness,
 To Canaan's happy shore;
 A land of dearth, and pits, and snares,
 Where chilling winds do roar:
 But Jesus will be with us,
 And guard us by the way;
 Though enemies examine us,
 He'll teach us what to say.
3. The pleasant fields of Paradise,
 So glorious to behold,
 The valleys clad in living green,
 The mountains paved with gold;
 The trees of life with heavenly fruit,
 Behold how rich they stand!—
 Blow, gentle gales, and bear my soul
 Away to Canaan's land!
4. Sweet rivers of salvation all
 Through Canaan's land do roll,
 The beams of day bring glittering scenes,
 Illuminate my soul;

There pond'rous clouds of glory,
 All set in diamonds bright;
 And there's my smiling Jesus,
 Who is my heart's delight.

5. Already to my raptured sight
 The blissful fields arise,
 And plenty spreads her smiling stores,
 Inviting to my eyes:
 O sweet abode of endless rest!
 I soon shall travel there;
 Nor earth, nor all her empty joys,
 Shall long detain me here.

6. Come all you pilgrim travelers,
 Fresh courage take with me;
 Meantime I'll tell you how I came
 This happy land to see:
 Through faith, the glorious telescope,
 I view'd the worlds above,
 And God the Father reconciled,
 Which fills my heart with love.

 'Tis all but vanity :

 He tasted death for me !
 Me to save from endless wo
 The sin - atoning victim died !
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.
3. Here will I set up my rest,
 My fluctuating heart
 From the haven of thy breast
 Shall never more depart :
 Whither should a sinner go ?
 His wounds for me stand open wide ;
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.

4. Him to know is life and peace,
 And pleasure without end ;
 This is all my happiness,
 On Jesus to depend ;
 Daily in his grace to grow,
 And ever in his faith abide ;
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.
5. O that I could all invite,
 This saving truth to prove :
 Show the length, and breadth, and height,
 And depth of Jesus' love !
 Fain I would to sinners show
 The blood by faith alone applied !
 Only Jesus will I know,
 And Jesus crucified.

joice, Re - joice, a - gain I say, re - joice.

2. Jesus, the Saviour, reigns,
 The God of truth and love—
 When he had purged our stains,
 He took his seat above ;
 Lift up your hearts, lift up your voice,
 Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.

3. His kingdom cannot fail,
 He rules o'er earth and heaven ;
 The keys of death and hell
 Are to our Jesus given ;
 Lift up your hearts, lift up your voice,
 Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.

4. He sits at God's right hand
 Till all his foes submit,
 And bow to his command,
 And fall beneath his feet ;

Lift up your hearts, lift up your voice,
 Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.

5. He all his foes shall quell,
 Shall all our sins destroy :
 And every bosom swell
 With pure seraphic joy ;
 Lift up your hearts, lift up your voice,
 Rejoice, again I say, rejoice.

6. Rejoice in glorious hope,
 Jesus the Judge shall come,
 And take his servants up
 To their eternal home ;
 We soon shall hear th' archangel's voice,
 The trump of God shall sound, Rejoice !

1. There is a land of pleasure, Where streams of joy for e - ver roll ; }
 'Tis there I have my trea - sure, And there I long to rest my soul. }

Long darkness dwelt around me, With scarcely once a cheer - ing ray,

But since my Saviour found me, A lamp has shone a - long my way.

2. My way is full of danger,
 But 'tis the path that leads to God,
 And, like a faithful soldier,
 I'll boldly march along the road:
 Now I must gird my sword on,
 My breastplate, helmet, and my shield,
 And fight the hosts of Satan,
 Until I reach the heav'nly field.

4. The vale of tears surrounds me,
 And Jordan's current rolls before ;
 Oh ! how I stand and tremble
 To hear the dismal waters roar !
 Whose hand shall then support me,
 And keep my soul from sinking there—
 From sinking down to darkness,
 And to the regions of despair ?

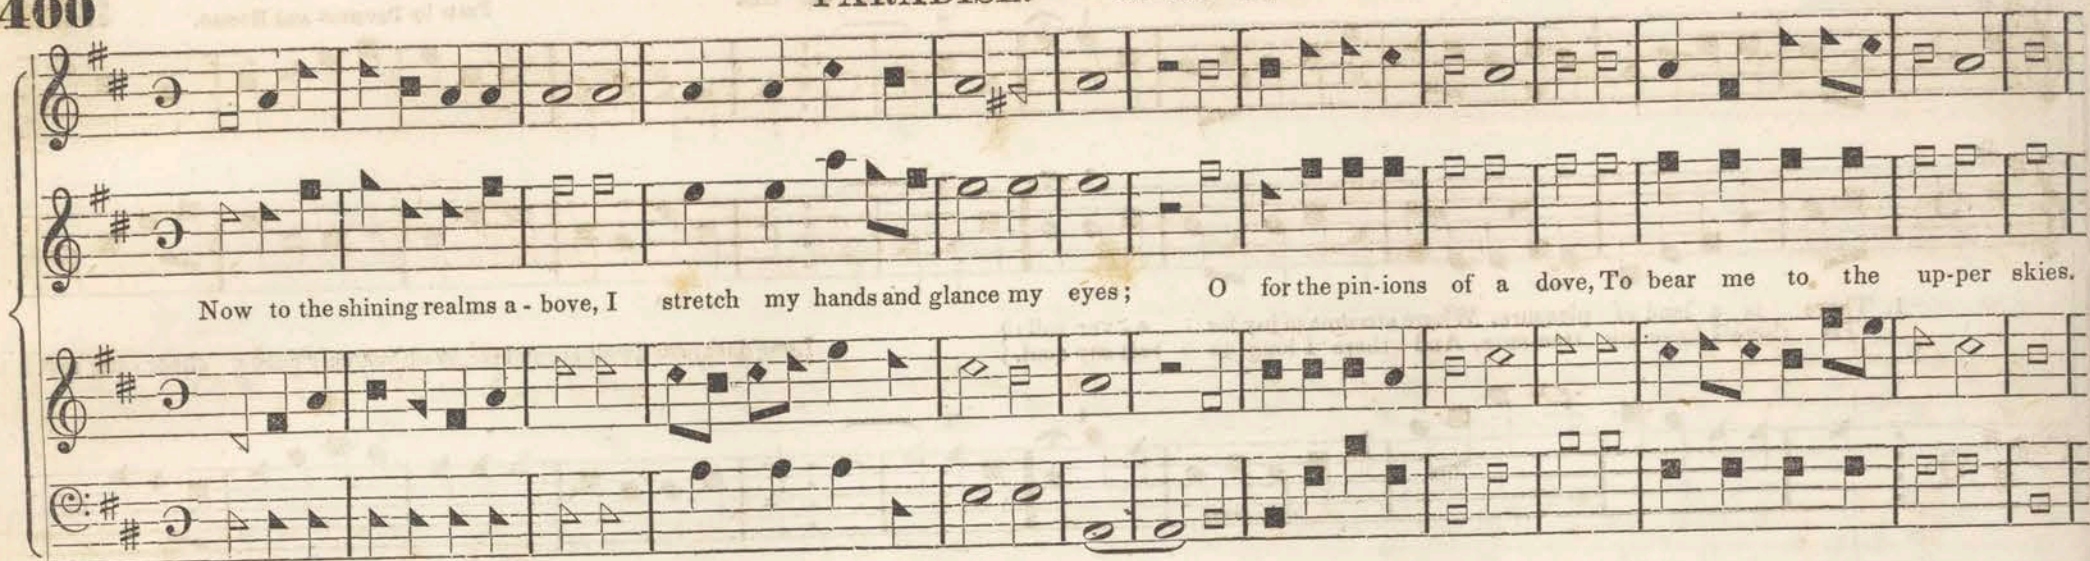

3. I'm on my way to Zion,
 Still guided by the Saviour's hand ;
 O come along, dear sinners,
 And see Emmanuel's happy land ;
 To all who stay behind me
 I bid a long, a long farewell ;
 Come now, or you'll repent it
 When you shall reach the gates of hell.

5. This stream shall not affright me,
 Although 'tis deeper than the grave ;
 If Jesus stand beside me
 I'll smoothly ride on Jordan's wave :
 His word has calm'd the ocean—
 His lamp has cheer'd the gloomy vale—
 Oh ! shall this Friend be with me,
 While through the gates of death I sail ?

6. Come then, thou King of terrors,
 And with thy dagger lay me low—
 I'll sooner reach these regions
 Where everlasting pleasures grow.
 O Christians, I must leave you,
 No more to join your social band ;
 No more to stand beside you,
 Till at the judgment bar we stand.

7. Soon the archangel's trumpet
 Shall rock the globe from pole to pole,
 And all the wheels of nature
 Shall in a moment cease to roll ;
 Then we shall see the Saviour,
 With shining ranks of angels come,
 To execute his vengeance,
 And take his faithful servants home.

8. Then, sinners, you'll be driven
 Down to the lake of fire and pain,
 To scream in flaming sulphur,
 And never to return again :
 Then, sinners, you'll remember
 Who warn'd you of that dreadful end,
 While the smoking of your torment
 In pitchy clouds shall up ascend.

Now to the shining realms a - bove, I stretch my hands and glance my eyes; O for the pin-ions of a dove, To bear me to the up-per skies.

There from the bo-som of my God, O-ceans of endless pleasures roll; There would I fix my last abode, And drown the sorrows of my soul.

None of the melting passions warms,
Can mingle hearts and hands:
Logs of green wood that quench the coals

6. Not minds of melancholy strain,
Still silent, or that still complain,
Can the dear bondage bless:
As well may heav'nly concerts spring
From two old lutes with ne'er a string,
Or none besides the bass.

