THE PRIZE,

A COLLECTION OF

SONGS, HYMNS,
CHANTS, ANTHEMS AND CONCERT PIECES,

FOR THE

SUNDAY SCHOOL,

By GEO. F. ROOT.

CINCINNATI:

PUBLISHED BY JOHN CHURCH & CO., 66 W. FOURTH ST.

DEAR YOUNG FRIENDS ·

Many Pastors, Superintendents and Teachers think that we who have made the Sunday School songs have not been careful enough to have our words and music honor and reverence the holy name of the Lord Jesus Christ. So, in this book, we have endeavored to do better in this respect.

Let us, dear friends, try not only to feel the tenderness and affection due to Him as our only and most blessed Redeemer and Savior, but let us also remember that He is the "Mighty God and the Everlasting Father," as well as "the Prince of Peace."

There will be found in various parts of this book a number of pieces printed near each other that may be sung in connection, thus forming a kind of musical service. These usually consist of first, a preparatory hymn, then a chant, anthem or hymn of worship, and to conclude with, a hymn or song having reference to the duties of the day.

The pieces, consisting of alternate song and recitation, are not only intended for the exercises of the Sunday School, but may be pleasantly used at Sunday School concerts and on other unusual occasions. If the recitations are committed to memory, and repeated, either by all, or in turn by classes or individuals, it is believed they will not only be of present use, but will, to many, be "fountains of living water springing up unto everlasting life."

The pieces to be produced with some action or dramatic effect are of course exclusively for concert purposes.

An index of subjects, which will be found in the last part of the book, will aid any one who wishes to find a hymn appropriate to any particular lesson or occasion.

G. F. R.

All the music, and nearly all the words of the "PRIZE," are copyright property, and cannot lawfully be printed by any one in any form without permission.

THE PRIZE.

PRESS FORWARD.

"I press toward the mark for the Prize."—PAUL.

Earnestly.

Words and Music by P. P. Bliss.

1. Press for-ward, press for-ward, press for-ward to the prize; While life's bright morn, with ro-sy hue,
2. Press for-ward, press for-ward, press for-ward to the prize; When in the noon of life thy heart

Be-decks the flowers that bathed with dew, Sa-lute thy wak-ing eyes, Press for-ward to the prize.
From heaven's high call-ing would de-part, And doubts and fears a-rise, Press for-ward to the prize.

For-ward, for-ward, press for-ward to the prize. For-ward, For-ward, press for-ward to the prize.

3.
Press forward, press forward, press forward to the prize;
When morn and noon of life are past,
And evening shadows lengthen fast,
And swift the daylight flies,
Press forward to the prize.

4.
Press forward, press forward, press forward to the prize;
Though sweet the songs we sing below,
A richer Prize will heaven bestow,
And there our treasure lies.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL BELLS.

Words by Mrs. ELIZA M. OLMSTED. Music by GEO. F. ROOT.

Allegretto.

1. When the Sabbath school bells sweetly chime on the ear, and our willing feet hasten a - way,

Let the au-tumn winds blow, be it sun-shine or snow, In our pla-ces we'll all be to-day.

CHORUS.

O the Sabbath school bells, Lovely Sabbath school bells. Blessed chime of the Sabbath school bells;

'Tis a bright, hap-py throng, that are troop-ing a-long To the chime of the Sabbath school bells.

Have we done what we could in the week that is past,
For the Savior whose love is so kind?
And the lambs gone astray from the beautiful way
In the Sabbath school fold do we find?

3. Let us bring of our treasures, that children afar
May have part in the Sabbath school song,
And from hill side and plain we shall hear the glad strain
Which the love in our hearts shall prolong.

Chorus.

Change rhythm for 2d and 3d verses—sometimes two eighths for a quarter, and vice versa.

Chorus.

COME TO THE SAVIOR.*

Earnestly.

1. Come to the Sa- vior, make no de- lay, Here in His word He's shown us the way; Here in our midst He's stand- ing to- day, Ten- der- ly say- ing, "Come." Joy- ful, joy- ful will the meet- ing be.

When from sin our hearts are pure and free: And we shall gather, Savior, with Thee In our e- ter- nal home.

"Suffer the children!" Oh hear his voice;
Let every heart leap forth and rejoice,
And let us freely make Him our choice;
Do not delay, but come.

Chorus.

3.

Think once again, He's with us to-day;
Heed now His blest commands and obey;
Hear now His accents tenderly say,
"Will you, my children, Come?"

Chorus.

* By "Coming to Jesus" is not meant a literal coming, like a child running to his father, for He is omnipresent and always near us. "In Him we live and move and have our being." Nor is it turning our thoughts to Him and picturing His divine form to our imaginations while we do not wish to do His will. No; we are coming to Him only as we are becoming like Him, and the process is this: First, a change of heart or purpose, for naturally no one wants to serve Him; every one "must be born again," and when we are born again we are like other babes, weak and feeble, hardly perhaps being able to do more than wish we could desire to serve Him. Now commences the coming to Him, and every boy and girl who to-day, from a wish to be a Christian, is faithful, attentive and obedient, or is kind and gentle, or resists temptation to do wrong, gets a little nearer to the Lord.

THE LORD WILL PROVIDE.

Trustingly.

Words by JAMES R. MURRAY. Music by GEO. F. ROOT.

1. Nev - er fear, for to - mor - row The Lord will pro - vide; Yield not light - ly to sor - row, The Lord will pro - vide.

Trust Him, trust Him, for - ev - er; The Lord will pro - vide; He will leave us, O nev - er; The Lord will pro - vide.

Chorus.

Nev - er fear, for to - mor - row The Lord will pro - vide; Yield not light - ly to sor - row, The Lord will pro - vide.

2.

Are the feet growing weary?
The Lord will provide;
Is the way growing dreary?
The Lord will provide.
True and faithful forever,
The Lord will provide.
Doubt his promises never,
The Lord will provide.

3.

Never, never, he faueth,
The Lord will provide.
Yes, whatever assaileth,
The Lord will provide
Dry the eyes that are weeping,
The Lord will provide.
Are we not in his keeping?
The Lord will provide.

'Tis a lov - ing Fa - ther calls the wan - d'r'er home; "Who - so - ev - er will may come."

GEO. F. ROOT.

Not too fast.

1. All a-round are kind and lov-ing, Gen-tle words our hearts are mov-ing; Words of love and
 2. Man-y scenes of grace and beau-ty, Tempt us now from pres-ent du-ty; Tempt our thoughts to man-sions you-der. In our heav-en-ly home, our bright e-ter-nal home. Glo-ry, glo-ry, let the ech-oes ring, Glo-ry, glo-ry, good it is to sing; But whene'er we sing of Je sus, O re-mem-ber that He sees us, He our heavenly King, our glorious heavenly King.

LOVING FATHER.

With Feeling.

Words and Music by JAMES R. MURRAY.

1. Lov-ing Fa-ther, hear thy chil-dren, Kneeling low be-fore Thy throne; O ac-cept our humble
2. Ask-ing not from pain to save us, But from sin, the cause of pain; Cleanse our souls and make us wor-ship, Je-sus, Sa-rior, God a-lone. Give us hearts to love Thee tru-ly, And to ho-ly, Lead us in thy way a-gain. Give us here thy sweet sup-port-ing, Help us love each oth-er too; Make us gen-tle, kind, o-be-dient, In all things we say or do.

all to do thy will; That at last in heavenly mansions, We may love and serve Thee still.

WHERE TWO OR THREE ARE GATHERED.

Moderato.

GEO. F. ROOT

1. A - gain we take our pla - ces a - mid the friends so dear, To stand be - fore our Fa - ther who comes to meet us here; And Oh! may we re - member His words of lov - ing care. "Where two or three are gathered I will be with them there," "Where two or three are gathered I will be with them there.

2. And when we sing to worship, let's try with all our might,
To fix our thoughts upon Him, that we may sing aright,
Remembering in our praises His words of love so free,
"Where two or three are gathered among them I will be."

3. And in our prayers and lessons let's try to be sincere,
And Honor God, our Savior, who comes to meet us here;
And still may we remember, while we our sins confess,
"Where two or three are gathered I will be there to bless."

LORD, AS WE ENTER THY PRESENCE.

Reverently.

Words by JAMES R. MURRAY. Music by GEO. F. ROOT.

1. Lord, as we en - ter thy pres - ence to - day, Fill all our hearts with thy bless - ing we pray ;

Aid us to wor-ship in spi-rit and truth, Guide us to Thee in the days of our youth.