7. Nor can the soft enchantments hold
Two jarring souls of angry mould,
The rugged and the keen:
Samson's young foxes might as well
In bonds of cheerful wedlock dwell,
With firebrands tied between.

8. Nor let the cruel fetters bind
A gentle to a savage mind;
For love abhors the sight:
Loose the fierce tiger from the deer,
For native rage and native fear
Rise and forbid delight.

9. Two kindest souls alone must meet;
'Tis friendship makes the bondage sweet,
And feeds their mutual loves:
Bright Venus on her rolling throne
Is drawn by gentlest birds alone,
And Cupids yoke the doves.

SONG, by Rev. Wm. Hunter, of Pittsburg.

[As this is a twelve syllable song, some of the notes in "Eden" have to be repeated in singing it.]

1. You may sing of the beauty of mountain and dale,
Of the silvery streamlet and flow'rs of the vale;
But the place most delightful this earth can afford,
Is the place of devotion, the house of the Lord.
2. You may boast of the sweetness of day's early dawn—
Of the sky's softening graces when day is just gone;
But there's no other season or time can compare
With the hour of devotion—the season of prayer.
3. You may value the friendships of youth and of age,
And select for your comrades the noble and sage;
But the friends that most cheer me on life's rugged road,
Are the friends of my Master—the children of God.
4. You may talk of your prospects, of fame, or of wealth,
And the hopes that oft flatter the fav'rites of health;
But the hope of bright glory—of heavenly bliss!
Take away every other, and give me but this.
5. Ever hail, blessed temple, abode of my Lord!
I will turn to thee often, to hear from his word;
I will walk to thy altar with those that I love,
And delight in the prospects reveal'd from above.

1. The Lord of glo-ry sends his summons forth, Calls the south nations and a-wakes the north; From east to west the sovereign orders spread, Thro' dis-tant worlds and re-gions of the dead; No more shall a - theists mock his long de - lay, His vengeance sleeps no more, be-hold the day!

2. Behold the Judge descends, his guards are nigh ; Tempest and fire attend him down the sky ; Heav'n, earth, and hell, draw near, let all things come, To hear his

AMHERST: H. M.

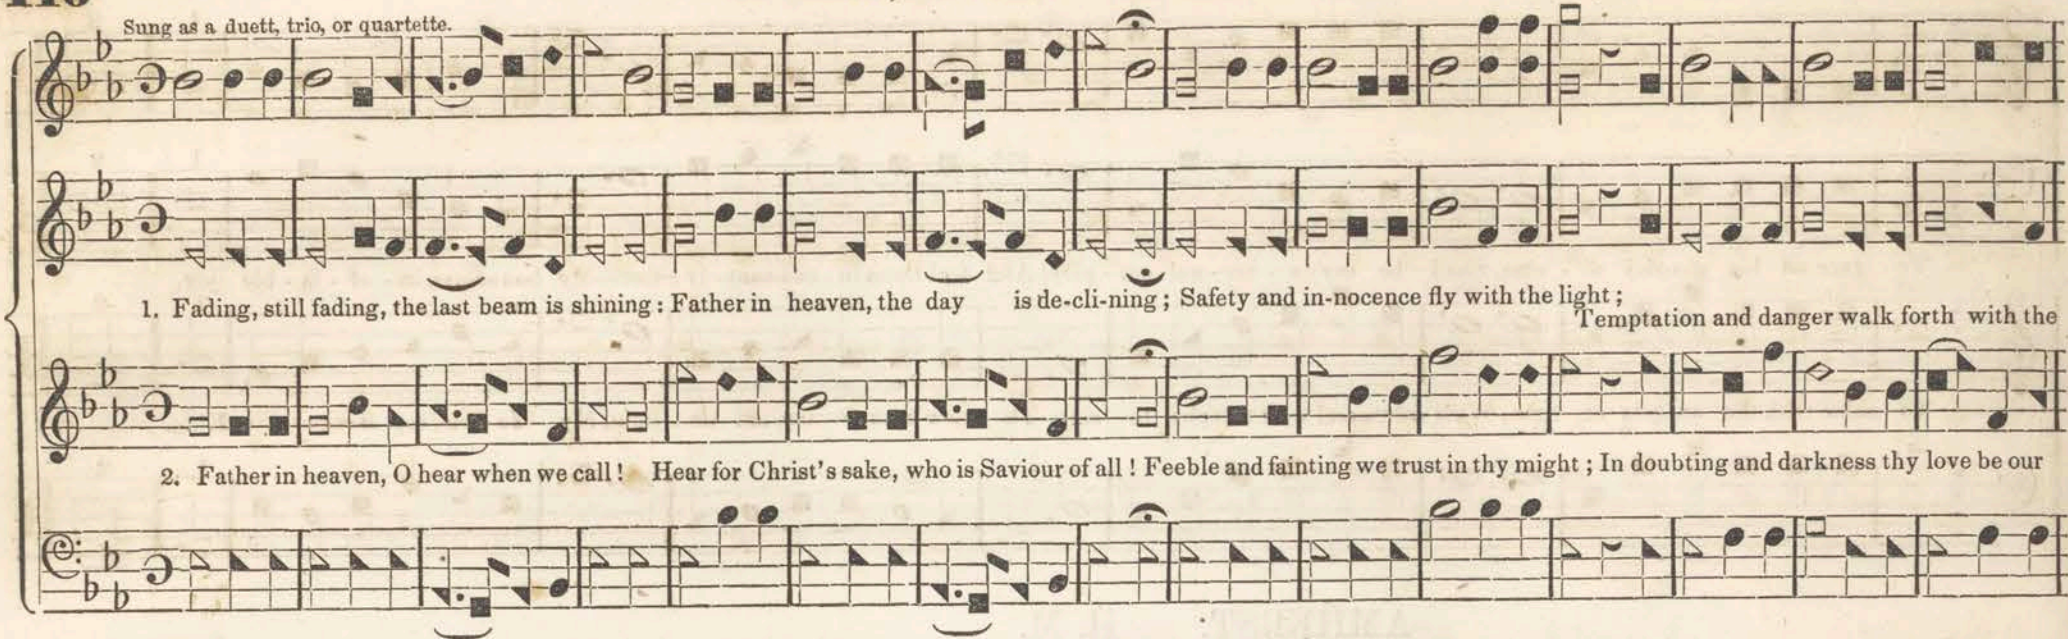

BILLINGS.

1. Lord of the worlds above, How pleasant and how fair The dwellings of thy love, Thine earthly tem - ples are ; To thine abode My heart aspires, With warm desires, To see my God.

2. The sparrow, for her young, And wand'ring swallows long My spirit faints To rise and dwell
With pleasure seeks her nest ; To find their wont - ed rest ; With e - qual zeal, Among thy saints.

3. O happy souls, that pray O happy men, that pay They praise thee still ; That love the way
Where God appoints to hear ! Their constant ser - vice there ! And hap - py they, To Zion's hill.

HYMN 841, Southern Methodist Hymn Book.

1. A NATION God delights to bless,
Can all our raging foes distress,
Or hurt whom they surround?

Hid from the gen'ral scourge we are,
Nor see the bloody waste of war,
Nor hear the trumpet's sound.

2. O may we, Lord, the grace improve,
By lab'ring for the rest of love,
The soul-composing power:

Bless us with that internal peace,
And all the fruits of righteousness,
Till time shall be no more.

Affetuoso.

4. Thou art passing away, as the first summer rose,
That awaits not the time when the Winter wind blows,
But hasteth away on the Autumn's quick gale,
And scatters its odors o'er mountain and dale.
5. The light of thy beauty has faded and gone,
For the withering chills have already come on:
Thy charms have departed—thy glory is fled;
And thou soon wilt be laid in the house of the dead.
6. Thou shalt soon be consigned to the cold, dreary tomb,
The lot of all living—mortality's doom:
Thou shalt there sweetly rest in the calmest repose,
Undisturbed by life's cares, and unpierced by its woes.
7. "Who, who would live always away from his God?
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns?"

1. Droop - ing souls, no long - er grieve, Hea - ven is pro - pi - tious: }
 If in Christ you do be - lieve, You will find him pre - cious. } Je - sus now is pass - ing by, Call - ing mourn - ers to him,

He hath died for you and me, Now look up and view him.

2. From his hands, his feet, his side,
 Runs the healing lotion;
 See the consoling tide,
 Boundless as the ocean!
 See the healing waters move,
 For the sick and dying!
 Now resolve to gain his love,
 Or to perish trying.
3. Grace's store is always free,
 Drooping souls to gladden;
 Jesus calls, "Come unto me,— Weary, heavy laden:"
 Though your sins like mountains high,
 Rise and reach to heaven,
 Soon as you on him rely,
 All shall be forgiven.
4. Now methinks I hear one say,
 "I will go and prove him;
 If he takes my sins away,
 Surely I shall love him;
 Yes! I see the Father smile,
 Now I lose my burden;
 All is grace, for I am vile,
 Yet he seals my pardon!"

1. Still out of the deepest a - byss Of trou-ble I mournfully cry ;
And pine to reco - ver my peace, And see my Redeemer and die : } I can-not, I can-not for - bear These passionate longings for home ; Oh !

when will my spir - it be there ! Oh ! when will the mes - sen - ger come !

2. Thy nature I long to put on,
Thine image on earth to regain ;
And then in the grave to lay down
This burden of body and pain.
O Jesus ! in pity draw near,
And lull me to sleep on thy breast :
Appear to my rescue, appear,
And gather me into thy rest !
3. To take a poor fugitive in,
The arms of thy mercy display ;
And give me to rest from all sin,
And bear me triumphant away ;
Away from a world of distress,
Away to the mansions above ;
The heaven of seeing thy face,
The heaven of feeling thy love !

1. Pris' - ners of hope, lift up your heads; The day of lib - er - ty draws near; Je - sus, who on the ser - pent treads, Shall soon in your be - half appear:

2. Ye all shall find, whom, in his word, Himself hath caused to put your trust; The Father of our dy - ing Lord Is ev - er to his promise just;

3. Yes, Lord, we must be - lieve thee kind! Thou nev - er canst unfaith - ful prove: Surely we shall thy mer - cy find, Who ask, shall all . . . re - ceive thy love:

The Lord will to, will to his tem - ple come; Pre - pare your hearts to make him room.

Faith - ful, if we, if we our sins con - fess, To cleanse from all un - righteous - ness.

Nor canst thou it, thou it to me de - ny; I ask, the chief . . . of sin - ners, I!

4. O ye, of fearful hearts, be strong!
Your downcast eyes and hands lift up!
Ye shall not be forgotten long:
Hope to the end—in Jesus hope!
Tell him ye wait his grace to prove,—
Ye cannot fail, if God is love!
5. Pris'ners of hope, be strong, be bold!
Cast off your doubts, disdain to fear!
Dare to believe! on Christ lay hold!
Wrestle with Christ in mighty prayer;
Tell him "We will not let thee go,
Till we thy name, thy nature know."
6. Hast thou not died to purge our sin,
And rose, thy death for us to plead?
To write thy law of love within
Our hearts, and make us free indeed
That we our Eden might regain,
Thou died'st, and couldst not die in vain.
7. Lord, we believe, and wait the hour
Which all thy great salvation brings;
The Spirit of love, and health, and pow'r,
Shall come, and make us priests and kings,
Thou wilt perform thy faithful word,
"The servant shall be as his Lord."

o - ver, No trou - ble I should see; But now I'm like a lone dove That mourns up - on the tree.

3. I wish it was with me now
As in the days of old,
When the glorious light of Jesus
Was shining in my soul;
But now I am distressed,
And no relief can find,—
A hard deceitful heart, and
A wretched wandering mind.

4. It is great pride and passion
Beset me on my way,
Thus I am fill'd with folly,
And so forget to pray:
While others run rejoicing
And seem to lose no time,
I am so weak I stumble,
And so am left behind.

2. Sometimes temptations blow
A dreadful hurricane,
And high the waters flow,
And o'er my sides break in,
But still my little ship outbraves
The blust'ring winds and surging waves.
3. When I, in my distress,
My anchor-hope can cast
Within the promises,
It holds my vessel fast:
Safely she then at anchor rides,
Midst stormy blasts and swelling tides.
4. If a dead calm ensues,
And heav'n no breezes give,
The oar of prayer I use,
And tug, and toil, and strive;
Thro' storms and calms, for many a day,
I make but very little way.
5. But when a heavenly breeze
Springs up and fills my sail,
My vessel goes with ease
Before the pleasant gale,

And runs as much an hour, or more,
As in a month or two before.

6. Hid by the clouds from sight,
The sun doth not appear,
Nor can I, in the night,
Behold the moon or star;
Sometimes for days, and weeks, or more,
I cannot see the sky or shore.

7. As at the time of noon,
My quadrant, FAITH, I take,
To view my CHRIST, my sun,
If he the clouds should break:
I'm happy when his face I see,
I know then whereabouts I be.

8. The Bible is my chart,
By it the seas I know;
I cannot with it part,
It rocks and sands doth show:
It is a chart and compass too,
Whose needle points for ever true.

MISS HATAWAY'S EXPERIENCE. L. M.

Arr'd by Wm. HOUSER.

421

The musical score consists of three staves. The top two staves are in treble clef with a key signature of two sharps (D major) and a 3/4 time signature. The bottom staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The music is a simple, rhythmic melody with square notes and rests.

1. Young wo - men all, I pray draw near, Lis - ten a - while and you shall hear, How sin and Sa - tan both did try To land my soul in mis - e - ry.
I, like the rest of hu - man kind, Was born in sin, both deaf and blind, And as my days ad - vanc'd, I grew The more debas'd, and form'd for wo.

2. No greater crimes did I commit.
Than thousands do delight in yet;—
That heinous crime, call'd civil mirth,
God threatens with his dreadful wrath.
I oftentimes to church did go,
My beauty and fine clothes to show;
About my soul I took no thought,
Christ and his grace to me were nought.

3. Full eighteen years around did roll,
Before I thought of my poor soul;
Which makes me shudder while I think
How near I stood upon the brink!
At length I heard a Baptist preach,
His words into my heart did reach;
He said, "You must be born again,
Or heav'n you never can obtain."

4. To keep the law I then was bent,
But found I fail'd in ev'ry point;
The law appear'd so just and true
Not one good duty could I do.
In silent watches of the night,
I went in secret, where I might,
Upon my knees, pour out my grief,
And pray to God for some relief.

5. My uncle said, "Don't look so dull,
Come go with me to yonder ball;
I'll dress you up in silk most fine,
And make you heir of all that's mine."
Dear uncle, that will never do,
It only will augment my wo;
Nor can I think true bliss to win,
If I shall still add sin to sin.

6. "Well, if you are resolved to turn,
And after silly babblers run,
None of my portion you shall have,
I will it to some other leave."
I am resolved to seek the Lord,
Perhaps he may his help afford—
Oh! help me mourn my wretched case,
For I am lost without free grace.

7. Just in this last extremity,
As almost helpless I did lie,
I thought I heard a still small voice
Cry out, "Rise up, in me rejoice!"
Then to my mind did one appear
Wounded by whip, and nail, and spear,
Bearing my sin, a mighty load,
That I might be a child of God.

Awak'd by Sinai's awful sound,
My soul in guilt and thrall I found,
And knew not where to go:
O'erwhelm'd in sin, with anguish slain—
The sinner must be born again,
Or sink in endless wo.

* This melody is taken almost literally from Clement Marot and Theodore De Beza's French translation of the Psalms, first published at Geneva, in 1543. The words are from the "New England Version" of the Psalms, first published at Cambridge, Mass., in 1640. See "Hood's History of Music in New England."

BREAK OF DAY. 8s & 7s, Peculiar.

And he said, "Let me go, for the day breaketh."—Gen. xxii. 26.

WM. HOUSER.

1. Let me go, the day is breaking, Dear com-pan-ions, let me go!
 We have spent a night of wak-ing, In the wil-der-ness be-low; } Upwards now I bend my way, Part we here at break-of day,

Part we here at break of day.

2. Let me go; I may not tarry,
 Wrestling thus with doubts and fears;
 Angels wait, my soul to carry
 Where my risen Lord appears:
 Friends and kindred, weep not so—
 If ye love me, let me go.

3. We have travel'd long together,
 Hand in hand, and heart in heart,
 Both through fair and stormy weather,
 And 'tis hard, 'tis hard to part:
 While I sigh "Farewell!" to you,
 Answer, one and all, "Adieu!"

4. 'Tis not darkness gath'ring round me,
 That withdraws me from your sight;
 Walls of flesh no more can bound me,
 But, translated into light,
 Like the lark on mounting wing,
 Though unseen, you hear me sing.

5. Heav'n's broad day hath o'er me broken,
 Far beyond earth's span of sky;
 Am I dead? nay, by this token,
 Know that I have ceased to die;
 Would you solve the mystery,
 Come up hither—come and see.

Follow where your Leader trod;
You soon shall see his face.
Soon, your enemies all slain,
The crown of glory you shall gain;
And walk among that glorious train
Who shout their Saviour's praise.

Je-sus, the Ho-ly child, shall sit High on his father Da - vid's throne; Shall crush his foes beneath his feet, And reign for a-ges yet unknown. Sing how he left the worlds of light, And the bright shining robes he wore; How swift and joy-ful was his flight, On wings of mer - cy, love, and pow'r.

1. How love - ly are thy tents, O Lord! Wher - e'er thou chooseth to re - cord Thy name, or place thy house of pray'r, My soul out - flies the an - gel choir, And faints, o'erpower'd with strong de - sire, To meet thy spe - cial pre - sence there.

2. Happy the man to whom 'tis given
To dwell within that gate of heav'n,
And in thy house record thy praise;
Whose strength and confidence thou art,
Who feel thee, Saviour, in their heart,
The Way, the Truth, the Life of grace.

3. Who, passing through the mournful vale,
Drink comfort from the living well,
That flows replenish'd from above;
From strength to strength advancing here,
Till all before their God appear,
And each receives the crown of love.

4. Better a day thy courts within,
Than thousands in the tents of sin:
How base the noblest pleasures there!
How great the weakest child of thine!
His meanest task is all divine,
And kings and priests thy servants are.

DAVIS' EXPERIENCE. 12s.

Arr'd by Wm. HOUSER.

1. Come, all ye young people, of ev' - ry re - la - tion, Come, listen awhile, and to you I will tell, }
 How I was first call-ed to seek for sal - va - tion, Redemption in Jesus, who sav'd me from hell : } I was not yet sixteen, when Jesus first called me, To think of my soul and the state I was in ; I saw myself standing a distance from Jesus, Between me and him was a mountain of sin.