2. Teach us each other to help and to love,
Children are we of one Father above;
May we be strengthened for all we've to do,
And be obedient, gentle and true.

3. Lead us, O Savior, wherever we go,
Keep us from wand'ring in darkness and woe;
Shine on our pathway and shield us from strife,

LORD, WE PRAY THEE.

Moderato.

Words by E. E. REXFORD. Music by Gzo. F. ROOT.

1. Lord, we pray Thee, give a blessing To thy children gath-ered here; We thy love and care pos-sess-ing,
2. Dai-ly, hour-ly, we are needful Of the aid that thou can'st give; Make us humble, pray'r-ful, heed-ful,

Asking more, would still draw near. Bless us, bless us; Bless us, bless us; Je-sus, our pe-ti-tion hear.
Let us look to thee and live. Bless us, bless us; Bless us, bless us; Je-sus, our pe-ti-tion hear.

3. Long and often thou has blessed us,
And we thank thee, Lord, for all;
All the evils that infest us,
Thou hast held them, Lord, in thrall.
:||: Bless us, bless us.:||:
Still for blessing, Lord, we call.

4. Be thou with us, blessed Savior,
Make thy dwelling in our breast;
Smile upon us with thy favor,
Touch our hearts with peace and rest.
:||: Bless us, bless us.:||:
If thou lov'st us, we are blest.

GOD IS HERE.

Reverentially.

Words by J. C. WHITE. Music by GEO. F. ROOT.

1. Let us kneel, for God is here; Bend in love and ho - ly fear; Praise Him for His bounties shed, Kneel be - fore Him low in prayer; Thank Him for His constant care.

Oh, my soul, up - on thy head; Ask for light to know His will; Ask for love each heart to fill.

2. Ask for faith to bear us on,
Thro' the victory He has won;
Ask His Spirit still to guide,
Thro' the ills that may betide.

Ask for peace to lull to rest,
Every tumult of the breast;
Ask in love and holy fear,
Let us kneel, for God is here.

My sweetest songs I'll raise,

To sing among his angels,
Because he loves me so.

We would here Thy pardon ask;
Help us ask Thee as we ought.

On the straight and narrow way;
Lead us by thy watchful care
To thine own eternal day.

I WILL SEEK MY FATHER.

Reverentially.

Words by PAULINA. Music arr. by F. W. ROOT.

1. When the morn is bright and fair, When sweet songsters charm the air, I will lift my voice in pray'r,
2. In the sol-i-tude a part, In the wil-der-ness or mart, Oh! my sore-ly tempt-ed heart,

I will seek my Fa-ther; Lest my feet should go a-stray From His pure and per-fect way;
I will seek my Fa-ther; In the dark-ness as the day, He shall be my Guide and Stay;

3. When the ev'ning sun is red,
When each blossom droops its head,
Kneeling low beside my bed,
I will seek my Father;
That I slumber in His care;
Shielded from each harmful snare;
And for life or death prepare;
I will seek my Father.

Response.—TEN COMMANDMENTS.

27
G. F. R.

It will be found a useful and pleasant exercise to have the Ten Commandments read, and after each one to have the following response sung by the whole school:

Have mer-cy up-on us, O Lord, and in-cline us to keep Thy Law.

Response.—TEN BLESSINGS.

The Ten Blessings may be either read or chanted by a single voice, with the following response after each verse by all. If chanted, this is a good form:

May Thy blessing, O Lord, be up-on us.

THERE IS NO WORK TOO HUMBLE.

Words by KATE CAMERON. Music by GEO. F. ROOT.

2. If we are His disciples,
Called by His holy name:
A portion of His Spirit
We surely ought to claim.
And tho' the task be menial
Which He for us hath set,
His own divine example
We never should forget.

3. That He the High and Holy,
Whose life-work was complete,
Should gird Himself for labor,
And wash those humble feet!
And yet we shrink from duties
Which seem so far above
This deed of Christ-like meekness,
This tender proof of love.

LORD, HELP ME.

Words by PAULINA. Music by GEO. F. ROOT.

With expression.

1. "Lord help me!" The shriek of the mother was wild, "Lord help me—a de-mon hath rule o'er my child;

Oh, Thou, Son of Da-vid, have mer-cy, I pray!" Then urged His dis-ci-ples, "Lord, send her a-way."

2 Ah! sore was her trial of faith, to be told
The sufferer was not a lamb of the fold;
Nor knew she God's mercies are his who may come,
When pleading in anguish for only a crumb.

3 What raptures awoke with those accents divine,
"O great is thy faith—let the blessing be thine!"
What bliss like a billow swept over her soul
When love was triumphant—her daughter was whole.

FREELY GIVE.

Music by JAS. R. MURRAY.

1. "Give, give!" said the little stream, As it hur-ried down the hill; "I am small, I know, But where e'er I go, The fields grow greener still, The fields grow greener still."

In its soft and spring-like voice;
"From the cot and hall
They will hear my call,
And all for me rejoice,
And all for me rejoice."

3. "Give, give!" say they all, "for we Have much receiv'd from heaven;
And we fain would give—
Yes, would only live,
To give as God has given,
To give as God has given."

OH, DREAD ON THE MOUNTAINS.

Words by PAULINA. Music by GEO. F. ROOT.

And hot as the des - ert the blast of his breath, Who comes with the fiends from the dwellings of death.

2 The Savior beholds him—the spirits unclean

Accursed—man defying, they go at a word,
Entreating, beseeching and owning their Lord.

3 Oh, dread in the soul is the presence of sin,
Sweet peace takes her flight as the tempter comes in ;
And only the power of God in the heart
Can say to the spirits of evil, "Depart."

IMMANUEL'S LAND

C. M. WYMAN. From "The Palm."

Barnesly.

1. The sands of time are sinking, The dawn of heaven breaks, The summer morn I've sighed for—
2. I've wrestled on toward heaven, 'Gainst storm and wind and tide, Now, like a wea-ry trav'-ler

The fair, sweet morn a-wakes. Dark, dark hath been the midnight, But dayspring is at hand,
That lean-eth on his guide, A-mid the shades of even-ing, While sinks life's ling'ring sand,

And glo-ry-glo-ry dwelleth In Immanuel's land.
I hail the glo-ry dawning, From Immanuel's land.

3. Deep waters crossed life's pathway,
The hedge of thorns was sharp;
Now these lie all behind me—
O! for a well tuned harp!
O, to join hallelujah

Who sing where glory dwelleth,

G. F. R.

1. O come, my wand'ring soul, And stand before the Lord; With hon-or speak his ho-ly name, With rev-erence sing his word.

He waits, our lives to bless
With every needed good:
Though oft we've wandered from his way,
And off his love withstood.

God be Merciful unto Us.

And cause his face to shine up- | on us.
2. That Thy way may be known upon | earth,
Thy saving health among all | nations.
3. Let the people praise Thee, O | God;
Let all the people | praise Thee.

Teach Me, O Lord.

G. F. R.

Teach me, O Lord, the way of Thy stat-utes, and I shall keep it un-to the end. Give me understanding, and I shall keep Thy law: yea, I shall ob-serve it with my whole heart: yea, I shall ob-serve it with my whole heart.

1. A - wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy daily stage of du-ty run; Shake off dull sloth, and joy-ful rise

To pay thy morning sacrifice. 2. Thanks be to Thee, who safe hast kept, And hast re-freshed me while I slept; O grant that when from death I wake, I may of end-less life par-take.

Lord, I my vows to Thee renew;
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thy love my spirit fill.

Direct, control, suggest, this day
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my pow'rs, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

The Lord's Prayer.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

O let us all attentive be,
Its wondrous truths to learn.

PETER'S DENIAL.

Moderato.

Words and Music by P. P. Bliss.

1. In the gar-den, bold ly, Peter would have fought; Now he answers coldly, "Nay, I know him not."
2. Tho' life's ston-y pathway Be with dan-gers fraught, Let my falt'rings never Say, "I know him not."

CHORUS.

I would stand for-ev-er Near my Sav-ior's side, Lest to glo-ry yon-der I should be de-nied.

3.
Though long years of sorrow
Be my earthly lot,
Let my murm'rings never Say "I know him not." Chorus.

In the dark temptation,
Vows and prayers forgot,
Let my yielding never Say, "I know him not." Chorus.

5.
So, in toil or pleasure,
Deed or word or thought,
Let me never, never

WE COME TO THY TEMPLE.

Moderato.