2. The Devil perceived that I was convinced,
 And strove to persuade me that I was too young,
 That I would get weary before my ascension,
 And wish that I had not so early begun :
 Sometimes he'd persuade me that Jesus was partial,
 When he was a setting of poor sinners free,
 That I was forsaken, or was reprobated,
 And there was no mercy at all for poor me.
3. But glory to Jesus ! his love's not confined
 To princes, nor men of a noble degree ;
 His love flows most freely to all human creatures,
 He died for poor sinners when nail'd to the tree.
 And when I was groaning in sad lamentation,
 My soul overwhelmed in sorrow and grief,
 He drew near in mercy, look'd on me with pity,
 He pardon'd my sins, and he gave me relief.
4. And now I've found favor in Jesus my Saviour,
 And all his commandments I'm bound to obey ;
 I trust he will keep me from all Satan's power,
 Till he shall think proper to call me away.
 So farewell, young people, if I can't persuade you,
 To leave off your follies and go with a friend—
 I'll follow my Saviour, in whom I've found favor,
 My days to his glory I'm now bound to spend.

1. Now your festal rites prepare, Let your triumphs rend the air; Idol gods shall reign no more, We the living God a - dore. Let heathen hearts on human helps re-

2. Let remotest nations know
Proud Goliath's overthrow;
Fallen, Philistia, is thy trust,
Dagon's honor laid in dust;
Who fears the Lord of glory need not fear
The brazen armor or the golden spear.

3. See the routed squadrons fly!
Hark! their clamors rend the sky;
Blood and carnage stain the field—
See the vanquish'd nations yield!
Dismay and terror fill the afflicted land,
While conqu'ring David routs the trembling band.

4. Lo! upon the tented field,
Royal Saul has thousands kill'd;
Lo! upon the sanguine plain,
David has ten thousands slain:
Let mighty Saul his vanquish'd thousands tell,
While David's votaries tenfold triumphs swell.

CHORUS.

1. Whither goest thou, Pilgrim stranger, Passing thro' this darksome vale ! } I am bound for the kingdom, Hal-le - lu - jah ! O hal-le - lu - jah !
 Know'st thou not 'tis full of danger, And will not thy courage fail ? } Will you go to glo-ry with me ?

2. PILGRIM thou dost justly call me,
 Wandering o'er this waste so wide:
 Yet no harm will e'er befall me,
 While I'm bless'd with such a GUIDE.
3. Such a Guide !—no guide attends thee,
 Hence for thee my fears arise;
 If a guardian pow'r befriend thee,
 'Tis unseen by mortal eyes.

4. Yes, unseen—but still, believe me,
 Such a Guide my steps attends;
 He'll in ev'ry strait relieve me;
 He from ev'ry harm defends.
5. Pilgrim ! see that stream before thee,
 Darkly winding thro' the vale;
 Should its deadly waves roll o'er thee,
 Would not then thy courage fail ?

6. No; that stream has nothing frightful,
 To its brink my steps I bend,
 There to plunge will be delightful—
 There my pilgrimage will end.
7. While I gazed—with speed surprising,
 Down the stream she plunged from sight:
 Gazing still—I saw her rising,
 Like an angel—cloth'd with light.

Dis-miss us with thy blessing, Lord, Help us to feed up - on thy word; } Tho' we are guil-ty, thou art good, Wash all our works in Je-sus' blood;
All that has been a - miss, forgive, And let thy truth with-in us live. }

Give ev'-ry fetter'd soul re-lease, And bid us all de-part in peace, Give ev'-ry, &c.

Thus saith the high and lofty One, I sit up-on my ho-ly throne, My name is God, I dwell on high, Dwell in my own e - ter - ni - ty. But I descend to worlds be-

O HOW PLEASANT. 7s.

Infant Piece.

Treble and Alto by WM. HOUSER.

1. O how plea-sant 'tis to see Lit-tle chil-dren all a - gree; Hymn-ing notes of joy and praise, In the morn-ing of their days.

2. Ev' - ry bird that lifts the wing Has some note of praise to sing; All the songs that cheer the grove Swell with sym - pa - thy and love.

3. Children, im - i - tate their lays; Sound your sweetest notes of praise; Raise your songs of glad-ness high, To the re-gions of the sky.

4. All your tongues were made to sing Prais-es to th' E - ter - nal King; Love should blend with ev' - ry strain, Love to God, and love to men.

The musical score is arranged in four systems. Each system contains a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The music is in a 2/4 time signature and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are printed below the corresponding treble clef staves.

1. What sorrowful sounds do I hear, Move slowly along in the gale? How solemn they fall on my ear, As, soft-ly, they pass thro' the vale! Sweet Cory-don's notes are all o'er,

2. Sweet woodbines will rise round his tomb, Young hyacinths freshen and bloom, Each morn, when the sun gilds the east,
And willows there sorrowing wave; While hawthorns encir - cle his grave.

Now, lone-ly, he sleeps in the clay; His cheeks bloom with roses no more, Since death call'd his spirit a - way.

(The green grass bespangled with dew,) To charm the sad Car - o - line's view.
He'll cast his bright beams on the west,

3. O Corydon! hear the sad cries
Of Caroline, plaintive and slow;
O spirit! look down from the skies,
And pity thy mourner below;
'Tis Caroline's voice in the grove,
Which Philomel hears on the plain;
Then, striving the mourner to soothe,
With sympathy joins in her strain.
4. Ye shepherds, so blithesome and young,
Retire from your sports on the green;
Since Corydon's deaf to my song,
The wolves tear the lambs on the plain;
Each swain round the forest will stray,
And sorrowing, hang down his head;
His pipe then in symphony play
Some dirge to sweet Corydon's shade.
5. And when the still night has unfur'd
Her robes o'er the hamlets around,
Gray twilight retires from the world,
And darkness encumbers the ground:
I'll leave my own gloomy abode,—
To Corydon's urn will I fly,
There, kneeling, will bless the just God,
Who dwells in bright mansions on high.

This spa-cious earth is all the Lord's, And men, and worms, and beasts, and birds; He raised the building on the seas, And gave it for their dwelling-place. But there's a bright-er world on high, Thy pal - ace, Lord, a - bove the sky; Who shall as - cend that blest a - bode, And dwell so near his Ma - ker, God?

That preachers and people are only a rabble,
And this is no place for reflection and prayer.

When the Jewish nation had laid the foundation,
To rebuild the temple at Ezra's command,
Some wept and some praised, such noise there was raised,
'Twas heard afar off, and perhaps through the land.

6. And as for the preacher, Ezekiel the teacher,
God taught him to stamp and to smite with the hand,
To show the transgressions of that wicked nation—
To bid them repent and obey the command.
For Scripture collation in this dispensation,
The blessed Redeemer has handed it out—
"If these cease from praising," we hear him there saying,
"The stones to reprove them would quickly cry out."

7. Then Scripture's contrasted, for Paul has protested
 That order should reign in the house of the Lord—
 Amid such a clatter who knows what's the matter ?
 Or who can attend unto what is declared ?
 To see them behaving like drunkards, all raving,
 And lying and rolling prostrate on the ground,
 I really felt awful, and sometimes felt fearful
 That I'd be the next that would come tumbling down.

Meth.

8. You say you felt awful—you ought to be careful
 Lest you grieve the Spirit, and so he depart,
 For by your confession you've felt some impression,
 The sweet melting showers have soften'd your heart :
 You fear persecution, and that's a delusion
 Brought in by the devil to stop up your way ;
 Be careful, my brother, for blest are no other
 Than persons that "are not offended in Me."

9. As Peter was preaching, and bold in his teaching,
 The plan of salvation in Jesus's name,
 The Spirit descended, and some were offended,
 And said of these men, "They are fill'd with new wine."

I never yet doubted that some of them shouted,
 While others lay prostrate, by power struck down ;
 Some weeping, some praising, while others were saying,
 "They're drunkards, or fools, or in falsehood abound."

10. As time is now flying and moments are dying,
 We're call'd to improve them, and quickly prepare
 For that awful hour when Jesus, in power
 And glory is coming—'tis now drawing near :
 Methinks there'll be shouting, and I'm not a doubting,
 But crying and screaming for mercy in vain ;
 Therefore, my dear brother, let us pray together,
 That your precious soul may be fill'd with the flame.

Form.

11. I own prayer's now needful, I really feel awful
 That I've grieved the Spirit in time that is past ;
 But I'll look to my Saviour, and hope to find favor,
 The storms of temptation will not always last :
 I'll strive for the blessing, and pray without ceasing,
 His mercy is sure unto all that believe :—
 My heart is now glowing ! I feel his love flowing !
 Peace, pardon, and comfort I now do receive !

2. Let me go to the spot where the cataracts play,
Where I often have sported in boyhood's bright day,
And there greet my fond mother, whose heart will o'erflow
At the sight of her child; let me go, let me go,
At the sight of her child, oh! there let me go!
3. Let me go to my sire, by whose battle-scarr'd side
I have sported so oft in the noon of my pride,
And exulted to conquer the insolent foe;
To my father, the chief, let me go, let me go,
To my father, the chief, oh! there let me go!
4. And, oh! do let me go to my flashing-eyed maid,
Who hath taught me to love 'neath the green willow's shade,
Whose heart, like the fawn leaps—as pure as the snow;
To the bosom I love let me go, let me go,
To the bosom I love, oh! there let me go!
5. And, oh! do let me go to my wild forest home,
No more from its life-cheering pleasures to roam;
'Neath the grove of the glen let my ashes lie low:
To my home in the woods, let me go, let me go,
To my home in the woods, oh! there let me go!

* "This song, it is said, was composed by the son of a chief of one of the Western tribes, who was sent to Washington city to make a treaty with the United States, which treaty was delayed for awhile by unavoidable circumstances." So. HARMONY, edit. of 1847.

1. Ma - ry had a lit - tle lamb,—Its fleece was white as snow; And ev' - ry-where that Ma - ry went, The lamb was sure to go;

2. So the teach - er turn'd him out; But still he lin - ger'd near, And wait - ed pa - tient - ly with - out, Till Ma - ry did ap - pear;

3. "What makes the lamb love Mary so?" The ea - ger chil - dren cry; "O, Ma - ry loves the lamb, you know," The teach - er did re - ply;

It fol - low'd her to school, one day,—That was a - gainst the rule: It made the chil - dren laugh and play, To see a lamb at school.

And then he ran to her, and laid His head up - on her arm, As if he said—I'm not a-fraid,—You'll keep me from all harm.

"And you each gen - tle an - i - mal In con - fi - dence may bind, And make them fol - low at your call, If you are al - ways kind."

1. All the week we spend, Full of child-ish bliss; }
 Ev'-ry changing scene Brings its hap-pi-ness; } Yet our joys would not be full, Had we not the Sab-bath school,

2. Love-ly is the dawn Of each ri-sing day; }
 Love-li-est the morn Of the Sab-bath day; } Then our in-fant thoughts are full Of the pre-cious Sab-bath school,

Yet our joys would not be full, Had we not the Sabbath school, Had we not the Sab-bath school.

Then our in-fant thoughts are full Of the precious Sab-bath school, Of the precious Sab-bath school.

3. To our happy ears
 Blessed news is brought;
 Tidings of the work
 Love divine hath wrought;
 Gracious news, and merciful;
 How we love the Sabbath school!
4. Teachers, you are kind,
 Thus to point the road
 Leading us from sin,
 To our Father, God;
 May we all be dutiful,
 In the precious Sabbath school!
5. Sweetly fades the light
 Of each passing day;
 Fairest is the night
 Of the Sabbath day;
 Then our hearts, with praise, are full,
 For the precious Sabbath school.

1. Come, chil-dren, young and low-ly, A-loud your voi-ces raise To Je-sus, King of glo-ry,—He stoops to hear your praise.

2. Ye youth-ful tribes, re-mem-ber His con-de-scent-ing grace Dis-play'd when he did wan-der A-mong an in-fant race;

3. Is Je-sus now less love-ly, Or is that crown less bright, That decks his brow in glo-ry, Un-fold-ing daz-zling light?

4. Till round the world the sto-ry Of Je-sus' death shall spread, And hea-then lands shall glo-ry In Christ, their liv-ing Head;

His heart is all com-pas-sion, His voice is full of love; Come, then, let ad-o-ra-tion For-bid your hearts to rove.

For-get-ting all his great-ness, He blest the ten-der throng: While they, with in-fant sweet-ness, Ho-san-nahs to him sung.

O no; he still is will-ing To bless the youthful race! Then each—let each, ex-cel-ling, Ex-tol his glorious grace,

Then, in one heav'nly u-nion, Your hal-le-lu-jahs bring, And serve, in sweet com-mu-nion, The ev-er-last-ing King!

1. When, His sal - va - tion bringing, To Zi - on Je - sus came, The chil - dren all stood sing - ing Ho - san - nah to his name.

2. And since the Lord re - tain - eth His love for chil - dren still; Though now, as King, he reign - eth On Zi - on's heav'n - ly hill;

3. For, should we fail pro - claim - ing Our great Re - deem - er's praise, The stones, our si - lence shaming, Might well ho - san - nah raise.

Nor did their zeal of - fend him; A - mid that might - y throng, He let them still at - tend him, Well pleased to hear their song.

We'll flock a - round his ban - ner, Who sits up - on the throne, And cry a - loud, "Ho - san - nah To Da - vid's roy - al Son!"

But shall we on - ly ren - der The trib - ute of our words? No! while our hearts are ten - der, They, too, shall be the Lord's.

1. Hear the roy - al pro - cla - ma - tion, The glad tidings of sal - va - tion, Publish - ing to ev' - ry crea - ture, To the ruin'd sons of nature ; Je - sus reigns, he reigns vic - to - rious, O - ver heav'n and earth most glo - ri - ous, Je - sus reigns.

| 2. See the royal banner flying,
Hear the heralds loudly crying,
Rebel sinners ! royal favour
Now is offer'd by the Saviour :
Lo ! he reigns, &c. | 6. For this love let rocks and mountains,
Purling streams and crystal fountains,
Roaring thunders, lightning blazes,
Shout the great Messiah's praises.
Lo ! he reigns, &c. |
| 3. Hear, ye sons of wrath and ruin,
Who have wrought your own undoing !
Here is life and free salvation,
Offer'd to the whole creation,—
Jesus reigns, &c. | 7. Shout, ye tongues of ev'ry nation,
To the bounds of the creation,
Shout the praise of Judah's Lion,
The Almighty King of Zion.
Jesus reigns, &c. |
| 4. Turn unto the Lord most holy,
Shun the paths of vice and folly ;
Turn, or you are lost for ever,
O now turn to God your Saviour !
Lo ! he reigns, &c. | 8. Now our souls have caught new fire,
Brethren, raise your voices higher,
Shout with joyful acclamation,
To the Prince of our salvation.
Jesus reigns, &c. |
| 5. Here is wine, and milk, and honey,
Come and purchase without money—
Mercy, like a flowing fountain,
Streaming from the holy mountain.
Jesus reigns, &c. | 9. Shout, ye saints, make joyful mention,
Christ has purchased our redemption ;
Angels, shout the pleasing story,
Thro' the brighter worlds of glory.
Jesus reigns, &c. |

ROYAL PROCLAMATION. (Another arrangement.)

Arr'd by A. DAVISSON.

Hear the roy-al pro-cla-ma-tion, The glad tidings of sal-va-tion, Publishing to ev'-ry crea-ture, To the ru-in'd sons of nature; Je-sus reigns, he reigns victorious,

CHORUS.

Parts by Wm. HOUSER.

TIPPETT. C. M.

Infant Piece.

Air by CHAS. DINGLEY.

Over heav'n and earth most glorious, Jesus reigns.

1. I saw a little child at play, Beside a glassy pool, Where soft the dancing sunbeams lay, Upon the waters cool.

2. I saw him cast a little stone In-to that peaceful tide, And watch the wavelets one by one, Spread circling far and wide.

3. I thought about a purer wave,
For all the nations given,
The precious blood a Saviour gave
'To make us meet for heav'n.

4. Dear children, if your hearts you bring,
Where those bright waters glide,
As spreads each gently circling ring
Upon that quiet tide;

5. So from each heart, beneath that wave,
Sweet influence may spring,
Some distant heart from death to save,
Some soul to heav'n to bring.

6. Far as the ocean's waves extend,
Far as earth's shores are spread,
So far that heart its love may send,
For which a Saviour bled!

1. See the leaves a - round us fall - ing, Dry and with - er'd, to the ground; Thus to thoughtless mor - tals call - ing, In a sad and sol - emn sound—

2. "Virgins, much, too much pre - sum - ing On your boast - ed white and red; View us, late in beau - ty blooming, Number'd now a - mong the dead:

3. "Yearly in our course re - turn - ing, Mes - sen - gers of shortest stay; Thus we preach this truth con - cern - ing, Heav'n and earth shall pass a - way;

"Sons of Ad - am, (once in E - den, When, like us, he blighted fell,) Hear the lec - ture we are read - ing; 'Tis, a - las! the truth we tell.

Youths, tho' yet no loss - es grieve you, Gay in health and many a grace; Let no cloudless skies de - ceive you; Summer gives to Au - tumn place.

O come, come a - way!

The Sabbath bells are ringing clear,
Their joyous peals sa - lute my ear, I love their voice to hear;
O come, come a - way!

meet them there;
O come, come a - way!

'Tis there we meet to sing and pray,
To read God's word on his glad day, With joy let's haste a-way,
O come, come a - way!

be my choice;
O come, come a - way!

How dear to hear the plaintive strain,
From youthful voice-es rise a-main, With sweet-est tones a-gain!
O come, come a - way!

4. 'Tis there I may learn the ways of heavenly wisdom,
To guide my feeble steps on high; O come, &c.
The flow'ry paths of peace to tread,
Where rays of heavenly bliss are shed,
My wand'ring steps to lead: O come, &c.
5. I there hear the voice in heavenly accents speaking,
"Let little children come to me; O come, &c.
Forbid them not their hearts to give,
Let them on me in youth believe,
And I will them receive:" O come, &c.
6. With joy I accept the gracious invitation;
My heart exults with rapturous hope; O come, &c.
My deathless spirit, when I die,
Shall, on the wings of angels, fly
To mansions in the sky: O come, &c.

ATKINSON. 11s.

E'en down to old age all my people shall prove,
My sov'reign, e-ter-nai, unchangeable love;

And when hoary hairs shall their temples adorn,
Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.

Not too fast.

1. Thou, my God, art good and wise, And in - fi - nite in pow'r : } Give me thy con-vert - ing grace, That I may o-be - dient prove ; Serve my Ma-ker Thee, let all in earth or skies Con - tin - ually a - dore ! }

all my days, And my Re - deem - er love.

2. For my life, and clothes, and food,
And ev'ry comfort here,
Thee, my most indulgent God,
I thank with heart sincere :
For the blessings numberless,
Which thou hast already given ;
For my smallest spark of grace,
And for my hope of heaven.