H. W. J.

1. We come to Thy tem-ple, O Sav-ior of love, To ask of the highway that lead-eth a-bove,
2. Oh! grant us Thy blessings of wis-dom and truth, And be Thou our Strength in the morning of youth;

To list to Thy pre-cepts—to learn of Thy will, That all Thy com-mandments our lives may ful-fill.
That we from Thy ser-vice may nev-er de-part, But toil on with cour-age and new-ness of heart.

GETHESEMANE.

Recitando.

GEO. F. ROOT.

1. Cold, cold was the night wind on Ol-i-vet's brow, And sad the deep gloom on Geth-sem-a-ne's vale;
2. With steps slow and heavy, with hearts full of grief, The poor weary wanderers of Gal-i-lee came,
3. The chill ground receives their faint la-bor-worn forms, As, "sleeping for sorrow," un-con-scious they lie;

Dark, dark thro' the garden was still Kedron's flow, And hush'd were all sounds save the breeze' low wail.
To find in the gloom of the gar-den re-lief From the in-sults and scorn-ing that fol-lowed their name
The wide-reaching clouds show the near-coming storm, As dark-ly they spread o'er the face of the sky.

But | one of the number, the | Master and Lord,
In | loneliness watches, in | agony prays;
The | woes of a lost world up- | on Him are poured,
And no aid from heaven His deep grief allays.

"May | this cup pass from me," de- | spairing he cries,
As, | burst from their courses, the | living tides run,
Yet | still prayed, as up-ward He | raised His meek eyes
"Not my will, but Thine, O my Father, be done."

1. Hast thou found the goodly pearl? Hast thou made the treasure mine? Brighter than the gems of earth,

CHORUS.

Will that precious jewel shine— The precious pearl of wondrous worth, It far outshines all gems of earth.

2. Part with every earthly gift
That this pearl thou may'st obtain;
Gladly bear the heavy cross,
Counting every loss as gain
Chorus—The precious pearl, &c.

3. Wear it ever on thy breast,
Let its luster guide thee on,
Till, beyond the storms of life,
Perfect joy and peace are won.
Chorus—The precious pearl, &c.

KNOCKING, KNOCKING, WHO IS THERE?

Words adapted from a Poem by Mrs. STOWE. Music by GEO. F. ROOT.

With feeling.

1. Knocking, knocking, who is there? Waiting, waiting, oh, how fair! 'Tis a pil-grim strange and king-ly,

Ne-er such was seen be-fore. Ah! my soul, for such a won-der, Wilt thou not un-do the door!

2. Knocking, knocking, still he's there,
Waiting, waiting, wondrous fair;
But the door is hard to open,
For the weeds and ivy-vine,
With their dark and clinging tendrils,
Ever round the hinges twine.

3. Knocking, knocking—what! still there?
Waiting, waiting, grand and fair;
Yes, the pierced hand still knocketh,
And beneath the crowned hair
Beam the patient eyes, so tender,
Of thy Savior, waiting there.

A PRAYER FOR HELP.

Words by J. R. M. Music by G. F. R.

Reverently.

1. O Lord, when bend-ed to the earth, In deep af-fic-tion, sore dis-tress, Touch us with that al-might-y hand That touch-es but to bless.

2. Give us the love that conquers fear,
Aid us again to come to Thee;
O clear our vision that our eyes
May "Jesus only" see.

3. Keep us from wrong in deed or word,
From love of self, the greater sin;
And grant us, Shepherd of our souls,
Thy fold to enter in.

Entreatingly.

1. Winds are boi-trous, waves are high, Midnight gloom o'erspreads the sky; Fearful, sin-ful, sink-ing

ONCE MORE WITH MOURNFUL STEP.

Words and Music by P. P. Bliss.

Moderato.

1. Once more with mournful step and slow, A - cross the murm'ring brook they go; Once more beneath the olive's shade, The garden's well known paths they tread; A Savior's sorrows we may mourn, For sure-ly he our griefs hath borne."

2. Each brow is sad, each heart with woe
Is breaking, since he said, "I go."
And see, a warlike band appears,
And fainting hopes are crushed with fears:
Alas, our guilt his sorrow made,
On Him was our transgression laid.

3. Though all forsake the Lord and flee,
Again he answers, "I am he."
Again the falt'ring foes arise,
The bitter cup he drinks and dies.
A Savior's love behold revealed,
And with his stripes we now are healed.

G. F. R.

 To find earth's crowns of thorns all grown
 In glory like a kingly crown.

 We'll change the thorny crown we wore;
 And cast the golden crowns we gain.

 And find, in heaven, each thorn-crown

MY SON GIVE ME THINE HEART.

EARNESTLY.

Words by "PAULINA." Music by GEO. F. ROOT.

1. Our Fa-ther speaks—let ev-'ry ear His gra-cious words at-tend, And draw with fil-ial rev'rence near The Om-ni-pres-ent Friend. Howe'er thou may'st have gone astray, Whoe'er, whate'er thou art, The man-date comes to thee to-day, "My son, give me thine heart." My son, my son, my son, give me thine heart.

2. How dark and sinful it may be,
He knoweth well—not thou;
And he alone can set it free
From chains that bind it now.
Thou who hast trodden ways of death,
And known sin's poisoned dart,
Come trusting'y to him, who saith,
"My son, give me thine heart."
3. And if that heart is crushed with grief,
And fainteth in its woe,
And earth is barren of relief,
To whom else canst thou go?
What voice can calm the raging sea,
And bid its storms depart,
But His, who calleth unto thee,
"My son, give me thine heart."

STANDING IN PILATE'S HALL.

Words by Mrs. M. B. C. SLADE. Music by Geo. F. ROOT.

1. Not on the mount, nor be-side the blue sea, Learn we to-day, Lord, our les-son of Thee;
 2. Scourgings of Pi-late are rack-ing his frame; Soldiers re-vile him, and mock him to shame;

On Thy pale brow press the sharp plat-ted thorns: Garment of scar-let the sol-dier-band scorns.
 On the dear head, 'neath the thorns bend-ing low, Fall-eth the smart of the reed's cru-el blow.

CHORUS.

Stand-ing in Pi-late's Hall, Je-sus I see, Speak-ing to me, Say-ing to me,

“Pa-tient and meek in thy suf-fer-ings be.”

 Changed are the thorns to a glory-crown bright;
 Scarlet robes changed for his own raiment white;
 Yet when I go to the feet of my Lord,
 Seeking sweet lessons of love in his word.

Chorus.

4 Fol-low thou me, Fol-low thou me, An-gels shall war-ble that "Fol-low thou me."

3. Pause not, dismayed, at the rock seared and seamed,
This is the highway for Heaven's redeemed:
This is the pathway most precious to thee,
Charmed by the Leader's voice, "Follow thou me."
Chorus.

4. On to the River that pathway extends,
There in the swelling of Jordan it ends;
Then, as the pearly gates open to thee,
Angels shall warble that "Follow thou me."

Let us Guard.

Earnestly.

G. F. R.

1. Let us guard our thoughts to-day, While we sing and while we pray, And while we seek the pleasant paths of wisdom's way.

May we learn within the Word,
How to know and love the Lord,
And may we find the promises its leaves afford.

3.
Thus in all we say or do,
May we keep His name in view,
And to His word and to His work be always true.

Thus did He ask of one 'neath the rod,

 Love you not God the Lord?

 Nothing there is to love.

Recitando.

Words by PABLINA. Music by GEO. F. ROOT.

1. List—the disciple band, “Lord, is it I?” Mournfully tender the wail and the cry;
 2. Forth in the darkness the lost spir - it rushed— Hymns on the white lips for - ev - er were hushed.

Long had they walked in the path-way He trod, Served Him as Master, and wor-shipped as God;
 Only once more to the Mas - ter he came, Then to betray Him to death and to shame.

Out in the wilderness— out on the deep, With Him in perils -in wak - ing—in sleep,
 Legions of evil the trai - tor at - tend, Torture his dark life, and has - ten its end.

Hearing the prayer, and the moan, and the sigh, Well might they question Him, “Lord, is it I?”
 Well might the faithful, who could not de - ny, Ask of Him, sor - row - ing, “Lord, is it I?”

CHORUS.

Ask - ing so fear - ful - ly, can we de - ny? Ask - ing so tear - ful - ly, "Lord, is it I?"

3 Bearing the name of dis - ciple, shall we
Shrink from the pathway, tho' | thorny it be?
Murmur, while under the | cross and the rod,
Craving the earthly, and | turning from God?

Father in Heaven, Oh! | save us from this;
Let us betray not Thy | love with a kiss.
Clasping the cross, though we | live or we die,
Still would we ask of Thee, "Lord, is it I?" Chorus.

Stand Thou beside me;

Dear Lord, defend me. Chorus.

4 Lord, I trust, and trust alone
Thy mediation;
I am nothing, Thou art all,
Prince of Salvation! Chorus.

By Thy dear merit,

2 O, let us serve Him! O, let us serve Him!
 Let us learn to do His will;
 O, may we follow! O, may we follow
 In His blessed footsteps still.
 He shows the way our feet should go;
 He tells us what to do;
 O, may we try to follow Him
 With earnest hearts and true.

3 O, let us love Him! O, let us love Him!
 Let us love our Father, God,
 The blessed Savior! the blessed Savior,
 Let us speak his praise abroad.
 So may we love the words he spake,
 And keep them in each heart,
 And never from His teachings true
 In thought or deed depart.

But in its gold-en street None but the good shall meet; Dear Savior, let me greet Thee in that land!

By faith I see,
Sate in the Savior's hand,
Prepared for me.
From sin and folly's ways,
Lord guide me all my days,
Jesus I'll ever praise
For that bright crown.

3. A robe of purest white
By faith I see,
Made for the saints in light,
Prepared for me.
To learn Thy will divine,
Give me a willing mind,
That I in heaven may find
That robe of white.

4. A home in heaven above
By faith I see,
Token of Jesus' love,
Prepared for me.
Dear Savior! guide my feet
Into that safe retreat,
Where saints and angels meet
A happy home.

THE FISHERMEN OF GENNESARET.

Moderato.

GEO. F. ROOT.

1. They had cast their nets in vain thro' the night, But the Master came among them with the light, And He sat within the ship which was thrust out from the shore, And He spoke such precious words as they never heard before.

- 2: Then He turned Him to the poor weary men,
And commanded that they cast their nets again,
How they wondered as they drew, how they called the helping hand,
How they feared the mighty Lord as they brought their ships to land.

3. They obeyed Him, and they met their reward,
For He sent them forth to preach His Holy word.
Let us also cast our nets, let us follow now as then,
And He'll make us helpers, too, in the work of sav-

JESUS BY THE SEA.

Words by REV. WM. O. CUSHING. Music by GEO. F. ROOF.

Reverentially.

1. O I love to think of Je-sus as he sat be-side the sea; Where the waves were on-ly mur-m'ring on the strand; When he sat within the boat, on the silver wave afloat Where he taught the waiting people on the land.

O I love to think of Je- sus by the sea; O I love to think of Je- sus by the sea, And I love the precious Word, Which he spake to them that heard, While he taught the waiting people by the sea.

 O I love to think of Jesus as he walked upon the sea;
 When the waves were rolling fearfully and grand;
 How the winds and waves were still, at the bidding of His will,
 While he brought his lov'd disciples safe to land.
 O I love to think of Jesus by the sea,
 How He walked upon the wave,
 His beloved ones to save,
 While he brought them safely o'er the stormy sea

3.
 O I love to think of Jesus as He walk'd beside the sea;
 Where the fishers spread their nets upon the shore,
 How he bade them follow Him and forsake the paths of sin,
 And to be his true disciples evermore.
 O I love to think of Jesus by the sea,
 And I long to leave my all,
 At my dear Redeemer's call,
 And his true disciple evermore to be.

THE WITHERED HAND.

In steady time.

Words by PAULINA. Music by Geo. F. Root

1. In the house of God is a gathered band, In the midst the man with the withered hand,

And the question-glance of each eye would say "Is it well to heal on the Sabbath day?"

2. Oh! the Healer's words have a stern reproof,
But his voice rings out to the fretted roof;
And the stricken blesses the lips that say
"It is well to heal on the Sabbath day."

3. For He saith to the man, "Stretch forth thine hand;"
And a murmur ran through the gathered band,
And the lowly said, as they went their way,

Words by KATE CAMERON. Music by P. F. BLISS.

Idly stand and wait.
Come and join the workers,
Ere it be too late,
Lest at His appearing,
When He looks for sheaves,

Like the barren fig tree,
Ye'll have naught but leaves.

 How mighty Thy triumphs o'er death and disease;
 Unworthy am I such a grace to receive,
 But speak the word, only, and I will believe."

 The Master hath heard him, and turning around—

Animato. Words by PAULINA. Music by GEO. F. ROOT.

1. They are com-ing to the Sav-ior, From the hill-side and the glen— From the rock-y heights of

Ta-bor, And the bu-sy haunts of men; From the moss-y banks of Ke-dron, From the shore, as from the sea, They are com-ing, as the wave-lets To the sands of Gal-i-lee.

They have followed near the Shepherd,
As the sheep that knew His voice—
They are faint and worn with fasting,
Yet they listen and rejoice.
He hath broken bread of blessing,
And they murmur, "This is He
Who was promised us aforetime—
This the Prophet that should be."

3.
He is calling us unto Him,
As He called His flock of old;
Let us know Him as they knew Him—
Let us hasten to the fold.
Oh, the bright and living waters
Of the far-off shining strand!
Oh, the green and flowery pastures
Of the blessed Morning Land!

GO WORK TO-DAY IN MY VINEYARD.

 2. Go work to - day in the vine - yard, There's work for one and all; Go glad - ly bearing your soon will come the dark - ness, When we can work no more.

 There's work to do for the Savior,
 There's work for me and you;
 Sow seed in His waiting vineyard,
 And to your trust be true.
 Yes, true and faithful, labor
 Until your race is run;
 To him that overcometh
 The Lord will say "well done!"

EACH ONE HAS A MISSION.

Words by JAMES E. MURRAY. Music by Geo. F. Root.

CHEERFULLY.

1. Each one has a mission Some work to do; O, the glad fru - i - tion, If we are true,

Bright shall be the pathway, Hearts full of joy, If working for the Master be our em - ploy.

2. Little deeds of kindness, sweet words of love,
 Helping on each other to Heaven above,
 Smiling on the weary, aiding the weak;
 All these are little missions our hearts may seek.

3. We can love each other with youthful zest,
 We can love the Savior, dearest and best;
 O, the work is plenty children may do,
 Then let us all be earnest, faithful and true.

THE VOYAGE OF LIFE.

Moderato.

Words by PAULINA. Music by Gzo. F. Root.

1. Life is an o - cean, and each has his bark: We have a com - pass to guide in the dark;

We have a Star, eight-een cen - tu - ries old; We have an an - chor, more pre - cious than gold.

CHORUS.

Repeat pp.

Voy - ag - ing, voy - ag - ing o - ver the foam, Soon shall we an - chor in Hea - ven our home.

2. One has forgotten his watch upon deck—
There is his bark, 'mid the breakers a wreck;
Some, without chart, of the winds are the sport,
Drifting away from the heavenly port.

3. There is the haven, a little way on—
Steady the helm, till the harbor is won:
All the night long, tho' the billows have roared,
We have not feared, with our Pilot on board.

DUET.

1. We are sail - ing o'er an o - cean, To a far and foreign shore; And the waves are dashing round us, And we hear the breakers roar; But we look above the bil - lows, In the dark - ness of the night; And we see the steady gleaming Of our changeless beacon light. O, the light is flashing brightly From a calm and stormless shore, Where we hope to cast our an - chor, When our voy - ag - ing is o'er

CHORUS.

2 Though the skies are dark above us,
And the waves are dashing high,
Let us look toward the beacon,
We shall reach it by and by:
'Tis the light of God's great mercy,
And He holds it up in view,
As a guide-star to His children,
As a guide to me and you.

Chorus.

3. He will keep it ever burning,
From the light-house of His love;
And it always shines the brightest
When the skies are dark above:
If we keep our eyes upon it,
And we steer our course aright,
We shall reach the harbor safely,
By the blessed beacon light.

Chorus.

HEAVENLY UNION.

Joyfully.

And ev-'ry heart re-joi-ces. To-gether then we'll sing; We'll sing in sweet com-mu-nion; We'll Bind heart with heart to-gether. To-gether then, &c.

sound His praise in joy-ful lays, For this sweet heavenly union.

3. Where loved hearts meet as one,
To crave the Savior's blessing;
There will He rest and make them blest,
Sweet peace and joy possessing.

Chorus.

4. And when at last we stand,
Beyond the wild, dark river;
With hand in hand, a glorious band,
We'll join to sing forever. Chorus.