3. Gracious God, my sins forgive,
And thy good Spirit impart !
Then shall I in thee believe,
With all my loving heart :
Always unto Jesus look,
Him in heav'nly glory see,
Who my cause hath undertook,
And ever prays for me.

4. Grace, in answer to his pray'r,
And every grace bestow ;
That I may, with zealous care,
Perform thy will below ;
Rooted in humility,
Still in ev'ry state resign'd,
Plant, Almighty Lord, in me
A meek and lowly mind.

5. Poor and vile in mine own eyes,
With self-abasing shame,
Still I would myself despise,
And magnify thy name ;
Thee, let ev'ry creature bless,
Praise to God alone be giv'n ;
God alone deserves the praise
Of all in earth and heav'n.

NEW FAREWELL. Ss & 7s.

475

Fare - well, my lov - ing friends, farewell! We must be sep - a - ra - ted, }
 In diff' - rent re - gions we must dwell, Dis - tant - ly sit - u - a - ted. } O let not this our friend - ship chill, Tho' moun - tains rise be - tween us ;
 D. C. May truth and jus - tice guide our will, And God from e - vil screen us.

Plaintive.

DWIGHT. C. M.

* 1. As crush'd by sud - den storms, the rose Sinks on the gar - den's breast, Down to the grave our brother goes, In death's cold arms to rest.
 2. No more with us his tune - ful voice The hymn of praise shall swell; No more his cheer - ful heart re - joice To hear the Sab - bath bell.
 3. Yet if in yon un - cloud - ed sphere, A - mid a bless - ed throng, He war - bles to his Sa - viour's ear, The e - ver - last - ing song;
 4. No more we'll mourn our bu - ried friend, But lift the ar - dent pray'r, And ev' - ry wish and ef - fort bend To rise and join him there.

* On the death of a Sabbath scholar.

CHALMERS. C. M.

Infant piece. [Scotch.]

1. Hap - py the child, whose ten - der years Re - ceive in - struc - tion well; Who hates the sin - ner's path, and fears The road that leads to hell.

2. When we de - vote our youth to God, 'Tis pleas - ing in his eyes; A flow'r, when of - fer'd in the bud, Is no vain sac - ri - fice.

3. 'Tis ea - sier work, if we be - gin - To serve the Lord be - times; While sin - ners that grow old in sin Are har - den'd in their crimes.

6. Let the sweet work of prayer and praise Em - ploy our young - est breath; Thus, we're pre - pared for long - er days, Or fit for ear - ly death.

Treble by WM. HOUSER.

LABAN. S. M.

Piece for children.

1. There is beyond the sky A heav'n of joy and love; And ho - ly children, when they die, Go to that world a - bove.

2. There is a dreadful hell, And ev - er - last - ing pains: There sinners must with de - vils dwell, In darkness, fire, and chains.

3. Can such a wretch as I Es - cape that curs - ed end? And may I hope, whene'er I die, I shall to heav'n as - cend?

4. Then will I read and pray, While I have life and breath; Lest I should be cut - off to - day, And sent to endless death.

As a solo, duett, or trio, except the Chorus.

VESPER HYMN. 8s & 7s.

Russian Air.

477

Treble and Bass by W. HOUSER.

* 1. Hark ! the Vesper hymn is steal-ing O'er the waters soft and clear; Nearer yet, and nearer pealing, Now it bursts up-on the ear: Ju-bi-la-te! Ju-bi-la-te!

2. Now like moonlight waves retreating To the shore, it dies a-long; Now, like an-gry surges meeting, Breaks the mingled tide of song: Ju-bi-la-te! Ju-bi-la-te!

Ju-bi-la-te! A-men! Farther now, and farther stealing, Soft it fades up-on the ear.

Ju-bi-la-te! A-men! Hush! a-gain, like waves re-treat-ing To the shore, it dies a-long.

HYMN.

1. God our Father, great Creator,
At thy feet we humbly bow;
Gratitude for boundless favor,
Should in praises ever flow;
Great Jehovah,
Praise to thee is ever due.
2. Gracious Jesus, mighty Saviour,
Hear our lisplings to thy praise;
'Thou didst bless such little children,
And invite them to thy face;
Son of David,
Loud hosannas to thy name.

* A single voice announces the Vesper hymn as stealing on the ear from a distance, "o'er the waters;" whence we imagine the sounds will be constantly varying in loudness or softness, and in their apparent distance from the listener. As the single voice proceeds, the "Jubilate" comes in, in Cres., Dim., &c. But the piece is here prepared for Singing School, or Church service.

Treble and Bass by WM. HOUSER.

1. Shed not a tear o'er your friend's early bier, When I am gone, when I am gone: Smile if the slow toll-ing bell you should hear, When I am gone, I am gone.

2. Plant you a tree which may wave o-ver me, When I am gone, when I am gone: Sing you a song if my grave you should see, When I am gone, I am gone.

Weep not for me as you stand round my grave, Think Who has died his be - lov - ed to save; Think of the crown all the ransom'd shall have, When I am gone, I am gone.

Come at the close of a bright sum-mer day, Come when the sun sheds his last ling'ring ray, Come, and re-joice that I thus pass'd a-way, When I am gone, I am gone.

JESHURUN. 7,6,7,6,7,7,6.

Parts, mostly by Wm. Houser.

1. None is like Je - shu - run's God, So great, so strong, so high! }
 Lo! he spreads his wings a - broad! He rides up - on the sky. } Is - rael is his first-born son, God, th' Al - migh - ty God is thine!
 D. C. See him to thy help come down, The ex - cel - lence di - vine!

2. Thee, the great Jehovah deigns
 To succor and defend;
 Thee th' eternal God sustains,
 Thy Maker and thy Friend:
 Israel, what hast thou to dread?
 Safe from all impending harms,
 Round thee, and beneath are spread,
 The everlasting Arms.

3. God is thine; disdain to fear
 The enemy within:
 God shall in thy flesh appear,
 And make an end of sin;
 God the man of sin shall slay,
 Fill thee with triumphant joy;
 God shall thrust him out, and say,
 "Destroy them all, destroy!"

4. All the struggle then is o'er,
 And wars and fightings cease:
 Israel then shall sin no more,
 But dwell in perfect peace:
 All his enemies are gone;
 Sin shall have in him no part:
 Israel then shall dwell alone,
 With Jesus in his heart.

5. In a land of corn and wine
 His lot shall be below:
 Comforts there, and blessings join,
 And milk and honey flow!
 Jacob's well is in his soul:
 Gracious dews his heav'ns distil,
 Fill his soul, already full,
 And shall for ever fill.

6. Blest, O Israel, art thou!
 What people is like thee!
 Sav'd from sin, by Jesus now,
 Thou art, and still shalt be:
 Jesus is thy sev'nfold shield,
 Jesus is thy flaming sword;
 Earth, and hell, and sin shall yield
 To God's Almighty Word.

THERE'S NOT A TINT. C. M.

1. There's not a tint that paints the rose Or decks the lil - y fair, Or streaks the hum-blest flow'r that blows, But God has plac'd it there, Or

2. There's not of grass a single blade, Or leaf of low - liest mien, Where heav'n-ly skill is not display'd, And heav'nly wisdom seen, Where

3. There's not a star whose twinkling light Il - lumes the dis - tant earth, And cheers the so - lemn gloom of night, But Heaven gave it birth, And

4. There's not a place in earth's vast round, In o - cean's deep, or air, Where skill and wis - dom are not found, For God is ev'-ry - where, Where streaks the humblest flow'r that blows, But God has plac'd it there.

heav'nly skill is not display'd, And heav'n-ly wis - dom seen.

cheers the solemn gloom of night, But Heav - en gave it birth.

skill and wisdom are not found, For God is ev' - ry - where.

AMERICAN GRATITUDE. 8s & 7s.

Words by LOVELL.

1. Up to thee, Al - migh - ty Fath - er, An - cient of e - ter - nal days, }
Thron'd in un - cre - a - ted glo - ry, Hear us, while our songs we raise. }

2. While a na - tion's heart is leap - ing, Migh - ty in its gush - ing joy, }
May the song of ad - o - ra - tion, All its grate - ful pow'rs em - ploy. }

AMERICAN GRATITUDE. Concluded.

Praise for thy un - ceas - ing boun - ty, Pour'd with an in - dul - gent hand; Praise for bless - ings still in - creas - ing, Crown - ing free - dom's fa - vor'd land.

Thine, O Lord, shall be the king - dom; Thine the pow'r and glo - ry be; Thine thro' end - less a - ges roll - ing, Thine through - out e - ter - ni - ty.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL FAREWELL. C. M. D.

Arr'd by W. HOUSER. D.C.

1. Fare-well, dear friend! a long fare-well, For we shall meet no more, }
 Till we are rais'd with thee, to dwell On Zi-on's hap - py shore. }
 D. C. Has made in dust its si - lent bed, And there it must de - cay. Our friend and bro - ther, lo! is dead! The cold and life-less clay

2. But is he dead?—no, no, he lives! His hap - py spir - it flies }
 To heav'n a - bove; and there re - ceives The long ex - pect - ed prize. }
 D. C. And when we meet, no tongue can tell How great our joys shall be. Fare-well, dear friend, a - gain fare-well! Soon we shall rise to thee:

2. Loud roaring, the billows now nigh overwhelm,
But skilful's the Pilot that sits at the helm;
His wisdom conducts thee, his power thee defends,
In safety and quiet thy warfare he ends.

3. "O fearful, O faithless!" in mercy he cries,
"My promise, my truth, are the light of thine eyes;
Still, still I am with thee, my promise shall stand,
Through tempest and tossing I'll bring thee to land.

4. Forget thee, I will not, I cannot—thy name
Engraved on my heart, doth ever remain;
The palms of my hands when I look on, I see
The wounds I received while suff'ring for thee."

483

When shall I be de - liv - er'd From this vain world of sin? And with my bless - ed Je - sus Drink end - less pleas - ures in.

The following Chorus is generally sung to the last part of the tune, omitting the slurs:—
 "To see the saints in glo - ry, And the an - gels stand in - vi - ting! And the an - gels stand in - vi - ting, To wel - come trav' - lers home!"

THE LAST ROSE OF SUMMER. 11s.

Andante con Expressivo.

Irish Melody.
D. C.

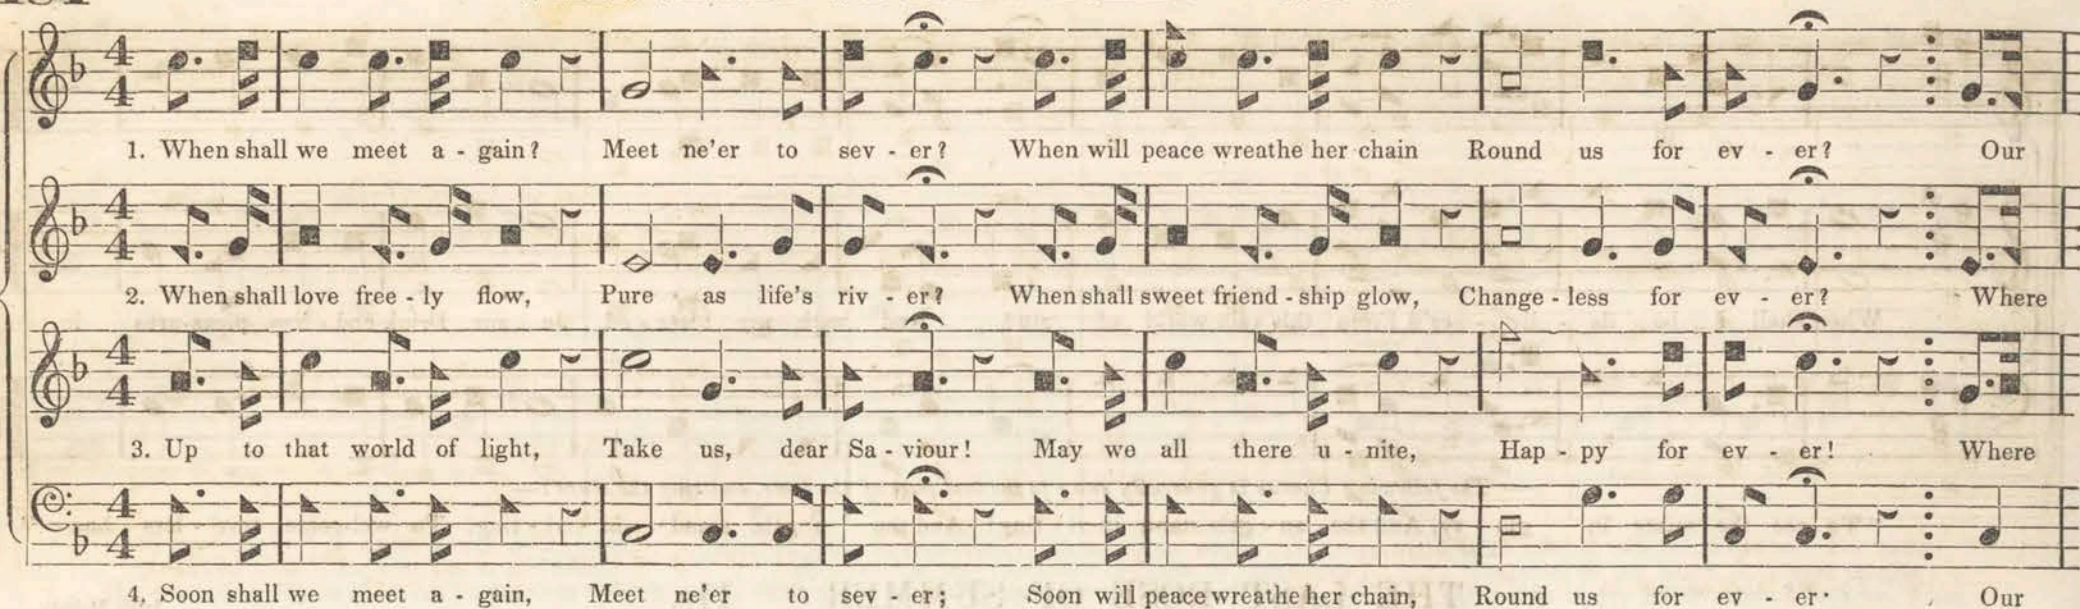

1. 'Tis the last rose of summer, left bloom - ing a - lone, } No flow'r of its kin - dred, no rose - bud is nigh,
 All its for - mer com - pan - ions are fa - - ded and gone; }

D. C. To re - flect back its blush - es or give sigh for sigh.

D. C.

2. I'll not leave thee, thou lone one, to pine on the stem,
 Since the lovely are sleeping, go, slumber with them:
 Thus kindly I'll scatter thy leaves o'er thy bed,
 Where thy mates of the garden lie scentless and dead.

3. So soon may I follow, when friendships decay,
 And from love's shining circle the gems drop away!
 When true hearts lie wither'd, and fond ones are flown,
 Oh! who would inhabit this bleak world alone?

1. When shall we meet a - gain? Meet ne'er to sev - er? When will peace wreathe her chain Round us for ev - er? Our

2. When shall love free - ly flow, Pure as life's riv - er? When shall sweet friend - ship glow, Change - less for ev - er? Where

3. Up to that world of light, Take us, dear Sa - viour! May we all there u - nite, Hap - py for ev - er! Where

4. Soon shall we meet a - gain, Meet ne'er to sev - er; Soon will peace wreathe her chain, Round us for ev - er. Our hearts will ne'er re - pose, Safe from each blast that blows, In this dark vale of woes, Nev - er, no, nev - er!

joys ce - les - tial thrill, Where bliss each heart shall fill, And fears of part - ing chill, Nev - er, no, nev - er!

kin - dred spir - its dwell, There may our mu - sic swell; And time our joys dis - pel, Nev - er, no, nev - er!

hearts will then re - pose, Se - cure from world - ly woes; Our songs of praise shall close, Nev - er, no, nev - er!

CHEERING THOUGHT. 11s.

Parts arr'd by Wm. HOUSER. 485

1. How charming the thought, that the spirits of bliss
Will bow their bright wings to a world such as this; Will leave the sweet joys of the mansions above,
To breathe o'er our bosoms some message [of love.]

2. They come, on the wings of the morning they come,
Impatient to lead some poor wanderer home; Some pilgrim to snatch from this stormy abode,
And lay him to rest on the bosom of God.

JOYFUL NEWS. C. M.

1. That Je - sus hears when chil - dren pray, Is joy - ful news to me: I'll seek his face with - out de - lay, And cry "Re - mem - ber me!"

2. Dear Saviour, look up - on a child Who fain would wor - ship thee; By na - ture I am all defiled, But oh! re - mem - ber me.

3. Through all the dang'rous paths of youth, Do thou my Lead - er be; Teach me to walk the way of truth—Dear Lord, re - mem - ber me.

1. What's this that steals, that steals upon my frame! Is it death? is it death? }
That soon will quench, will quench this mortal flame! Is it death? is it death? } If this be death I soon shall be From ev'-ry pain and sor-row free;

2. Weep not, my friends, my friends weep not for me, All is well! All is well! }
My sins for-giv'n, forgiv-en, I am free, All is well! All is well! } There's not a cloud that doth a-rise, To hide my Je-sus from my eyes;

3. Tune, tune your harps, your harps, ye saints on high, All is well! All is well! }
I too will strike my harp with equal joy, All is well! All is well! } Bright angels are from glo-ry come, They're round my bed, they're in my room,

I shall the King of glory see: All is well! All is well!

I soon shall mount the upper skies: All is well! All is well.

They wait to waft my spirit home: All is well! All is well!

ALL IS WELL. [Another arrangement.]

4. Hark! hark! my Lord, my Lord and Master's voice Calls a-way! Calls a-way! }
I soon shall see— en-joy my happy choice, Why de-lay? Why de-lay? }

5. Hail! hail! all hail! all hail, ye blood-wash'd throng, Sav'd by grace, Sav'd by grace! }
I come to join, to join your rap'trous song, Sav'd by grace, Sav'd by grace! }

1. Come, let us learn to sing, *Fa, sol, la, fa, sol, la, mi, fa: Loud let our voi-ces ring, Fa, sol, la, fa, sol, la, mi, fa: Let us sing with o-pen sound,

English national air, "God save the king."
Words by Rev. S. F. Smith of Boston, Mass.

1. My coun - try, 'tis of thee, Of thee I sing; Land of the Pilgrim's pride; Let freedom ring.
Sweet land of lib - er - ty, Land where my fathers died; From ev' - ry mountain side.

2. My na - tive country! thee, Thy name I love; Thy woods and templed hills; Like that a - bove.
Land of the no - ble free, I love thy rocks and rills, My heart with rapture thrills,

3. Let mu - sic swell the breeze, Sweet freedom's song: Let all that breathe partake, The sound pro - long.
And ring from all the trees, Let mortal tongues awake, Let rocks their silence break,

4. Our fathers' God! to thee, Author of lib - erty! To thee we sing; Long may our land be bright, With freedom's holy light; Protect us by thy might, Great God our King!