3- Wondrous of all wondrous stories,
Clustered round the Savior's name,
From the rocky tomb before them,
Laz'rus at his bidding came.

Thus the Lord is ever calling,
All our buried love to come,
From the land of death and darkness,
To His life, his love, his home.

 Unto them belongs a kingdom
 In the realms of perfect light.
 O rejoice and shout for gladness,
 Great in heaven is your reward;
 Thus they wronged the holy prophets,

Geo. F. Root.

Maestoso.

1. Breast the wave, Christian, when it is strong-est, Watch, where the night-shade lingers the long-est;
2. Stand the storm, Christian, Je-sus is o'er thee; Fear not the tem-pest, heaven is be-fore thee;

On-ward and on-ward still be thy en-dea-vor: There is a rest for thee, peaceful, for-ev-er.
Go where thy du-ty calls; Fear may as-sail thee; God is thy strength and shield, He will not fail thee.

CHORUS.

Now all things are ready, the Mas-ter says, "Come," The whole world is bid-den, "and yet there is room."

The whole world is bid-den, The whole world is bid-den, The whole world is bid-den, "and yet there is room."

2. Then quickly the servants went out from their Lord,
His message they published with joyful accord:
From highways and hedges they called to the feast,
And welcomed with rapture each wondering guest.

3. O, wayworn and weary, despise not the call,

We'll wage a stout warfare for truth and the right, But first must we put on the Armor of Light.
Then on - ward, and upward, we'll win thro' His might, Who loved us and gave us his Armor of Light.

CHORUS.

That leads to the glorious portals of day;
But "faithful is He who hath promised," to write
Those blessed who bear on His armor of Light.

The angel of welcome, who opens the gate;
Then ashes to ashes—fatigue dress of white—
Then, soul, rise triumphant in armor of Light.

LOOK AND LIVE.

Words and Music by P. P. Bliss.

1. Look to Jesus, weary one, Look and live, look and live; Look at what the Lord has done, Look and live;

See Him lift-ed on the tree, Look and live, look and live; Hear Him say, "Look un-to me," Look and live.

Look away from self and sin,

Look to me, ye shall be saved,

3. Tho' you've wander'd far away,
Look and live, look and live;
Harden not your heart to-day,

Look and live.
'Tis thy Father calls thee home,
Look and live, look and live;
Whosoever will may come,
Look and live.

LIFE'S LOT.

187

Grazioso.

1. I know not if the dark or bright Shall be..... my lot, If that wherein my soul delight Be best or not.

It may be mine to drag for years Toils heav - y chain, Or day and night my meat be tears On bed..... of pain.

REFRAIN.

But this I know, There is a hand di - vine That holds me still, What - ev - er lot be mine.

But this I know, wh'er I go, There is a hand di - vine That holds me still, Thro' ev'ry ill, What - ev - er lot be mine.

Dear faces may surround my hearth
With smiles and glee;
Or I may dwell alone, and mirth
Be strange to me.
The dearest friends I have on earth
May all depart;
The purest joys may fade, and leave
An aching heart.

3.
My bark is wafed to the strand
By breath divine,
And on the helm there rests a hand
More strong than mine;
One who has known in storms to sail
I have on board:
Above the raging of the gale
I hear my Lord.

4.
He holds me 'midst the billows'
I shall not fall; [might—
If sharp, 'tis short; if long, 'tis light;
He tempers all—
Safe to the land, safe to the land,
The end is this:
And then with Him go hand in hand
Far into bliss.

Earnestly.

1. Earn-est-ly the ru-ler on the Lord did call, Ten-der-ly en-treat-ing at his feet did fall;
2. In the darkened chamber, bends the mother low, O'er her only daughter, with a mother's woe.

"My lit-tle daughter near to death doth lie, Come, Lord, and heal her, or she soon must die."
Darkened now forever is her once bright home; Tearfully she falters, "Has the Mas-ter come?"

"Trouble not the mas-ter;" soon they came and said, "Trouble not the master, for thy daughter is dead."
"Wherefore are ye weeping?" 'tis the Master's voice! "She is on-ly sleeping," doth the mother's heart rejoice;

Sweetest words of com-fort then did Je - sus give, "Be not a - fright, on - ly be-lieve."
 Trust-ing - ly the fa-ther says, "We will not grieve," "Be not a - fright, on - ly be-lieve."

CHORUS.

Call on the Lord, his mer - cies still en - dure; Call on the Lord, his prom-ise still is sure.

Life, life e - ter - nal all may now re - ceive. Be not a - fright, on - ly be - lieve.

3. Quietly the Master bids the mourners go:
 All a parent's tenderness his actions show:
 Ah, what holy rapture, oh, what glad surprise,
 At his gentle voice commanding, "Maid, arise."

Courage, fainting mother, trust a loving Lord;
 Courage, fearful brother, rest forever on his word,
 Tender youth and age, in him alone can live;
 "Be not afraid, only believe." Chorus

TEACHER. CHILDREN.

1. Children, children, why do you sing? Oh, we sing because we're mer-ry, Be-cause our hearts are light. Be-cause the earth is cheer y, With buds and blossoms bright; And the clear and shin-ing heav-en Smiles, blue and fair a - bove; And God to us has giv-en A hap-py home of love.

T. Children, children, when do you sing?
C. Oh, we sing in early morning,
When we from sleep awake,
While birds, at dewy dawning,
Their joyous carols make.
So we join their tuneful measure,
At night, in even song,

And notes of glee and pleasure
We trill, the whole day long.

3.

T. Children, children, where do you sing?
C. Oh, at home and school we're singing,

And in the church so fair,
Our voices sweet are ringing
In hymns of praise and prayer.
So we learn to praise the Giver
Of every good, below;
Till, by and by, forever
To dwell with Him we go.

THE BIRTH OF OUR SAVIOR.

[The questions and answers may be by single voices; the song by all.]

1. Ques.—How was our Savior's coming announced?Ans.—And the angel said unto them, Fear not; for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people, for unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Savior which is Christ the Lord. Luke ii: 10, 11.Moderato.

Words and Music by J. R. MURRAY.

1. And, as in old-en days, The an-gels went be-fore To speak the com-ing of the Lord, So now, and ev-er-mora,

The an-gels of His love Go on be-fore His face, To find, in hum-ble, low-ly hearts, For Him a dwell-ing place.

Ques.—Where was Jesus born?Ans.—Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the King. Matt. ii: 1.

SONG.

So, in our youthful hearts,
 May Christ the Savior come;
 Though poor and small the place for Him,
 Yet there may be his home.
 By doing kindly deeds,
 By loving self the least,
 Christ may be born in every heart
 As in the ancient East.

3.

Ques.—What guided the wise men to the manger?Ans.—And lo, the star, which they saw in the East, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was. Matt. ii: 9.

SONG.

So, over all our hearts
 May shine the star so fair,
 The light of heavenly truth and love,
 To show the Lord is there.
 And may we bring to Him,
 As wise men did of old,
 The gift of earnest, loving souls,
 More precious far than gold.

Ques.—Who kept wicked Herod from killing the young child Jesus?Ans.—Behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. Matt. ii: 13.

SONG.

Thus, like the wicked king,
 Our sins do seek to kill

The holy things within our minds,
And all good thoughts to still.
But if we try to love
Our Savior and His ways,
He'll send an angel from above
To guard us all our days.

5.

Ques.—When again did an angel appear unto Joseph?

Ans.—But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life. Matt. ii : 20.

SONG.

So, if we strive aright
To do the Master's will,
Our wrong desires and thoughts will die,
And good our bosoms fill.
Thus may we overcome
Our sins on every hand,
Till, guided by the angels bright,
We reach the Promised Land.

WILL YOU MEET ME?

Words by H. L. FRISBIE. Music by GEO. F. ROOT.

Moderato.

1. Will you meet me, Father, Mother, When the toils of life are o'er? }
Will you meet me, Sister, Brother, Meet me on the gold-en shore? } There, with saints o'er all victorious,

When we leave this vale of tears, We shall dwell in light all glorious, 'Mid the flight of end-less years.

Meet me there in Eden's bowers,
Friends of earth so near and dear,
Where our love will bloom in flowers
That have only budded here.
Meet where saints, arrayed in glory,
Praises to the Savior give—
Where they tell the wondrous story,
How He died that we might live.

3.

Look across the narrow river,
See immortal glories spring;
Christ the Lord now reigns forever,
He of heaven and earth is King.
There is rest, supreme, eternal,
Where unbounded pleasures rise;
High in bliss which is supernal,
Shout our triumph through the skies

Stricken thou hast been,
Hear the blessed answer,
"I will; be thou clean." Chorus.