2. The winding-sheet enclosed his breast,
 For in a coarse shroud we had bound him,
 And he lay like a drunkard, taking his rest,
 With his mantle closed around him.
 Ah! few and short were the prayers we said,
 From his life no hope could we borrow;
 But we steadfastly gazed on the face of the dead,
 And we thought of a judgment with sorrow.

3. We thought, as we heaped his narrow bed,
 And smoothed down his lonely pillow,
 Of the worms that would speedily feast on the dead—
 And his soul cast adrift on the billow!
 Ah! what shall we say of the spirit that's gone!
 In mirth, or in anger upbraid him?
 Nay, for nothing he'll reck, but in silence sleep on,
 In the dark, gloomy grave where we laid him.

4. And then when our heavy task was done,
 And the hour had arrived for retiring,
 We sadly reflected that many a one
 From intemperance now was expiring.
 O Father in heaven, with mercy look down
 On drunkards, both youthful and hoary!
 Reclaim them from error, and make them thine own,
 And exalt them at last to thy glory.

3. Yet lift not the wine-cup, though pleasures may swim
Mid the bubbles that flash round its roseate brim :
For dark in the depths of the fountains below,
Are the sirens that lurk by the vortex of wo !
4. They have lured the gay spirit of childhood astray,
While it dream'd not of wiles on its radiant way,
And the soft cheek of Beauty they've paled in its bloom,
And quench'd her bright eyes in the damps of the tomb.
5. They have torn the live wreath from the brow of the brave,
And changed his proud heart to the heart of the slave ;
And e'en the fair fame of the good and the just,
With the gray hairs of age they have trampled in dust.
6. Then lift not the wine-cup though pleasures may swim
Like an angel of light round its roseate brim ;
For dark in the depths of the fountains below,
Are the sirens that lurk by the vortex of wo !

TEMPERANCE SONG.

1. ROUND the temperance standard rally,
All the friends of human kind ;
Snatch the devotees of folly,
Wretched, perishing, and blind—
Loudly tell them
How they comfort now may find.
2. Bear the blissful tidings onwards,
Bear them all the world around ;
Let the myriads thronging downwards,
Hear the sweet and blissful sound,
And obeying,
In the paths of peace be found.
3. Plant the temperance standard firmly,
Round it live, and round it die ;
Young and old, defend it sternly,
Till we gain the victory ;
And all nations
Hail the happy jubilee.

And all your old sorrows will cease.

5. We're bound for a haven of gladness,
And all the world's joining our crew;
I'm sure, then, 'tis folly and madness,
If you'll not embark with us, too.
Huzza for the Washington banner,
That floats o'er the Temperance ship!
Come on, now, my hearties, and man her,
And take a long tee-total trip!

SIGN OF THE SONS OF TEMPERANCE.

Words by PETER WALKER. 543

Sung as a Solo, Duette, or Trio.

CHORUS.

1. Oh sweet the strains are swelling,
Where the Sons of Temp'rance meet,
But none can see the mystic crew
Array'd in badges fine,
Of bliss within forth-telling,
And harmony complete :
Of purest white, and red, and blue,
Unless they know the sign—

The sign, the sign—unless they know the sign,
Unless they know the sign
Of the Sons of Temperance.

2. The ladies are for going
They drink no cider, rum, nor beer,
No brandy, gin, nor wine,
While they at home are sewing,
To see what the men do there,
So I'll the sign declare :—
But water sparkling, pure and clear—
And this is all their sign.

The sign—the sign—Oh this is all the sign,
Oh this is all the sign
Of the Sons of Temperance.

3. Their eyes in pearly whiteness
Do another sign disclose ;
And then, no ruby brightness
Does e'er adorn their nose.
No zig-zag windings mark their feet,
But onward as a line
In dress and every thing complete,
They bear the Temp'rance sign.
The sign, the sign, Oh this, &c.

4. No wife e'er fears to meet them,
When the even-tide has come ;
The children run to greet them,
And bid them welcome home :
For Purity, Fidelity,
And Love in them combine,
And so they strive that all may be Preserved from rum and wine.
The sign, the sign, Oh this, &c.

THE DRUNKARD'S WIFE.

Bass, Treble, and Alto, by WM. HOUSER.

Doloso.

CHORUS.

1. Sad-ly and hope-less-ly Mourning her lot,
Sitteth one doom'd to be Wife of a sot,
Singing, "Oh where, my love, Now do you roam? Come, my love, Come, my love, Come to your home."

2. Long has the midnight hour
Silently flit,
But at her glimmering lamp
Still does she sit,
Singing, "Oh where, my love," &c.

3. Starting at every sound
Heard on the street,
Often she opes the door
No one to meet:
Singing, "Oh where, my love," &c.

4. Vainly is kindness shown,
Vain is her art ;
Vainly she strives to wake
Love in his heart :
Singing, "Oh where, my love," &c.

5. Rum has enslaved him,
Virtue has fled,
Lady, no rest is thine
Till thou art dead :
Singing, "Oh where, my love," &c.

ANGELS' WHISPER. 11s & 12s.

Parts arr'd by W. HOUSER.

1. A ba-by was sleep-ing, Its mo-ther was weep-ing, For her husband was out on a wild drinking spree; And the tem-pest was swelling Round that com-fort-less dwelling, And she cried, "Oh! the sorrows, the sor-rows I see!"

2. The hours while she number'd
The baby still slumber'd,
And smiled in her face as she bended her knee—
"Oh! bless'd be that warning,
My child thy sleep adorning,
For I know that the angels are whisp'ring to thee.

3. "And while they are keeping
Bright watch o'er thy sleeping,
O pray to our Father in heaven with me,
And say thou wouldst rather
They'd watch o'er thy father—
For I know that the angels are whisp'ring to thee."

4. *And ere the gray dawning,
Her sadness and mourning
Were changed to the fulness of gladness and glee—
For her husband, relenting
And truly repenting,
Had whisper'd to her, "I have sign'd! I am free!"

THE INEBRIATE'S LAMENT.

1. * Fare-well! Farewell! ye blest scenes of my childhood,
 Your sacred enjoyments for ever are gone; } No longer the charms and endearments that bound me—
 Ye valleys, and mountains, and deep-tangled wildwood, } Bright haunts of my youth—to that once hallow'd spot,
 Where echoes of music salute the first dawn: }
 D. C. Can shed the soft beams of hope's beacon around me,
 Or lure me again to my vine-trellis'd cot.

2. By yon drooping willow my Mary is sleeping,
 Her infant reposing so sweet on her breast; } But now o'er the earth, like an exile I wander,
 While angels around her their vigils are keeping, } Unpitied, unhonor'd, uncherish'd, unknown,
 Lest I should revisit the place where they rest! }
 D. C. A poor, homeless drunkard, in sadness to ponder, And drink the last dregs of life's chalice alone.

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER. 11, 12, 13.

Parts principally by Wm. Houser. 549

Con Spirito.

1. O say can you see, by the dawn's ear - ly light, What so proud - ly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleam - ing, } And the rocket's red glare, bombs
Whose broad stripes and bright stars thro' the perilous fight O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gal - lant - ly streaming ; } bursting in air, Gave proof thro' the night, that our flag was still there ! O say, does that star-spangled ban-ner yet wave, O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave !

2. On the shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses ?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines on the stream—
'Tis the star-spangled banner ! Oh, long may it wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave !

3. And where is that band who so vauntingly swore,
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
A home and a country should leave us no more ?
Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps' pollution :
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight and the gloom of the grave ;
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave !

4. O thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes, and the war's desolation ;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation :
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto—"In God is our trust ;"
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave !

1. Come, strike the bold anthem, the war-dogs are howling, Al-ready they ea-ger-ly snuff up their prey; } The infants, affrighted, cling close to their mothers,
 The red clouds of war o'er our forest are scowling, Soft peace spreads her wings and flies weeping away; } The
 D. C. While beauty weeps fathers, and lovers, and brothers, Who rush to display the A - mer - i - can Star.

2. Come, blow the shrill bugle, the loud drum awaken,
 The dread rifle seize, let the cannon deep roar;
 No heart with pale fear or faint doubting be shaken,
 No slave's hostile foot leave a print on our shore:
 Shall mothers, wives, daughters, and sisters, left weeping,
 Insulted by ruffians, be dragg'd to despair?
 Oh, no! from her hills the proud eagle comes sweeping,
 And waves to the brave the American Star.

To us the high boon by our God has been granted,
 To speed the glad tidings of liberty far;
 Let millions invade us, we'll meet them undaunted,
 And vanquish them by the American Star.

3. The spirits of Washington, Warren, Montgomery,
 Look down from the clouds with bright aspect serene;
 Come, soldiers, a tear and a toast to their mem'ry,
 Rejoicing they'll see us as they once have been.

4. Your hands, then, dear comrades, round liberty's altar—
 United we swear by the souls of the brave!
 Not one from the strong resolution shall falter,
 To live independent, or sink to the grave!
 Then, freemen, cheer up—lo! the striped banner's flying,
 The high bird of liberty screams through the air!
 Beneath her oppressions and tyranny dying—
 Success to the beaming American Star.

THE PILGRIM FATHERS. [AN ODE.]

Words by Mrs. HEMANS.
Music principally by Miss AUGUSTA BROWN.

1. The breaking waves dash'd high,
On a stern and rock-bound coast,

And the woods against the stormy sky
Their giant branches toss'd;

And the heavy night hung dark
The hills and waters o'er,