3.
So! from us, O Savior,
Bid disease depart;

All of sin's uncleanness
Take from every heart;
Make us pure and holy,
Like to thee, O Lord,
Helped by angel's presence,
Guided by thy Word. Chorus.

HOME FLIES THE DOVE.

The soul may be likened to a dove in a cage, from which some day it shall be set free to go home to its rest.

Earnestly.

Words and Music by J. R. MURRAY.

1. Where it nev-er more shall wea-ry, Home flies the dove; Where the day is rev-er drear-ry,
2. From the transient and the fad-ing Home flies the dove; To the sky no cloud is shad-ing,

Home flies the dove; To the rest that is for-ev-er, To the love that changes nev-er.
Home flies the dove; To the longed for, hap-py meet-ing. All the well-be-lov-ed greet-ing,

3. Up to realms unknown to sighing,
Home flies the dove;
Where shall come no pain nor dying,
Home flies the dove;
Home flies the dove:
Earthly joys no more detaining,
Earthly scenes no more restraining,
Now the golden portals gain-ing,
Home flies the dove.

[Sing all the questions and answers, before singing the second verse.]

Question.Answer.

Now let us from the storied past the sa-cred chil-dren bring; Our voices answer to your call, our sto-ry we will sing.

And while we tell the names we love, while children here below, We send you to the sa-cred Word, our sto-ry, sweet, to know.

Question—See, who is this, a gentle boy, who | comes to greet our sight?

Answer—Elijah's friend, my mother was, the | grateful Shunemite;

Go, now, the sweet, sad story read, of all her joy and pain;

And how the prophets, to her faith, her child restored again.

Question—Who is this little maiden here, in | humble garb arrayed?

Answer—I served the wife of Naaman, a | little captive maid,

And I, the mighty Captain sent to hear Elijah's word;

He cured him of his leprosy, and made him know the Lord.

Question—Come hither, little lad, and now, thine | ancient story tell:

Answer—My mother lent me to the Lord, and | called me Samuel;

He unto Israel, by me, revealed his word of might;
And to my listening heart he spake, deep in the silent night.

Question—Who is this child, whose gentle face turns, | wishful; to the skies?

Answer—The ruler Jairus' child am I, whom | Jesus bade arise!

And whence my "spirit came again," oh! do you long to go?

Then follow Jesus, and his love the way will surely show.

Question—And who is this that kept the flocks on | hills of Bethlehem?

Answer—I, David am, and on my brow shone | Israel's diadem.

I slew the lion and the bear with this young hand of mine;

With five smooth pebbles of the brook, I smote the Philistine.

Question—Who is this maiden, fair and pure, with | calm and peaceful brow?

Answer—The valiant Jephtha's child am I, who | kept his fearful vow.

No more shall Israel's daughters go, the mournful tale to tell;

For on the happy hills of God, with kings and priests I dwell.

Question—Who are these very little ones, and | what delights them so?

Answer—We're just such little ones as Christ, on | earth blessed, long ago.

We know his blessing for us waits, up in the heavenly home,

Where, by and by, the risen Lord will suffer us to come.

Question—How near may all the children come, the | loving Lord to meet?

And if we follow him below, the Children of the Word,
We by and by shall love and know—forever with the Lord.

THE SONG FROM OVER THE SEAS.

Words by Mrs. M. B. C. SLADE.

Allegretto.

1. A voice that I hear a-cross the sea, Sings the sweetest songs of the east to me; It sings of a land where bright suns glow, And the beau-ti-ful blos-soms of Bur-mah blow. Hear it say, Hear it say,

"Come to the beau-ti-ful land, a-way!" Hear it say, hear it say, "Come to the beau-ti-ful land, a-way!"

2. There, under the palm-tree's lovely shade,
Is the dreadful shrine of the idol made;
The land of the east is bright and fair,
But sorrow and sin and death are there.
Hear it say, hear it say,
"Come, in the night of our need, away!"

3. Oh, children of God, from east and west,
So the heathen come to the heavenly rest!
And Burmah beseechingly begs to-day,
That you pity and help her and show the way.
Hear her say, hear her say,
"Come, ye, and lead us to God, we pray!"

THE SPIRIT TREE

1. LOVE. 2. JOY. 3. PEACE. 4. LONG-SUFFERING, GENTLENESS. 5. GOODNESS. 6. FAITH. 7. MEKKNESS. 8. TEMPERANCE.

A pleasant effect may be added to the singing of this piece, if it is thought best, by having a little tree on which the singer may hang a card containing the word that the solo is describing. This may be done just after the solo is finished, and as the chorus is beginning. It may be thought best to have all the cards hung on the tree, with the blank side to the audience, before the piece begins, and simply have them turned as they are sung about. If the first part is taken by a semi-chorus, one of their number may be delegated to hang or turn the cards.]

Words and Music by P. P. BLISS.

SOLO, OR SEMI-CHORUS.

"By their fruits ye shall know them," the Sav-ior's words we read, And He looks from His mansions a - bove,

And He knows if our hearts have re-ceived the pre-cious seed, For the fruit of the Spir - it is Love.

CHORUS.

Oh, the fruits of the Spir - it are pure, May they all be found in me, in me, May my hears and my life ev - er yield the gold - en fruits Of the beau - ti - ful Spir - it Tree.

The musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature. The melody is written in the upper staff, and the accompaniment is in the lower staff. The lyrics are placed between the two staves, aligned with the notes.

1. "By their fruits ye shall know them," the Savior's words we read,
And He looks from His mansions above,
And He knows if our hearts have received the precious seed,
For the fruit of the Spirit is Love.
Chorus—Oh, the fruits, &c.
2. Though the dark clouds of sorrow surround us as they may,
And the pitfalls of passion annoy;
Still believing, rejoicing, we onward press our way,
For the fruit of the Spirit is Joy.
Chorus—Oh, the fruits, &c.
3. Though on seas of affliction our little bark be tossed,
Though the high rolling billows increase,
Still with hope for our anchor we never can be lost,
And the fruit of the Spirit is Peace.
Chorus—Oh, the fruits, &c.
4. Other fruits in their season we never fail to find,
If with eyelids unsealed we can see;
All that's gentle and tender, long-suffering and kind,
Is the fruit of this beautiful tree.
Chorus—Oh, the fruits, &c.
5. In the sun-light of heaven the waving branches glow,
Shedding perfume and gladness around;
Naught of evil or danger the dwellers 'neath it know,
For with Goodness its branches are crowned.
Chorus—Oh, the fruits, &c.
6. Sometimes, trembling and doubting, our home seems far away,
And the leaves of the tree dry and sere;
But the sweet fruits of Faith on the topmost branches sway,
Bringing joys of the better land near.
Chorus—Oh, the fruits, &c.
7. Bringing hope to the weary and comfort to the sad,
Bearing promise of heavenly birth;
Making joyful the low lands, the desert places glad,
For "the meek shall inherit the earth."
Chorus—Oh, the fruits, &c.
8. Naught impure or unholy the Spirit tree can bear;
Evil trees evil fruits only show;
No profane or intemp'rate the purer life can share,
Or 'the fruits of the Spirit tree know.
Chorus—Oh, the fruits, &c.

[The Recitation may be by single voices, each Scholar committing his part to memory; or, it may be read by the Superintendent or Teacher. Let the Song and Recitation succeed each other promptly. Pronounce "Naaman" with three syllables.]

Firmly.

Words by Mrs. M. B. C. SLADE. Music by Geo. F. ROOR.

1. Great Na - a - man, the Syr - i - an, could nev - er hap - py be, A brave and might - y man he was, a lep - er, too, was he; Till, from the land of Is - ra - el, a lit tle cap - tive maid Once served the wife of Na - a - man, and thus to her she said:

SONG.

Great Naaman, the Syrian, could never happy be,
A brave and mighty man he was, a leper, too, was he,
Till, from the land of Israel, a little captive maid
Once served the wife of Naaman, and thus to her she said:

RECITATION.

She said unto her mistress, "Would God that my Lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria for he would recover him of his leprosy."

SONG.

Then, to the King of Israel, the King of Syria sent Elix thousand pieces, bright, of gold, ten changes of raiment,
Ten talents, too, of silver good, as pure as pure can be;
And in a letter to the King, Oh, tell us what said he?

RECITATION.

"Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold I have therewith sent Naaman, my servant, to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy."

3.

SONG.

They bore the raiment to the King, the gold and silver bright;
Do you suppose it pleased him when he saw the shining sight?
Ah! no, the King of Israel, when he the letter read,
Was troubled so, he rent his clothes, and to his people said—

RECITATION.

"Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? Consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me."

SONG.

Elisha was a man of God, and when he heard the King
Had rent his clothes, he sent and said, "Why dost thou such a thing?
Let Naaman come now to me, and he shall know and tell
That he hath found a prophet here, in this our Israel."

RECITATION:

So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

SONG.

Elisha sent a messenger, and this he bade him tell:
"Go wash in Jordan seven times, thou shalt be clean and well."
But Naaman was wroth, and said, "Abana and Pharpar, Than all the streams of Israel, for me they better are."

RECITATION.

So he turned and went away in a rage. And his servants came near and spoke unto him and said, "My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldst thou not have done it? How much rather, then, when he saith to thee, Wash and be clean!"

SONG.

So, meekly went he down again, and sought the Jordan's side,
And dipped himself the seven times, within the healing tide.
As pure as is a little child, his flesh came back once more;
And this the mighty Captain said, the man of God before.

RECITATION.

"Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel. Thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other Gods but unto the Lord."

7.

SONG.

A little captive child she was that caused this thing to be;
I wish a way to do such good might come to you and me.
There is a work that we can do, oh, let us all begin,
We'll help the sinful wash away the leprosy of sin.

SONG.

So, by and by some suffering soul, by wicked ways defiled,
From us may learn the stream that makes clean as a little child.
The Jordan of our dear Lord's love, that is the fount we mean;
Where all who will may enter in and wash their spirit clean.

FEED MY LAMBS.

[This piece may be sung by eleven little girls, standing in the form of a crescent, each with a card or shield hung upon the breast having upon it one letter of the Scripture motto which is the theme of the whole song. At first the letters are all reversed and unsoen, but each turns her card and reveals her letter as she sings. All may sing the first six lines of the poetry, if desired.]

6. All my little friends above me
Stepped from up the alphabet;
I go half way down the column,
And the letter M I get.
7. Further down than all the others,
To the last but one I go ;
And the letter Y will furnish,
Which completes two words, you know.
8. Next the letter L is wanted
In the work we have to do ;
It begins the name Christ taught us—
Here I turn it round to you.
9. Before all the other letters
Is the one I bring you now ;
It is A, and lambs without it
Can't be spelled, as you'll allow.
10. Once before upon the platform
Has my letter been in sight,
But another M is needed,
So I'll turn it to the light.
11. Since my little friend above me
In the line has called out A,
'Tis but just a B to furnish,
So I've brought it up this way.
12. Last of all in this procession,
With the letter S I stand,
Which, you know, completes the spelling
Of our Savior's blest command.

CHANT (to be sung when the motto is complete).

That ye heed it and obey it, Let it in your | lives ap- | pear.

From all sin and danger keep us, Save us by Thy | power di- | vine. | A - | men. |
- The 2d verse of the chant may be repeated by one little girl, all singing the "Amen;" or it may be chanted like the first verse.

Question. (Question and answer by single voices; song by all.)

Answer.

1 { What sto - ry so sweet is the song we are sing - ing? We sing of the babe in the man - ger that lay;
 1 { What came the wise men from the East to Him bring - ing? They bro't Him rich treas - ures from lands far a - way.

SONG.

1. And then the wise men went a - way, To dis - tant East - ern lands; Nor would the cru - el King o - bey, Nor heed the King's com - mands; For God to them made known the thought Of wick - ed Her - od's mind, And why the lit - tle child he sought, So dil - i - gent to find.

I.

Question—What story so sweet, is the song we are singing?

Answer—We sing of the babe in the manger that lay,

Question—What came the wise men from the east to him bringing?

Answer—They brought him rich treasures from lands far away.

SONG. And then the wise men went away

To distant Eastern lands,

Nor would the cruel King obey,

Nor heed the King's commands.

For God to them made known the thought

Of wicked Herod's mind,

And why the little child he sought,

So diligent to find.

II.

Question—Where came they, one day, with the young child so holy?

Answer—They entered the temple to make offering.

Question—What bore they, the gift of the poor and lowly?

Answer—They came two young doves, with the infant to bring.

SONG. Then Simeon and Anna came,

And took the little one,

And blessed the Lord and praised his name,

For his beloved son,

And giving thanks to God on high,

Rejoicingly they tell,

The consolation now draws nigh

To waiting Israel.

III.

Question—Oh! why did they bear him away in his Childhood?

Answer—No longer in Bethlehem safe could he stay, wood?

Question—Where bore they the babe, thro' the desert and wild-

Answer—They bore him by night into Egypt away.

SONG. Away from cruel Herod's power

They took the little child,

By mountain pass, at midnight hour,

And o'er the desert wild,

They wandered where the angel said,

In Egypt's land to dwell,

And when the wicked King was dead

Came home to Israel.

IV.

Question—Why came they with Jesus from Egypt returning?

Answer—An angel of God told the cruel King's death.

Question—Where dwelt they, aside into Galilee turning?

Answer—They lived in the city they called Nazareth.

SONG. Fair Nazareth upon the hills,

Of humble Galilee;

Thy olive groves and singing rills,

Are beautiful to me,

For here among the birds and flowers

The gentle Mary's son

Passed childhood's sunny, happy hours,

Like me, a little one.

V.

Question—How passed he twelve years, in the grace of God grow- [ing]

Answer—He grew strong in spirit, in wisdom increased.

Question—Now where shall we find him from Nazareth going?

Answer—He comes to Jerusalem, up to the feast.

SONG. As up from Nazareth he went Through paths of Galilee,

The hills and vales their beauty lent

To such a child as he.

The lovely lilies of the field,

The birds that fill the air,

Their sweet and gentle lessons yield

To Jesus, walking there.

VI.

Question—Say, is he with Mary now homeward returning?

Answer—Ah! no, in the midst of the doctors he stays.

Question—How long, while they seek, is he teaching and learning?

Answer—Returning, they sorrowing sought him three days.

SONG. And when his mother said, Oh, why,

My son, didst thou this thing?

Behold thy father, here, and I,

Have sought thee, sorrowing?

He turned and said, Why sought ye me?

Oh! wist ye not that I

About my Father's work must be?—

His Father's work on high.

SONG. No more of him, a child, I've learned,

Yet, 'tis enough for me,

He with his parents then returned,

Obedient to be,

That he who in Jerusalem

Taught, as the scripture saith,

Went down and subject was to them.

In humble Nazareth.

Oh! thou who wast a child below

Once, on the earth, like me,

Now help me meek and mild to grow,

And strong and wise, like thee!—

In favor both with man and God,

May we like him go on,

And follow in the paths he trod,

The well-beloved Son!

[The Recitations may be read, or may be recited by scholars, either singly or in classes. It will be very useful to commit these portions of Scripture to memory, and the school might ask and answer these questions, in sections or classes, or individuals might be appointed to do so. It is too long to be performed without some variety of this kind.]

SONG.

Weeping o'er Jerusalem, | city of the | King,
Whom he would have gathered | 'neath his loving | wing,
Mourning for her children, | going all a- | stray,
Weeping o'er Jerusalem, | what did Jesus | say?

RECITATION.

Oh! Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Matt. xxiii : 37.

8.

SONG.

At the Lord's last supper, | ere he went to | die,

Drawing near the village, | when far spent the | day,
Walking into Emmaus, | what did Jesus | say?

First tune.

Words by Mrs. M. B. C. SLADE. Music by GEO. F. ROOF.

1. Where almond groves and vineyards rise, And singing streamlets flow, A hill ascends to kiss the skies, And meet the sun-rise glow.

Of all the heights that deck the earth, The brightest, fairest gem Art thou, that saw the Savior's birth, Be-loved Beth - le - hem!

BETHLEHEM.

SONG.

Where almond-groves and vineyards rise,
And singing streamlets flow,
A hill ascends to kiss the skies,
And meet the sunrise glow.
Of all the heights that deck the earth,
The brightest, fairest gem
Art thou, that saw the Savior's birth, Beloved Bethlehem!

RECITATION.

And thou, Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda; for out of thee shall come a governor that shall rule my people Israel. Matt. ii: 6.

NAZARETH.

SONG.

Now westward from Mount Tabor come,
To where the story saith
The young child Jesus had his home,
In lowly Nazareth.

Down through a narrow valley go,
And on a western hill,
Where palms and vines and lilies grow,
The village standeth, still.

RECITATION.

They returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth. And the child grew and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him. Luke ii: 29, 40.

CAPERNAUM.

SONG.

Capernaum, upon the plain
Of Lake Genesareth,
I seek thy palaces in vain—
Just as the Scripture saith.
Oh! city where the Master wrought,
Exalted high wert thou;
So low thy dwelling-place is brought,
No man may find thee now.

RECITATION.

And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum ** And

[It will make variety to use both tunes, singing some of the verses to the first and some to the second; but either one may be used for all the pictures.]

Geo. F. Root.

Second tune.

2 Now westward from Mount Tabor come, To where the story saith The young child Je-sus had his home, In low-ly Naz-a-reth: :

Down thro' a nar-row val-ley go, And on a west-ern hill, Where palms and vines and lilies grow, The village standeth, still.

thou, Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell; for if the mighty works which have been done in thee had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. Matt. iv: 13; x: 23.

CANA OF GALILEE.

SONG.

Upon a hill of Palestine,
Whose western slope is green
With olive, oak, and lovely vine,
A village small is seen.
There flows a spring, whose waters, cold,
In Cana once they brought,
When, at the marriage-feast, of old,
A wondrous work was wrought.

RECITATION.

There was a marriage, in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. John i: 1, 2.

SYCHAR: JACOB'S WELL

SONG.

Mount Gerizim and Ebal stand
In sterile, rocky height;
But lovely vales, of fruitful land,
Are spread before our sight.
To Jacob's Well the Savior comes,
And, resting by its brink,
The woman of Samaria
He asks to give Him drink.

RECITATION.

Then cometh he to a city of Samaria which is called Sychar. Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus, therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well. Then cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. John iv: 6-7.

NAIN.

SONG.

Nigh to the gates of Nain, turn now,
Where Kishon's sources flow;
Where, eastward on high Tabor's brow
The shining oak-trees grow.
A widow's only son to bear,
The mourning people come;
And Jesus goes to meet them there,
Now, from Capernaum.

RECITATION.

He went into a city called Nain. Now, when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak; and he delivered him to his mother. Luke vii: 11, 15.

LAKE OF GENNESARETH.

SONG.

Gennesareth, among the hills,
Is girt with fruitful lands;
And crystal streams and mountain rills,
Sing, down the shining sands,
Blue are the waves of Galilee;
With oaks is Basban green;
And westward Tabor's height I see,
And Carmel's brow, serene.

RECITATION.

And it came to pass, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the Lake of Gennesareth. And he entered into one of the ships. And he sat down and taught the people, out of the ships. Luke v: 1, 4.

BETHANY.

SONG.

The eastern slope of Olivet
Has palm-trees, green and fair,
And Bethany, "the place of dates,"
A village, small, is there.

There Lazarus and Martha dwell;
And Mary, mild and sweet,
The better path hath chosen well,
And sits at Jesus' feet.

RECITATION.

Jesus, six days before the passover, came to Bethany. There they made him a supper and Martha served; but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him. John xii: 1, 2.

And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word. Luke x: 39.

CALVARY.

SONG.

Now to the Mount of Calvary
Our mournful footsteps go.
I see the suffering Savior die
Upon the cross of wo.
No clustering vine nor blooming tree,
Allure my sorrowing eye;
That cross of pain is all I see,—
Oh! hill of Calvary.

RECITATION.

And when they were come to the place which is called Calvary, then they crucified him. Luke xxiii: 33.

THE HEAVENLY JERUSALEM.

SONG.

The shining pages now unfold
One picture, more, for me:
I see the wondrous streets of gold,
The jasper walls I see.
Like crystal, clear, I see a stream:
The tree of life is nigh,
Thy gates of pearl, how fair they gleam,—
Jerusalem on high!

RECITATION.

And he shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon to shine in it, for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. Rev. xxi: 10, 23.

I WOULD NOT DIE EARLY.—DUET AND CHORUS.

DUET.

Allegretto.

Words by Mrs. E. S. KELLOGG. Music by T. MARTIN TOWNE.

1. I would not die ear-ly, the har-vest is white, And fain would I la-bor from morning till night;
 2. I would not die ear-ly, I long to ful-ful The Sav-ior's com-mission, if such be his will;
 3. I would not die ear-ly, but if it be mine, In youth's mer-ry morning this life to re-sign;

I'd fol-low the reap-er and glean what he leaves, And homeward at ev'n-ing re-turn with my sheaves.
 "Go, spread the glad tid-ings, sal-va-tion is free, And none are re-ject-ed who come un-to me."
 I know my Re-deem-er will meet me with joy, And give me in heav-en some bless-ed em-ploy.

CHORUS.

I would not die ear-ly, I ask not to go Till I have done something for Je-sus be-low;

To those who are faith-ful, the promise is sure, And rest will be sweeter to those who en-dure.

Mainly.

1. No par - ents to love me, no kin - dred or home! My couch is the payement, un - cared for I roam;
 2. She sweeps by me proud - ly, she heeds not my grief; The price of that trin - ket would purchase re - lief.

2. Amid the grim shadows of gathering night
Her form disappears from the wanderer's sight;
No ray of compassion, alas! can she feel;
As soon would yon tower hear thy sad appeal.

Chorus.

3. Time's chariot rolls onward, and day slowly breaks;
But when from its slumbers the city awakes,
The poor little orphan is free from all care;
Those lips are as marble which uttered this prayer.

Chorus.

BEAUTIFUL ANGEL.

Affettuoso.

1. Beau-ti-ful An-gel, on pin-ions of light, Wait till I whis-per my Moth-er good night;
List while she calls me her pride and her joy, Folds to her bo-som her own lit-tle boy,
Hov-er a-round her on pin-ions of light, Moth-er, dear Moth-er, O! kiss me good night.

2. Beautiful angel, her sorrow is sore,
Weeping for one who will weep never more;
Waft her sweet dreams of the blessed above,
Tell her our God is a Father of love;
Only for this am I staying my flight,
Mother, dear Mother, O! kiss me good night.

3. Beautiful angel, thrice blessed art thou!
See, there's a smile on the dear pallid brow;
Token of faith that hath conquered her fears,
Token that time will have solace for tears;
Prest to those lips in their agony white,
Mother, dear Mother, forever good night.

[Designed for those Schools in which Memorial Service is held, at the last Concert in the year, with reference to those who have passed away during the year. Slight alteration will adapt it to the circumstances of any School.]

Tenderly.

Words by Mrs. M. B. C. SLADE. Music by Geo. F. Root.

1. The year is hast-ing to its close, And ere its hours are o'er, We turn our lov-ing tho'ts to
2. Two lit - tle boys there were who came To learn the heavenly way; We do not know their an-gel those Who walk with us no more. Four lit - tle va - cant chairs there are, In our dear in - fant band; name, Nor what they learn to - day. They loved the tender Shepherd, dear, Who led them while be-low;

CHORUS.

Four lit-tle friends have journeyed far In - to the heavenly land. Dear Fa - ther! dear Fa - ther!
And they who learned to love Him here Are with Him now we know. Dear Fa - ther! &c.

kind-ly keep each precious one, And teach us ten-der-ly to say, Thy will, Thy will be done!

3.
Two little girls, with sunny face,
No longer with us meet;
Their upward path we cannot trace,
Nor see their shining feet.
But in the Sunday School they learned
How Jesus bids us come!
And we are sure their feet have turned Safe to His heavenly home.

4.
But not for our dear lambs, alone,
We vainly look to-day;
A loving teacher, too, has gone
From his dear flock away.
He led them in the narrow path
His gentle footsteps trod,
And now the faithful servant hath Gone up to dwell with God.

Chorus.

5.
But let us dry our eyes, for they
Whom we so sadly miss,
Have gone from our dear School away,
To higher Schools than this.
And let us love Him, just the same,
Whose grace can help us say,
For ever blessed be His name,
Who gives, and takes away!

Chorus.

WILL YOU BATTLE FOR THE RIGHT?

Earnestly.

Words and Music by J. R. MURRAY.

Will you bat-tle for the Right With a purpose true and strong? Will your little feet in spite of thorns, Bravely press a-long?

Will you battle for the Right
With a purpose true and strong?
Will your little feet, in spite of thorns,
Bravely press along?

None can tell what life may bring,
What its days may have for thee;
But the Heavenly Father's tender love
Cares for you and me.

3.
We will trust His watchful care
Though our sight be faint and dim,
Safe in any path our feet may tread
If we walk with Him.
